Recital Enjoyed

Thursday evening, Miss Gladys Strong presented a group of students in a piano recital. They varied in age from pre-school to Junior High. Their numbers were very interesting and their playing was very musical.

The recital was one of a series being given at Miss Strong's residence studio on Southeast Main Street. The families and friends of the pupils who played were invited. A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the program.

The following played: Shelly Walls, Sally Luoma, Tracy Church, Ann Johnson, Shelley Ahrens, Daryl Elverson, Carol Johnson, Gay Severson, Kristin Ruag, Wendy Woodrich, Kristi Felt, Nan Cooper and Sherry Lindell.

Kirk of Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. F. Robertson of Eugene. The couple will reside in Portland. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography).

Robertson-Kirk Wedding May 6th

Pink dogwood blossoms, azaleas, flowering crab and white lilacs flanked by floor candelabra holding tall white cathedral candles formed the pink and white setting for the season's loveliest wedding when Miss Kenneth Kirk, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Kirk of Roseburg became the bride of Dr. Keith A. Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. F. Robertson of Eugene, Sunday, May 6, at 3:30 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church in this city. The Rev. John E. Adams performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of several hundred friends and relatives.

Mrs. Homer Grow, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied James Powell, formerly of Roseburg, who sang, "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was very beautiful in a floor-length gown of white silk organza fashioned with applique detail around the neckline and down the front of the skirt. The skirt was designed with a chapel train. Her elbow-length circular veil of illusion fell from a sequin ruffled headpiece. She carried white gladioli with deep pink roses.

Miss Marjorie R. Bucy, maid of honor; Miss Sarah Donaldson, both of Portland and classmates of the bride, and Mrs. Robin Mesher of Beaverton, were bridesmaids. They wore white sheath dresses with headveils of white net with pink flower detail. They carried deep pink gladioli sheaf bouquets.

Roger L. Robertson of Milwaukee, Wis., was best man for his brother, and Thomas Kirk, Roseburg, brother of the bride, and Lauren Alexander, Seattle, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kirk chose a blue sheath dress with white accessories. Her corsage was white orchids. Mrs. Robertson, mother of the bridegroom, wore a beige sheath dress with matching accessories and a corsage of ivory-colored orchids. A reception followed in the fire-

Doyles Honored

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Doyle of Garden Valley were honored at a family party Sunday evening on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pargeter in Ridge-wood.

A dessert supper was served from a pink covered table centered by a four tiered white wedding cake baked by Mrs. Dale Busenbark. White tapers in silver holders, silver service and spring flowers completed the attractive table setting.

Gifts were opened by the Doyles after which visiting and cards were enjoyed by them and Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Busenbark, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Busenbark, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Busenbark, Royce Busenbark, Jim Doyle, Mrs. Lena Howland, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Reese and sons, David and Bruce; John Doyle of Eugene; Mrs. Dan Henderson of Drain; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reese and Mr. and Mrs. Pargeter.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle were married May 16, 1937 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Busenbark, in Melrose. They have two sons, Don, a graduating senior at Oregon State University; and Gary, a freshman at Southern Oregon College. Doyle is superintendent of mail at the Roseburg Post Office.
