

South Douglas Win Skein Stopped By North Eugene

Winetrot Motors American Legion Juniors of Myrtle Creek had their win skein stopped at two straight Sunday when the North Eugene contingent invaded Myrtle Creek and won both ends of a Doug-Lane League twin bill.

North Eugene edged the South Douglas team, 11-9, in the first game, then came back in the nightcap to score five runs in the top of the seventh to post a 6-3 victory.

Myrtle Creek now has a 2-2 record for the season and a 1-2 mark in league play.

Opening Slugfest
In the opening slugfest North Eugene combined 15 hits and six Myrtle Creek errors to score 11 runs. Myrtle Creek did plenty of hitting—getting 12 safeties—but could not manage to even up the scoring.

The host South Douglas crew went out in front in the bottom of the first frame with two runs. A walk to Tom Morrison, followed by an error on Tony Quinn's ground-er put runners at first and second. Morrison was forced at third by Gary Paetz. Carl Burke singled scoring Quinn. Paetz came home on a passed ball.

Winetrot Motors led until the top of the third when North Eugene pushed across three tallies. Mike Emmons started the rally with a single to left. Wayne Allen followed with a base rap. Emmons scored on a sacrifice fly by Ron Murphy and Ron Boyles worked his way for a base on balls. Boyles and Allen executed a double steal and Bob Lange's single scored both runners.

Margin Built
North Eugene went on to build an 11-4 margin going into the bottom of the seventh. Myrtle Creek exploded for five runs on four hits, a walk and an error. Paetz and Don Fisher each collected doubles in the uprising, and Mike Markham climaxed the inning with a triple.

Bob Craven tossed the win for North Eugene and Myrtle Creek's Don Fisher was the top hitter of the game. Fisher was 3-4, including a double and a home run. In the second game Winetrot Motors trailed 1-0 from the first until the fifth stanza. In the fifth Myrtle Creek took the lead with three runs. Jim Coon led off with a single and Rick Abrahamson beat out a bunt. Keith Hanson tripled to right-center scoring two runs. Hanson continued his journey when the throw in from the outfield hit the runner.

Five-Run Surge
North Eugene came to life with a five-run surge in the seventh to post the win. Denny Bloom singled and Emmons followed with a walk. Allen singled scoring two and Murphy's four-bagger scored two more. Boyles belted a ground rule double and with two out back-to-back singles by Lange and Ed Rupert scored Boyles.

Myrtle Creek will try to bounce back into the win column when it hosts the Dunham Motors team of South Eugene Tuesday in a nine-inning league counter. Game time at Myrtle Creek is set for 5 p.m. Tuesday.

Stanley, Shippey Double In Hardtop Winner Circle

Jim Stanley and Marion Shippey doubled up in the winner's circle at the opening hardtop races held Saturday night at the Roseburg Speedway.

Roseburg's Johnny Barron beat Jay Eaton, another Roseburg driver, for first place in the A-main event. Other heat winners included Bud Dix of Cottage Grove, Bill Suiter of Roseburg and Josh Crabtree of Crescent City, Calif.

Crowd Thriller
In the B-main car No. 10, driven by Edward "Red" Phillips of Coos Bay gave the crowd a thrill when his car rolled end-over-end against the wall in front of the grandstands.

Bray Hurls One-Hitter To Handcuff Merchants

Jim Bray handcuffed the Winston Merchants with a one-hitter as Bert's Food Market rolled to a decisive 20-0 softball victory in YMCA Twilight League action Friday.

The winners' 12-hit attack was paced by a grand-slam home run by Jim Wilson in the first inning. Fred Mesner came through with a round-tripper in the seventh for two more runs.

After the first-inning rally Bert's Food Market was in complete control all the way. Bert's Food Market of Oakland now sports a 2-2 league record, while the Winston Merchants have a 1-3 mark.

Douglas Veneer Downs Roseburg Lumber, 12-3

CERTAIN AS TAXES

Giants Take June Swoon Again While Dodgers Grab First Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

As certain as death and taxes—That's a San Francisco Giants' swoon in June.

In each of their first four seasons in San Francisco, the Giants had stormed into June in or very close to first place in the National League standings only to fall flat on their faces in the month of honeymoons and traditional bliss. This year, their fifth on the West Coast, has been no exception. They absorbed two more defeats at the hands of the St. Louis Cardinals Sunday—5-6 and 13-3—extending their losing streak to six straight games.

2 1/2 Games Behind

The double defeat, coupled with Los Angeles' double triumph over Houston, by scores of 9-3 and 9-7, dropped the Giants 2 1/2 games behind the league leading Dodgers. Only a week ago the Giants led the Dodgers two games.

