

Dodgers Seize Top Spot; Angels Close In On Yanks

By United Press International
Maybe it's sheer fantasy, like something right out of Disneyland, but can you picture an all-Los Angeles World Series this coming October?

If you were able to last April, and were willing to put your money where your imagination was, you'd sure be sitting pretty right now.

Not only would you be rubbing your hands with the Dodgers after the National League, but you'd also be rubbing your eyes at the sight of those amazing Angels in a virtual tie for the American League lead.

The Dodgers seized the NL lead with 5-1 and 4-0 victories over the Philadelphia Phillies Monday night, with southpaw Johnny Podres equalling a major league strikeout record during the opening of a two-night doubleheader.

And the ragmuffin Angels remained within four mere percentage points of the pace-setting Yankees when Bob Rodgers belted a ninth inning homer for a 2-1 triumph over the Washington Senators.

Ties Strikeout Record
Podres tied the major league mark by striking out eight men in a row as he won his fourth game of the season following 19 unsuccessful tries. The Dodger lefty fanned a total of 11 and retired 20 batters in a row before tiring in the eighth and giving way to Larry Sherry.

Willie Davis hit a grand slam homer for the Dodgers, who then coasted to victory in the nightcap.

on Stan Williams' seven-hit pitching. Williams put in an exceptionally enjoyable night, striking out eight, walking no one and hitting a home run to gain his seventh victory and first in four weeks.

The victory for the Angels marked the ninth time this season they won a game in their last at-bat. Rodgers' blow came off reliever Steve Hamilton after Steve Bilko had homered in the sixth for the Angels' first run. Reliever Tom Morgan was the winner.

Casey Stengel's Mets knocked the Giants out of first place by beating them, 8-5, the Milwaukee Braves bowled over the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-3, the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Houston Colts, 4-2, and Cincinnati split a two-bill with Chicago, the Cubs winning the opener, 6-5, and the Reds the nightcap, 4-3.

Yanks Beat A's
In the American League, the Yankees clipped the Kansas City A's, 8-4, the Cleveland Indians blanked the Baltimore Orioles, 2-0, the Boston Red Sox nipped the Minnesota Twins, 4-3, and the Detroit Tigers shaded the Chicago White Sox, 2-1.

Veteran Gene Woodling broke a 5-1 tie between the Mets and Giants with a three-run double in the eighth after Willie Mays' 22nd homer with one on had put San Francisco ahead in the seventh. Ken MacKenzie was credited with the victory and Stu Miller was the loser.

Eddie Mathews' grand slam homer, coupled with five Cardinal errors, enabled Lew Burdette to score his seventh victory for the Braves although he left in the seventh after Charlie James nicked him for a three-run homer. Ray Sadecki suffered his fifth loss.

The Pirates rallied for three runs in the seventh as Bob Friend scored his eighth victory of the year at the expense of the slumping Colts. Dick Stuart hit his 11th homer for Pittsburgh.

Ernie Banks paced the Cubs to their victory over the Reds in the opener by driving in four runs with his 22nd homer and a single. Rookie Cal Koonce brought his record to 7-2 while Bob Purkey suffered his second loss compared with 13 victories. The Reds won the nightcap on Gordie Coleman's two-run homer in the ninth off Don Elston. Jim Brosnan was the winning pitcher.

Donovan Hurts Two-Hitter
The Yankees snapped a 4-4 tie with the A's by rallying for four runs in the eighth. Bill Skowron's sacrifice fly with the bases full accounted for the winning run after Roger Maris hit his 16th homer. Hector Lopez hit his third with one on and Mickey Mantle his 11th to give the Bronx Bombers a 4-0 lead. Luis Arroyo won his first game of the season, taking over for Bill Stafford in the seventh.

Dick Donovan's two-hit pitching and Willie Tasby's eighth inning homer carried the Indians to victory over the Orioles. Donovan struck out six and didn't walk a batter in recording his 12th victory and snapping Cleveland's five-game losing streak. Steve Barber was the loser.

