Local News

Leo E. Kowalewski and son, Dale, spent Tuesday in Grants Pass attending to business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Christensen and baby son, Jimmie, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leo E. Kowalewski in their new home at 305 W. Center St. in Roseburg.

Gayle Geddes (Mrs. Russell Caldwell), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geddes of this city, has the lead in the Bridge Bay Theatre play "Seven Day Itch" playing at Redding, Calif. She will have a part in the play "Brigadoon" to play in August in San Diego. Gayle played the second lead in an opera the last two months in Los Angeles.

Tommy Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. (Bud) Seeborg of Sacramento, Calif., formerly of this city, was here Tuesday visiting friends. He brought his brother, Hal, to the Seventh-day Adventist Academy at Milo, Hal, who just completed his junior year at the academy, will work at the school during the summer as he has been doing each summer to help defray school expenses. Tommy is to be married at Marysville June 30.

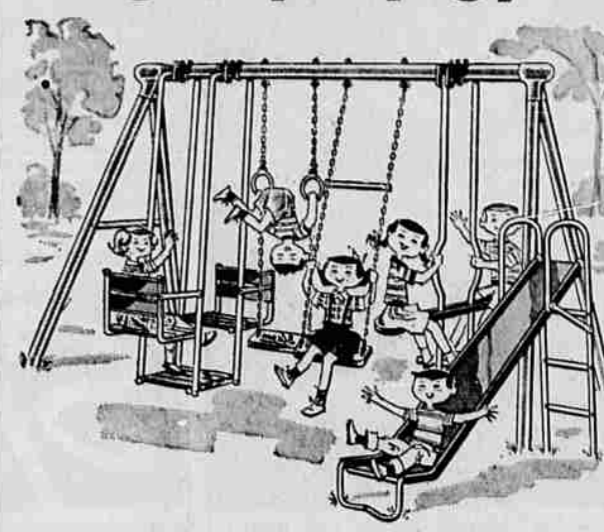

Mrs. Darley Ware, Mrs. Margaret Engle, Mrs. Robert Elliott, Mollie Ware, Mary Beth Hill, Sherry Engle, Ann Walton, Randi Todd, Maryann Johnson, Beth Orjala and Sandy McIntyre, spent two days at the Walton summer place at Croft Lake and also enjoyed the boat trip from Gold Beach to Agnes, after which the group went to Coos Bay to spend Thursday, Friday and Saturday attending the grand session of Job's Daughters of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilshire of this city have their two sons-in-law and daughters and their families here visiting, who include Mr. and Mrs. Walter Halperin (Willie Wilshire), and Debbie and Michael, of Storrs, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Carr (Zona Wilshire) and children, Willie, Richard and Kristin, of Woodland, Calif. Halperin, who recently received a fellowship for study, is attending University of Connecticut, working on his Ph.D. Carr is Waters Division Customer Sales Supervisor for Kor-dite.

Mrs. Jack (Rose) White, a former Roseburg resident now living in Arlington, Calif., and her two daughters, Sheryl and Karen, have been visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Artemenko, as well as with friends in the area. Her mother, Mrs. Mary Artemenko, of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, has also been here visiting. Mrs. White took her family to Arlington three years ago to be able to help the girls with their education. Mrs. White does part-time work in the Loma Linda Foods plant in neighboring LaBrea. They plan to return to their home with the Virgil Olson family this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Olson of La Sierra, Calif., formerly of Roseburg, were visitors here over the weekend en route home from the World Fair at Seattle. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wood on Del Rio Drive. In order to visit as many friends as possible, a potluck dinner was held Saturday afternoon at Singleton Park and attended by 150 members and friends of the local Adventist Church. The Olsons went to LaSierra in order that their son, Gordon, might enter the Adventist college after being graduated from Milo Academy. Gordon, who was married in March, has eight months of study to become a mortician. The Olson's younger son, Elton, is a student in College. Both boys attended Roseburg Junior Academy. The Olsons were both active in church and young peoples work while living here.
