Golden Wedding Is Large Affair

A host of friends greeted Mr. and Mrs. Grover Davis of Days Creek with felicitations at an open house Saturday afternoon, honoring their golden wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Davis was lovely in a blue lace over pink dress, with a white and lavender orchid corsage, a gift of her daughter, Mrs. Richard Weisgerber.

The IOOF Hall in Canyonville, where the reception was held, was decorated with bouquets of iris. The guests of honor presided at the guest book table, and greeted the visitors as they arrived. Their son, Grover Lee Davis, acted as host.

Refreshments were served from a lace over gold covered table with a beautiful centerpiece of hawthorne, snowballs and ferns in the shape of a large star. The arrangement had been made by Mrs. Fredrick King, a niece of the Davises. To the left of the center-