Ed Bressoud drove in the Red Sox' first run against the Twins, then singled home the tying and winning runs in the sixth inning. Arnold Earley, second of three Boston pitchers, was credited with the victory while Lee Stange was the loser.

Sam Jones of the Tigers won his first game of the year when he struck out 10 White Sox batters and hurled a six-hitter. Norm Cash's 21st homer off loser Frank Baumann in the sixth proved to be the winning run. The only run off Jones was a ninth inning homer by Al Smith.

Roseburg Hosts July 4th Tourney

NIPPED AT PLATE — Bob Johnson of the Washington Senators is tagged by Los Angeles Angel catcher Bob Rodgers as he attempted to score from second base on Ken Hamlin's single. ## Action Starts Tonight; Local 9 Meets Tigard

The Lockwood Motors American Legion juniors of Roseburg will host a four-team Fourth of July tournament at Legion Field, and will also be favored to win top honors in the tourney.

Action will get underway at 6:30 p.m. when Bend's Legion crew squares off against the Albany nine. The second game tonight will pit Lockwood Motors against Tigard, Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. the losers of today's games will play for third place, followed by the championship game between the winners.

Roseburg's 24-1 record for the season far surpasses the marks that have been posted by any of the other teams entered in the holiday action. The local team leads the Doug-Lane League with an 11-1 record.

Cummings Movers of Albany is also leading its league. The Albany squad has a 3-0 league mark and is the only team that has played Roseburg during the season. In the outing with Roseburg the Albany nine fell by a 6-3 count when Lockwoods scored two runs in the final inning.

Bend, under the direction of veteran coach Vince Green, is a perennial winner in Eastern Oregon. The Bend team is reported to boast a powerful hitting attack to back up some good pitching.

Tigard is rated as one of the top teams in the area surrounding Portland. Tigard has a well-balanced team and will be tabbed as the darkhorse of the tournament.

Hobbs Leads Attack
Leading Roseburg's attack during the tournament will be Tom Hobbs. Hobbs is the top pitcher for the Lockwood Motors team with a 6-0 record. In 49 2/3 innings Hobbs has recorded 73 strike outs. In addition to his pitching, the big right-hander has 17 hits for 41 at bats—a healthy .415 average. When not on the mound Hobbs is set for action in the outfield.

Dick Williams follows Hobbs in the win department on the hill. Williams has a 5-0 record, while Jerry Boucock is 5-1. Other pitchers for Lockwood Motors includes Ken Droscher, Jon Burnham and Lyle Charon.

Marv French, flashy short-stop for the Roseburg team, is the top hitter among the regulars. French has 26 hits in 68 at bats, for a .382 average. Lance Casebeer is hitting the ball at a .394 clip with 13 hits in 33 appearances. Casebeer is coming on strong after nursing an injured hand early in the season.

The lone home runs for Roseburg have been hit by Bob Manning and Doug Coplin. Leading in RBIs is Dennis Arana with 22.

The probable starting infield for Lockwood Motors will find Arana at first, Gordon Avery at second, French at short and either Manning or Casebeer at third. Jim Beamer will work behind the plate. The outfield will consist of Coplin, Glen Fortune, and either Ron Polley or Hobbs.

Junior Golf Action Set

The Roseburg Jaycees will hold their annual Junior Golf Championships Thursday and Friday at the Stewart Park and Roseburg Country Club courses.

Thursday all participants in the tourney will play 18 holes at Stewart Park, while Friday's round of 18 holes will be played at the Country Club.

The four low scores for the entire 36 holes will be crowned the local junior champs, will receive trophies and will be sponsored by the Jaycees to play in the State Jaycee Junior Golf championships at the Tualatin Country Club in Portland July 12-14.

The four state winners will be sent to the national tourney at Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 20-25.

Roseburg's Jaycees encourage all boys who are not 18 before Aug. 15, 1962, to pick up their entry blanks at the Country Club or Stewart Park golf courses. All entry blanks must be turned in by 5 p.m. Wednesday. No entry fees will be charged.

For further information contact Rusty Diehl, chairman of the Jaycee golf tournament.

Trio Of U.S. Girls Remain In Running For Wimbledon Title

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI) — Darlene Hard of Long Beach, Calif., was an overwhelming favorite to advance to the semifinal round of the women's singles in the Wimbledon tennis championships today when she met unseeded Vera Sukova of Czechoslovakia.

The United States also had two other representatives among the final eight in the women's division as it sought its first singles title of any kind here since Althea Gibson won the women's crown in 1958.

Mrs. Karen Hantze Susman of San Antonio, Tex., was paired against Renee Schuurman of South Africa in the day's first match on center court and Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach faced another herculean task against fifth seeded Ann Haydon of England.

Musial Set For 19th Year Of All-Star Competition

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI) — Stan (the man) Musial, walloping the ball at a .330 clip despite the fact he's 41 years old, was picked today for a record 19th time to be a member of the National League All-Star team that will meet the American League at Washington, July 10.

Manager Fred Hutchinson of the pennant-winning Cincinnati Reds, skipper of the NL team, today exercised his right to pick the squad's reserves and pitchers — and in general stuck pretty close to the voting by the league players that picked the starting lineup.

Hutch came up with one surprise — Sandy (No Hit) Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers was the only southpaw among the seven pitchers he selected.

Selection No Surprise
But the selection of Musial was no surprise. There have been times in the past when NL managers were accused of picking Stan the Man simply on sentiment, but this year he is swinging like the Musial of old with a .330 batting average through Sunday's game.

Thanks to the recent practice of two All-Star games in one year, Musial has played in a total of 22 classics during the 18 previous years he was picked. Both figures are records for a player in either major league.

Hutchinson today selected seven pitchers and 10 other players to go along with the eight starting players picked by the NL players in their own poll.

Ten Represent Coast
The NL 25-man squad thus will have a heavy West Coast flavor with 10 players from teams in that area — five each from the Dodgers and San Francisco Giants.

Here is the NL squad:
Pitchers (8) — Don Drysdale, Dodger; Dick Farrell, Houston; Bob Gibson, St. Louis; Sandy Koufax, Dodger; Juan Marichal, Giant; Bob Purkey, Cincinnati; Bob Shaw, Milwaukee.
Catchers (2) — Del Crandall, Milwaukee; John Roseboro, Dodger.
Infielders (8) — Ernie Banks,

Chicago; Frank Bolling, Milwaukee; Ken Boyer, St. Louis; Orlando Cepeda, Giant; Jim Davenport, Giant; Dick Groat, Pittsburgh; Bill Mazerowski, Pittsburgh; Maury Wills, Dodger.

Outfielders (8) — Hank Aaron, Milwaukee; Felipe Alou, Giant; John Callison, Philadelphia; Bob Clemente, Pittsburgh; Tommy Davis, Los Angeles; Willie Mays, Giant; Stan Musial, St. Louis.

Those picked by vote of the players as starters were Crandall, Cepeda, Mazerowski, Groat, Boyer, Davis, Mays, and Clemente. Under their rules of the All-Star game, they must play at least three innings before Hutchinson can substitute for them.

Musial Holds Six Records
In addition to his record for times picked and games played, Musial also holds the All-Star record for at-bats with 60, hits with 19, home runs with 6, and total bases with 39.

Hanford Records High Average In AMA Bowling Tournament

A little pleasure mixed with business earned Dr. Roy Hanford, Roseburg physician, a trophy, bowling ball and bag and some prize money.

Last week Hanford traveled to Chicago for the convention of the American Medical Association. While there he signed up for the AMA Bowling Tournament.

When all the pins had stopped falling, Hanford had notched a 182 average for nine games and won the 1962 AMA high scratch series all-events trophy.

Hanford and the other 150 to 200 AMA members in the tourney rolled at Twin-Orchard Bowl, Skokie, Ill. Hanford also bowled with a team during the tournament but as yet does not know the team's final standing.

In Roseburg, Hanford is one of the partners in the establishment of Indian Lanes on NE Stephens St.
