Mothers Tea, Style Show Social Event Of Thursday

One of the loveliest social affairs of the season was held Thursday at the Days Creek School gymnasium when members of the home economics classes of the school gave their annual mothers tea and style show.

About 100 guests were seated at small tables which were centered with low bowls of flowers. Arrangements of flowers were used throughout the large room.

The home economics teacher, Mrs. Edward Shanks, had organized the tea and acted as mistress of ceremonies. Margaret Shanks played a piano solo, followed by a vocal duet by Marilyn Martin and Terri Kostic.

The high school chorus sang "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" accompanied by Margaret Shanks.

Sandra Crumpton was introduced and in turn acted as commentator introducing the girls of Class I who modeled frocks they had made in class and which cost less than $5 for materials. Members of the class taking part were: Sherry Whetzel, Romona Skien, Agnes Hendrix, Cheri Snider, Gai Gardner, Cheryl Butler and Joni Gay Evers.

Piano solos were played by Ivy Lee Howard, Janice Lewellen and Ina Mae Howard. Terri Kostic sang. Two organ duets were played by Janice and Penny Lewellen. Class II then modeled their dresses of wool, woolen blends and synthetics. The cost of these frocks ranged from less than $5 for a jumper type dress to $12 for a two-piece suit dress. Mrs. Shanks commented on Jerri Clark's dress, and Jerri in turn was commentator for the following models: Sandra Crumpton, Betty Newton, Margaret Shanks, Avis Lewis, Carol Brady, Lynda Long, Nancy Anderson and Pat Bennett. Mrs. Lawrence Michaels played background music.

Marilyn Martin and Terri Kostic sang novelty number, followed by a saxophone solo by Diane Swingle. The last number on the program was "Sixteen Tons" by the chorus.

Mrs. Shanks presented gifts to various mothers present, including a gift to both Mrs. Earl Ashbaugh and Mrs. Vaughn Bennett for being "Everybody's Mother at School;" to Mrs. Michaels for all her help with the event; to Mrs. Ervin Whetzel as the youngest mother of a high school student; and to Mrs. Clayton Mather as the oldest mother of a high school student.

Refreshments had been prepared and were served by the members of the Home Economics classes.

Picnic Enjoyed At Price Home

Personnel and families of the Glide Ranger Station and Steamboat Ranger Station held a joint picnic Memorial Day on the lawn and gardens of the home of Little River District Ranger and Mrs. Jack Price on the North Umpqua Highway.

The long service table was filled with delectable foods of all varieties. Three chefs presided over three grills and served 108 hungry picnicers. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Selby were guests of the foresters.

Preceding the lunch, a spirited soft ball game was played between the Steamboat Ranger Station team and the Glide Ranger Station team, which ended in a victory for Steamboat, score 24-6. North Umpqua (Steamboat) district Ranger Gene Carlson was captain of his team; Ron Quimby, engineering survey chief, pitcher. Little River district Ranger, Jack Price, captain; and Chuck Morgan, suppression crew foreman, catcher.

Duplicate Play Enjoyed Monday

Fourteen tables were in play Monday evening, when the Timber Town Duplicate Bridge Club met in regular session. North-South winners were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Callison, first; Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Motschenbacher, second; William Pritchett and Verden Hockett, third; Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Petersen, fourth; and Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp and Mrs. Bliss Secoy, fifth.

East-West winners were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis, first; Mrs. R. D. Coen and Mrs. Michael Coen, second; Mrs. John Brooke and Fred Harder, third; Mrs. K. W. Fitzgerald and Mrs. H. E. DeBernardi Jr., fourth; and Mr. and Mrs. Morton Fillmore, fifth.

Regular play begins at 7:30 p.m. every Monday. Those desiring more information regarding the club or assistance in securing partnership are asked to call Mrs. Walter Ulrich or Mrs. John Davenport.

Mrs. Williams Honored By Club

The charming home of Mrs. Kenneth Luderma was the scene of a lovely party Thursday evening when she entertained members of her bridge club at a lovely desert supper.

Mrs. William House, Mrs. William Norris and Mrs. Charles Wolfe were guests.

Mrs. J. M. Williams was the recipient of a gift from the group, a farewell memento from the club. She and her family are moving to Eugene.

Mrs. Williams had high score for the evening's contract bridge play, with Mrs. Luderma having second high.

