

Special Riddle City Election Results In Franchise Approval

By ERMA BEST
Electors of the City of Riddle, in a special city election, voted 22-1 to grant a gas franchise to the California-Pacific Utilities company.

Armans Return
Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Arman have returned from a trip to Seattle to attend the World's Fair. On the way home they met Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lakin and their sons, Bob and Donald, at Winchester Bay for some fishing. Mrs. Arman proved to be a fisherman with a catch of three salmon weighing 24, 22 and 10 pounds, respectively.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Windus of Portland visited Sunday at the home of the latter's aunt, Mrs. E. E. Hart. The visitors were en route home from Klamath Falls where they had attended the VFW state convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Heinrich Schmidt left recently on a trip to their former home in Tulsa, Okla. They were accompanied to Corning, Calif., by their granddaughter, Kathy Schmidt of St. Helens, who had been visiting here, and will now spend part of the summer with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alvie Brunk.

Mr. and Mrs. John Irving and daughter, Carol, of Tillamook were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Irving's brother, Austin Wilson. They were accompanied from Roseburg by Mrs. Alta Shultz, sister of Mrs. Irving and Wilson. Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Collins were the former's father, T. M. Collins and his sister, Mrs. Scott Peterson and three children of Winslow, Ariz. The father comes annually to spend the summer with his children in the northwest. The Collins took his father and sister and children to visit another son and daughter in Packwood and Yakima, Wash. The Collins and Mrs. Peterson and children returned to Riddle after a short visit leaving the father for a longer visit. The Peterson family returned to Arizona this week.

Recent guests at the home of Mrs. Maude Acker were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Wilson of Modesto, Calif., who were on their way to visit a daughter in Roseburg. Wilson lived in the Acker home for several years some 37 years ago.

The William Anderson and Paul Kennedy families recently spent several days at Waldport Beach where they were guests of Mrs. Anderson's cousin.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Banion spent Sunday at Crater Lake where they drove the 33 miles of rim road now open.

Mrs. L. D. Felsheim and Miss Alice Gallier of Bandon were Sunday guests at the W. E. Best home.

Auxiliary Of VFW Post In Riddle Wins Award At State Meeting

By ERMA BEST
Members of the Glenn Cripps Post and Auxiliary 9744, VFW, Riddle, who attended the state convention held in Klamath Falls recently were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wilson, Mrs. Myrtle Cloud, Mrs. Luther Bates and Mrs. Dodge Emerson of Myrtle Creek who was installed as district president. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dayton of Riddle also attended.

The Riddle Auxiliary received several awards, including a membership award; a hospital award for volunteer service at the Veterans Hospital in Roseburg; and an award in recognition of community service during the year.

Also received was a certificate of merit from the Department of Oregon for Americanism; and a certificate of merit on the Oregon Educational fund. Mrs. J. J. Pospisil, past auxiliary president, received a pin and an award for being one of the first presidents in the state to have 100 per cent membership by Dec. 1, 1961.

Several hundred persons availed themselves of the opportunity to take the chest X-ray test when the TB mobile unit was parked at Veder's Shopping Center Monday, reports Mrs. Frank O'Banion, chairman, who was assisted by Mrs. Loren Bowman, Mrs. Shelley Brown, and Mrs. Clark James. Nine girls of Riddle Bethel 29, International Order of Job's Daughters, attended the Grand Session of Job's Daughters held in Coos Bay and North Bend June 21-22-23. They were accompanied by Mrs. Willard Preston, guardian; Mrs. Walter Foster, past guardian; and Mrs. Kathy Roberts.

Riddle Bethel 29 furnished 100 hand made place card favors showing a facsimile of Nickel mountain with a bit of processed nickel attached. These were used at the formal banquet and at the luncheon the following day.

Debra Roberts, Marshal of Bethel 29, was chosen Grand Bethel Senior Custodian and was one of the escorts at the installation of the Guardian Council.

Members of Bethel 29 attending were Sara Preston, Diane Foster, Lynn Coleman, Susan O'Donnell, Leslie Strobridge, Rita Deal, Ellen Parks and Rita Rusen.

Elkton Boy Is Hospitalized Following Accident On 'Cat'

By MRS. C. W. HENDERER
Darrell Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Smith of Elkton, suffered a broken leg in two places Saturday riding a "cat" in the woods with his father. Darrell is in Cottage Grove Hospital where his leg is in traction.

Brother Re-Enlists
Mrs. Phyllis Mauck reports her brother, Zane Adams, Master Sgt., who has been in the Air Force in Sculthorpe, England, has recently re-enlisted for two more years and will be sent to Hahn, Germany, for two years. This re-enlistment will total 20 years of service in the Air Force for Sgt. Adams. Adams' family will move with him from England to Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mauck and Mrs. Ethel Mauck of Tacoma were weekend guests at the T. W. Mauck home.

Teen Weatherly of Eugene spent several days this week at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. G. Henderer. Mr. and Mrs. Arley Marsh and daughter, Venola Riley, and son, Steve, spent last week in Seattle visiting the World's Fair.

Mrs. Margaret Harris, chairman of the annual Scottsburg-Elkton area Cancer Drive announced this year's crusade receipts totaled $244.46. Co-chairmen were Mrs. Charles Minter, Mrs. Richard Saladen; Jane Murphy, Julie Smith, Mrs. Ray Monner, Mrs. Norman Compton, Mrs. Charles Clemon, Mrs. Don Abraham and Mrs. Robert Hotse; and all members of the community for their pledges.
