Garden Questionnaire Asks: Did You Know?

DID YOU KNOW?

That gardening is the great American hobby? More money is spent by the American public on gardening than on any other hobby, although boating is a close second. Billions are spent each year on the maintenance of lawns, nursery stock, insecticides and power mowers.

That the white delphinium was originated in America and by an Oregonian, Charles Barber?

That David Douglas, for whom our Douglas Fir is named, admired the native Madrone so much that he sent seeds of it from the wilds of Oregon to the gardens of England where it is still prized as one of the finest evergreens from America?

That Oregon ranks first in the nation in the number of state parks with 164?

That a group of cloistered Franciscan nuns in Canton, Ohio, has gone into business making fishing lures, selling 16 different kinds, calling them St. Peter's Fishing Lures and each is sold with a built-in prayer for fishing success?

That $500 million in tax funds are spent each year to clean litter from primary highways and $3 million was needed by U.S. Forest Service to clean up litter in our national forests last year?

That New Zealand is a hunter's paradise; where authorities permit hunters to take all the deer they want, without a license, any time of the year and even furnish the ammunition because of the over population of the animals?

That Japan leads the world in commercial fishing and in 1960 became the first nation in the world to catch six million tons of fish in a single year?

That Crown-Zellerbach planted its 200 million seedling tree on the CZ plantations north of Bogalusa, La., where the first reforestation was done in 1921?

That there are 5,000 worm ranchers in the U.S. and they do a $25 million business every year, mostly to fishermen, next in line are the composters and the gardeners?

That a Minnesota manufacturer of shotgun cartridges is changing the colors of the shells according to gauges, the purpose of which is to prevent a hunter from dropping a 20-gauge shell into a 12-gauge shotgun? The small shell can slip ahead into the barrel, obstructing it and causing the gun to explode if a 12-gauge shell is fired behind it.

That the National Wildlife Federation awarded $10,207 in conservation grants to 15 students for the 1962-63 academic year? The program includes nine undergraduate scholarships, of which two are in forestry, four are in wildlife management, two are in conservation education and one is in biological science. Six graduate fellowships are also awarded.

That an Israeli scientist has successfully grown over 200 varieties of plants under sea water irrigation?

AND That the American Dietetic Association reports that it takes more energy to carry 50 pounds of excess fat around than to carry 50 pounds of lead?

SO back to the garden girls, its good for the waist line.

CAMAS VALLEY CLUB

The Camas Valley Garden Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Guy Moore for a tour of the gardens in the valley.

Mrs. Moore showed her herb garden, and from there the group went to the Leslie Catchpole and Jess McMaster homes where members viewed several lily and fish ponds. They saw a terraced slope at the home of Mrs. Hayden Taylor. Mrs. Charles Crouch and Mrs. Beulah Mathews displayed many seasonal flowers. Mrs. Wayman Schmidt showed the red maple tree which has been purchased for the Fair-ground plot.

The tour continued to the James Combs and Frank Brown gardens. Mrs. Brown's garden featured a display of iris. The group ended its tour at the home of Mrs. Clem Spurlock in upper Camas for the business meeting.

CAMAS VALLEY CLUB

The Camas Valley Garden Club recently held its annual handicraft and hobby show in the school cafeteria, with Mrs. Emery Thrush as chairman.

First place prize winners were as follows: first grade, Mary Beth Southwick; second grade, Laura Thrush; third grade, Wynna Hall; fourth grade, Narda Looney; fifth grade, a model of the rock creek fish hatchery, by Kristina Cooper, Ramona Wilson, Kathy Bright and Vickie Thrush; fireman's pack Jerry Weathers; and collections, Kristine Cooper; miscellaneous, Marlene Southwick; seventh grade, Bruce Lamm.

The judges were Mrs. Ruth Crockett and Mrs. Wayman Schmidt. They held open house in the afternoon and served cookies and coffee.

RIDDLE GARDEN CLUB

The Riddle Garden Club held its final meeting of the summer last week at the home of Mrs. J. L. Aikins, retiring club president.

Newly-elected officers were installed as follows: Mrs. Austin Wilson, president; Mrs. Charles Zifka, vice president; Mrs. Gregg Hentges, secretary; and Mrs. G. J. Aspy, treasurer. Mrs. Aspy was elected delegate to the state convention of Federated Garden Clubs to be held in Salem the latter part of June. Mrs. Aspy was winner of the door prize.

A potluck luncheon was served at noon to the members and one guest, Mrs. A. P. Johnson of Vancouver, Wash.

DOCTORATE RECEIVED — Dr. Raymond H. Schaefer, right, former pastor of the Roseburg First Baptist Church, is congratulated by Dr. Harry Dillin, Linfield College president, after Schaefer received the honorary degree of doctor of divinity from Linfield. Dr. Schaefer is now director of Christian education for the Oregon Baptist Convention.