Others present were Mrs. L. F. Parks, Mrs. Jack Cate and Mrs. John Brooke.

Voice Students Sing In Recital

Voice pupils of Jessie Crenshaw were presented in recital Sunday at the First Christian Church at 3 p.m.

Those singing in recital were: Julie Smith, Jeff Harmon, J. E. Smith, Glen Blanchard, Laura Neseth, Jay Smith, Jamie Briggs, Marcia McDonald, Sherry Blake, Loydean Bailey, Becky Unruh, Steve Brown, Margaret Carlson, Jean Barnes, and Stephanie Fowler.

Brooke Young, pupil of Gladys Strong, was guest accompanist for the Handel and Mozart numbers sung by Steve Brown and Stephanie Fowler, and was much appreciated for her outstanding piano work.

Employe Dinner Given On Friday

Employees of the Caveman Lumber Co. plant at Wolf Creek and their wives were guests at a dinner given at Larry's Drive-In Banquet Room in Grants Pass Friday evening.

Those in attendance from Glendale included Mr. and Mrs. Ed Coate, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Burke, Mr. and Mrs. James Stanfill, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pope, Bob Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. George Stackhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Al Burgoyne and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Farmer.

Tiller Woman Honor Guest At Party At Wilson Home

Mrs. Cleon Puetz of Tiller was the honor guest at a pink and blue shower given recently by Mrs. John O. Wilson and Mrs. Roger Williams at the Wilson home at the Tiller Ranger Station.

Attractive decorations included a pink honeycomb umbrella centerpiece. A clever game resulted in Mrs. John T. Utley winning a prize.

Delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses following a pleasant evening of visiting, and the opening of her gifts by Mrs. Puetz.

Family Party At Oakland Fetes Lad From Blue River

A delightful birthday party for Stacy Solomon, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerold Solomon of Blue River, was held recently at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Trusty, at Oakland. Stacy and his mother are recuperating at the Trusty home following a serious automobile accident.

Celebrating with Stacy were his baby brother, Bryan; his cousins, Lisa and Diana House and Molly and Mike Schulze; Mrs. Della Tester of Portland; Mrs. Mardie Snook of Oakland, great-great grandmothers; Mrs. Vivian Padelford of Glide and Mrs. Kate Finley and Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston, Oakland, great-grandmothers; and Mrs. Thelma Trusty, grandmother.

Others present were Mrs. Vern Holgate and Mrs. Dick Riggs of Sutherlin; Mrs. J. C. House and Mrs. Robert Ridgeway and daughter, Louise, of Roseburg; and Mrs. Jeff Schulze of Oakland.

After opening his many gifts and enjoying the balloons and other party favors, a lovely birthday cake, decorated by Miss Lorraine Ortiz, was served with ice cream to Stacy and his guests.

Progressive Dinner Held By Woodmen Circle Grove

A delightful progressive dinner was held Tuesday evening by members of the Woodmen Circle Umpqua Grove 41 of Winston. The party started at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Strong for appetizers with Mrs. John Hess and Mrs. Lucy Benson as co-hostesses.

The group then proceeded to the home of Mrs. Dick Croucher for the salad course. Mrs. Croucher was assisted by Mrs. Alice Christensen. Mrs. Arthur McGuire, assisted by Mrs. Alvin Wade, Mrs. Bill Cooper, Mrs. Jack Veach and Mrs. George Thomas, served the entree at her home. The main table was covered by a white damask cloth with green candles in copper holders centering the table. The small tables were covered by gay colored cloths.

White lace cloth centered by an attractive arrangement of spring flowers was used on the serving table at the Croucher home.

Following the delicious turkey dinner at the McGuire home, the party then completed the dinner with the dessert course at the home of Mrs. George Cornish. White covered tables centered by floral arrangements provided a delightful setting for coffee and dessert.

Those attending the delightful affair were the Mesdames Alvin Wade, Paul White, Goldie Willis, Bill Cooper, George Holm, Jack Veach, Sarah Cyrus, Alice Christensen, Lucy Benson and George Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Bixby, Mr. and Mrs. John Cornish, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Croucher, Mr. and Mrs. John Hess, Mr. and Mrs. George Cornish, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McGuire, Miss June Dale Hutson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert
