

GIANT TRUSSES, 96 feet in length, went up Thursday morning to form the roof supports for the new Indian Lanes bowling alley, now under construction to the north of Roseburg's city limits. Jay Oldham's crane equipment was called here from Eugene to put up the glue-laminated beam trusses, which eliminate need for supporting posts. They were produced by Truss Fab, Inc., Portland. Shorter beams for the lobby will be made by DUCO Lam at Roseburg. The long beams will span the 16 bowling lanes. Cliff Aten and Grant Phillips who own the land, are having the building erected by Todd Building for D & D Bowl, Inc., owned by Bill Donnelly, John Donovan, Harrison Winston and Dr. Roy Hanford. (Chris' Studio).

'IMPREST THE BLACK DEAMON', miniature poodle owned by Jean Meske Taylor of Roseburg will be one of over 300 dogs entered from all over the country in the Umpqua Kennel Club's second annual summer dog show. Judge Bertha Deakins of Beaverton is shown holding the awards won by Imprest for "best puppy" at the Springfield, Ore. Dog Show this spring. Mrs. Taylor, holding 'Imprest' says he has since been in many specialty and all breed shows and at the age of 10 months is now a veteran contestant.

Many Entries Received For Roseburg Dog Show

Over 300 entries have been received for the second annual summer dog show sponsored by the Umpqua Kennel Club and July 3 at the Veterans Hospital picnic grove. According to club spokesmen, entries have come from all over the United States and Canada.

Judges for the show will be O. Carley Harriman of Los Angeles and Dr. F. P. Meller of Riverside, Calif. Obedience classes will be judged by George Ellison of Portland.

Junior handling classes for boys and girls in the 8 to 16 age bracket are also expected to have many participants. It is not necessary to have a dog entered in the show in order to take part.

Banquet Due

Following judging of "Best of Show" by O. C. Harriman, a banquet will be held at the picnic grounds.

There is no admission charge for the show. Food will be available during the day.

Several Roseburg area dog owners went to Portland last weekend for the Columbia Poodle Club specialty and Dog Fancier's Association meet held at Fairview and returned with winning ribbons.

"Farthest North Destiny's Dice," English setter owned by Mr. and Mrs. Evan Sifton, placed second in the senior puppy class and reserve. Their West Highland white terrier took "best of breed" awards at the Dog Fanciers Show.

Imprests Successful
Mrs. Jean Meske Taylor took four poodles to the specialty on Saturday. "Imprest the Black Deamon" placed first in the senior puppy division dog class and reserve. "Imprest the Black Angel" was first in the senior puppy bitch class, and "Imprest the Black Princess" was first in the "bred by exhibitor" bitch class. Mrs. Taylor's "Imprest the Black Rose" was third in open class. The same awards were won by the poodles at the fancier's meet the following day.

The St. Bernard "Sanctuary Woods Fantabulous" owned by Bruce and Frances Gilley, took best of breed honors, adding to his long list of awards.

Revival Series Begins Sunday At Winston

Revival meetings will commence Sunday at 11 a.m. services at the Winston Missionary Baptist Church located on Carey St. The special meetings will continue at 7:30 p.m. services through July 8, nightly.
