BILL MARKHAM
Riddle president

Bill Markham Irish President

Leading the Riddle Irish next year is William E. Markham, Jr., who was recently elected president of the student body.

Markham has been on the student council for two years having been a class representative as a freshman and president of the junior class this past year.

Markham is an honor student at the South Douglas county school and was named as one of the top ten scholars in the school last year. As a sophomore he was named to the all-conference second team as a back; this year he was unanimous choice as all-conference first team full back. He has lettered eight times since entering high school in baseball, basketball and football.

Last year he won an appointment to the Junior Engineers and Scientists Summer Institute, a honor summer school for high school students held at Oregon State University. A member of the International Relations Club at his school, he has been a delegate to the state convention for two years in a row. He is also a member of the French Club and the Letterman's Club.

Markham is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Markham, of Riddle. He plans to apply for admittance to the Air Force Academy next year and will attend Millard School at Bandon, this summer, in preparation for the Academy Tests.
