Bride-Elect Honor Guest

Miss Maurine Hallmark entertained at a charming shower party Wednesday evening at the attractive home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hallmark, on SE Overlook Avenue, in compliment to bride-elect Janet Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reed, whose marriage to Larry Rains will be an event of Saturday.

Daisies formed a pretty motif for the decorations. Games were played with prizes going to Patty Dent, Kathy Oakley and Marilyn Holland.

Lovely bridal shower gifts were presented to Miss Reed from Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Rains, Patty Dent, Kathy Oakley, Pat Dodge, Marilyn Holland, Billie Whorton, Sharon Dick, Judy Glanz and Nellie Sweetzer.

Miss Hallmark and her mother served lovely refreshments later in the evening.

Pamela Miller Marries Robert Barry Nelson Here

The Rev. Eugene Gerlitz of the First Baptist Church officiated at the June 3 wedding of Pamela Miller and Robert Barry Nelson, both of this city. The marriage rites took place at Oak Tree Inn before 100 invited guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Miller of Roseburg. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Don Nelson of Portland.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in her ballerina-length gown which was fashioned with a white lace bodice and silk chiffon skirt with lace flower appliques. A seed pearl crown held in place her shoulder-length veil which was sprinkled with tiny seed pearls. She carried white gladioli with a white Bible. Her only jewelry was a single pearl drop pendant, a gift from the bridegroom.

Vicki Miller, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in dark pink chiffon, with a lace and flower hat to match her frock. She carried white gladioli with dark pink carnations. She also wore a pearl drop necklace, a gift from the bride.

Barton Conin of Boise, Idaho, was best man.

The reception following the ceremony was held on the patio. The serving table was dominated by the wedding cake, shaped like a large cross and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom in a large gold ring. The cake ornament was three generations old.

Mrs. Mildred Moore, aunt of the bride, served the cake. Another aunt, Mrs. Fred Andrus, poured coffee, while Mrs. Harold Aulsebrook, sister of the bridegroom, served the punch. Miss Linda Chase and Miss Kitty Moore, the latter the cousin of the bride, from Beaverton, presided at the gift table. Miss Carol Rhoton of Portland attended the guest book. Packets of rice were distributed by Kathy and Chris Eden of Corvallis, niece and nephew of the bridegroom.

Coming from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George Jones and Rod, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rhoton and Carol, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morian, Mrs. R. C. Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Aulsebrook and Martin and David, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lamm, Beaverton; Mr. and Mrs. George Chaney, North Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Don Martin, Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Garlick and Ruby Murry, all of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. George Rambo, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Alton Miller, Coos Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eden and family, Corvallis; and Phillip Miller, San Francisco.

The bride attended Roseburg High School and has been employed by Douglas Community Hospital. The bridegroom who has been employed as a radio announcer by KYES, has accepted employment at KJAR Radio Station in Anchorage, Alaska. The young couple have left for Anchorage via Vancouver Island and Seattle. They are making their home temporarily with relatives until they acquire housing.

After-Rehearsal Party Is Given

A party was given Thursday at the home of Miss Dee Ann Smith after the rehearsal for the wedding of Miss Sharon Lynn Freese of Myrtle Creek to Airman 2C Walter A. O'Mealy.

At this time, the members of the wedding party received gifts from the betrothed couple. Refreshments were served, and the group enjoyed dancing and games.

Present were the Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Johannes, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Muskopf of Corvallis, Calif., grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Freese, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Freese and children, Denise and Ricky; David Andrews, Lee Freese, Gary Freese, Mrs. George O'Mealy, Miss Barbara Norton, Miss Linda Porter, Mrs. Jerry Jones and Miss Donna Hart, both of Roseburg; Steve Newman, Steve Dean, David Winters, Don Harkema, Vic Fitzpatrick, Miss Linda Swingen and Miss Debbie Smith.

Christening Takes Place

Mr. and Mrs. James O'Neil and small son, Michael, and baby daughter, Elizabeth Ann, who was born at Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene March 22, and Mr. and Mrs. David Powell and daughter, Tracy Lee, were recent visitors in Roseburg, at which time Elizabeth Ann was christened at St. George's Episcopal Church by Father Alfred S. Tyson.

The christening dress worn by Elizabeth Ann was made by her maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. W. M. Plimpton, of Roseburg, and her bonnet was one made by her grandmother, Mrs. Corkrum, for the latter's daughter, Mrs. James O'Neil, mother of the baby.

Godparents of Elizabeth Ann are her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. David (Jody) Powell, of Eugene, and her great-aunt, Mrs. Mary Carbine, of Seattle.

Attending the party at the Curran home were Mr. and Mrs. O'Neil and Michael and Elizabeth Ann; the latter's great-grandmother, Mrs. W. M. Plimpton; her grandparents, Mrs. Bert S. Corkrum and Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. O'Neil, and son, Bruce, and daughter, Peggy; her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. David Powell and Tracy Lee, of Eugene; her aunt, Miss Kathi Corkrum, who was home from University of Oregon, and her great-aunt, Mrs. Mary Carbine, of Seattle.

Reception Given Here

A wedding reception honoring the Rev. and Mrs. James Parker was held recently in Roseburg, at which time Father Alfred S. Tyson blessed their marriage, which was an event of April 20, at the Russian Orthodox Church in Vancouver, B. C., the priest of which, the Rev. Filimon Gorelik, is the father of the bride, the former Minodora Gorelik.

The Rev. James Parker was ordained in Vancouver May 1. He received his LTH degree from the Anglican Theological College on the University of British Columbia campus. He will be ordained as a priest within this year and is now serving as assistant to Oak Bay Park St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Victoria, B.C.

The bridegroom is very well-known in Roseburg, having resided here for a time. He is the son of Mrs. Alfred Allan of Roseburg and a brother of Bill Parker of Riddle, who with his family came for the reception, and of Mrs. Donald Matson, Roseburg. Don Ware of Springfield, formerly of this city, came to Roseburg for the reception also.

A beautiful four-tiered wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Matson. Karen Matson served the punch and Mrs. Winton Hudelson, of Myrtle Creek, sister of the bridegroom, poured.