The Giants' June collapse is one of those believe-it-or-nots. Take a look: 1958—The Giants were in first place on June 1, enjoying a one-game lead over Milwaukee. They lost 4 of their next 20 to drop into third place, 3 1/2 games off the pace. 1959—The Giants were in second place, a game in back of Milwaukee on June 1. They lost 9 of their next 16 to fall two games behind.

First To Third

1960—The Giants were in first place on May 30, leading Pittsburgh by one game. They lost 17 of their next 22 to skid into third place 6 1/2 games behind.

1961—The Giants were in first place on May 29, leading Los Angeles by a game and a half. They lost 8 of their next 10 to fall into third place, two games off the pace.

Pittsburgh took two games from Milwaukee 12-8 and 3-2. Cincinnati split with Philadelphia, winning the second game, 9-5, after the Phillies had won the opener, 7-5. Chicago after losing the first game, 2-1, came from behind with three runs in the ninth and one in the 10th to win the second game 5-4 from New York.

Minnesota climbed into a virtual first place tie with New York in the American League, downing the Chicago White Sox twice, 8-4 and 11-7 while Baltimore was beating the Yankees 5-1 and 7-2. Los Angeles took two from Kansas City 14-6 and 6-5 to move into fourth place past the Detroit Tigers who were set back twice by Washington 2-1 and 5-4. Cleveland whipped Boston 9-3 after the Red Sox had won the opener 4-3 in 11 innings.

Littler Threatens To Repeat As Winner Of U. S. Open Play

CLIFTON, N.J. (AP)—Not since Ben Hogan did it in 1951 has a U.S. Open champion repeated, but Gene Littler, the sweet-swinging from San Diego, Calif., made it clear today that he is a real threat for his second straight this week at Oakmont, Pa.

"I'm pretty confident about my game," said Littler, who collected the $25,000 first prize-top payoff of the year—in the $100,000 Golf Classic Sunday. "I'm playing as well as I am capable of playing. I won't be the favorite though. I never am."

Strong Words
Those are strong words for Littler, an even-tempered quiet man who finally made the predictions of stardom for him stand up when he took the Open last year at Oakland Hills.

He banged out a 5 under par 67 Sunday, to come from a stroke back of Jack Nicklaus, and finish with 275, a four-day total of 13 under par on the 7,055-yard Upper Montclair Country Club course. Nicklaus had a final-round 79 for 277. Wes Ellis and Dow Finsterwald split third with 280.

Littler's victory shot him into second spot among the pro money winners with $53,704.16, behind Arnold Palmer who has $60,331. Palmer had a poor tournament, never contending, and wound up with a 71, for 289 and $400. He spent more than that on new golf club grips during the tournament, trying to straighten out his game.

Never Played Oakmont
Littler 31, never has played Oakmont, the sand-specked terror where he must defend his crown, in fact, never has seen it. "I was in the Navy in 1953 the last time they played the Open there," he said, "and I couldn't get away. "But then I never played Upper Montclair before, either."

Littler broke Brawny Nicklaus' heart early in the final round, with a string of evenly spaced birdies, on holes 1, 3, 5, 7, and 9. He turned in 31, and coasted home.

Nicklaus pocketed $10,000, his biggest check as a pro, for second place.

Ellis, West Caldwell, N. J., scrambled to a 71 that included a drive that hit a woman spectator and two missed puts of under two feet to tie Dow Finsterwald, who stroked a conservative 73. Each made $5,000.

Sam Snead, the half-way leader, rallied from 78 in the third round to a two-under 70 to finish in a 10th place tie at 284. He made $1,900.

Batting—Rich Rollins, Twins—Rollins, reaching base six straight times, singled twice and homered in the first game, then singled and slammed a two-run triple in the second game as the Twins swept a doubleheader from the Chicago White Sox 8-4 and 11-7. Pitching—Milt Pappas, Orioles—permitted only six hits in a route-going performance in the first game as the Orioles took two from the New York Yankees, 5-1 and 7-2.

Cadman Takes 1st In Portland Race

Myrtle Creek's Ed Cadman raced home ahead of Wendell Cox of South Salem in the mile race of the Junior Olympics held in Portland Saturday.

Cadman's winning time in the mile was 4:32.3. In the 880 the Viking middle distance star placed fourth with a 2:03 clocking. Cadman was bumped by another runner in the 880 finals or Coach Bob Abrahamson feels he would have placed much higher in the race.

Ross Barkhurst, also of Myrtle Creek, competed in the 100 and 220 - yard dashes of the Junior Olympics. Barkhurst qualified with times of :10.25 and :23.4, but failed to place in the finals.
