

Glide Horses Among Tops In Northwest

By MRS. ARTHUR SELBY
Glide Correspondent
S. E. (Syd) Comfort of Glide, well known lumberman and sportsman has entered a new field of business and sports.

At the Central Washington Quarter Horse Show held in Yakima, Wash. June 23 and 24, Baldy Buzz and Pee Wee Bomb, full brother stallions owned by Comfort, won the senior and junior reining class trophies and blue ribbons. They were ridden by Lucky Warren of Grants Pass.

Pee Wee, a 4 year old, was started in training by Warren in February of this year. He has been shown in 5 shows held in Oregon, Washington and Idaho — placing in all 5 shows, winning 1st place and blue ribbons in the last two shows.

Buzz, the senior stallion is well known in the Pacific Northwest. He was purchased last September by Mrs. Comfort as a wedding anniversary gift, which started Comfort on his career as an enthusiastic horseman. Buzz was sent to the Lucky Warren Training Stables at Grants Pass for additional training. The stallion has the distinction of being the only Oregon quarter horse to make the Sweepstakes finals at the Portland International Horse Show last fall, and also won the working cow-horse event.

DEFENDING CHAMP — Arnold Palmer, defending Western Open champ, blasts out of a sand trap on the fifth green at Medinah Country Club near Chicago in the first round of the 1962 Western Open. Palmer finished with a two over par 73. Fred Hawkins took the first round lead with a 68. (UPI Telephoto).

Midgets Set Tag-Team Battle At Local Arena

Wrestling fans can be assured of seeing plenty of action as promoter Elton Owen brings three top matches to the Community Building at the Douglas County Fairgrounds Saturday night.

Four of the greatest wrestling midgets in the world is the way Owen tags the four grapplers performing in the featured event. In the midget tag-team battle Little Beaver, a long-time ring favorite, will team up with Sonny Boy Cassidy against Sky Low and Tiny Tim.

Little Beaver and Sky Low are old mat enemies, and anything is liable to happen when the two get together in the ring.

Owen warns local fans that Saturday will be the last chance to see the wrestling midgets in action before they leave the Northwest.

In addition to the featured Midget battle, Owen has two top matches lined up for the evening. In the main event Luther Lindsey will match wits with Fritz von Goering. Tangle in the semifinal bout will be Rocky Columbo, the popular favorite from the Bronx, and the dashing Pepi Gomez.

Lindsey is listed as one of the top 10 heavyweights in the world, and only recently returned from a tour of Japan where he was undefeated. The big colored head-but-ter will be out to dump Von Goering in order to get a crack at Von Goering's Pacific Northwest heavyweight title.

The first match will get under way at 8:30 p.m. Saturday at the Fairgrounds. Fans are advised to arrive early as the midgets attract large crowds wherever they perform.

Roseburg Babe Ruth Team Triumphs 1-0

Scoring a single run in the second inning, Roseburg's entrant in the Continental Division of the Douglas County Babe Ruth League went on to edge Riverside 1-0 in a pitchers duel.

Doug Matson and Gary Heeter matched talents in a pitching duel, with Matson coming out on the short end of the final score. Matson gave up just one run on three hits, while whiffing 10 and walking six. On the other hand, Heeter gave up two hits and struck out seven, while issuing four base on balls.

The game's only run came in the second frame when Larry Woodman slammed a ball over the right fence for a round-tripper. Roseburg's other two hits were collected by Brian Brown and Jim Richmond, while Riverside's only hit was garnered by Steve Vasterling and Matson.

Roseburg's victory evens its league record at 1-1, while Riverside is one-half game back with a 1-2 record. Leading the pack is the Fremont club with a 3-0 league mark.

RCC Lady Golfers Announce Winners

Vivian Harth, Mirna Hard, Margaret Gatz, Sue Sickman and Edith Nordling walked off with the honors in the Roseburg Country Club's lady golfers Kicker Tournament Tuesday.

Mrs. Harth topped the field in the Class A action, while Mrs. Hard and Mrs. Ganz ended tied for first among the Class B players. Mr. Sickman and Mrs. Nordling won the Class C and Class D classifications of the tourney respectively.

There will be a general luncheon meeting of the lady golfers July 3 following Sweetstakes Day's Play. Golfers will make their own pairings as it will also be guest day. Following the meeting Edna Teague, chairman of the rules committee, will discuss the rules and etiquette on the golf course for the new members. All other members wishing to brush up on rules and etiquette are invited to attend. Qualifying rounds for the Club Championship tourney will be held July 3-8.

Benefits Swell Wassom Fund Take

The Jim Wassom Fund went over the $2,000 mark with the addition of $984.01 taken in at Wednesday's benefit game between the Lockwood Motors Legion team and the ex-Roseburg Legion all-stars.

An additional $27 was added to the fund as the result of a benefit Babe Ruth League game between Days Creek and Myrtle Creek played on the Myrtle Creek diamond Wednesday.

Lyle Fenner, chairman of the fund raising campaign, has asked that any persons having collected money for the Jim Wassom Fund turn it in at any of the three Roseburg banks as soon as possible.
