

NEW OFFICERS of Winston-Dillard Bethel No. 53, International Order of Job's Daughters, pictured above standing left to right: Isabel Parker, Libby Buckleair, June Spearman, Delores Day, Kathy Ross, Jeannie Bird, Vicki Peterson, Yvonne Brosi, Bonnie Parker, Michelle Marquardt, Sherry Parker, Christine Burgess, Suzanne Parker, Juanita Parker. Seated: Cyla Saum, Carol Sanderson, Donna Hildebrandt, Vicki Daniels, Dorothy Day, Penny Davidson, Susie Harris and Leona Schlacht. Below the retiring honored queen Diane Jackson, crowns the incoming queen, Vicki Peterson. (Pictures by Koop's Photography).

Colorful Ceremony Held For Installing Officers

At a colorful and impressive ceremony Saturday evening the installation of new officers for the Winston-Dillard Bethel No. 53, International Order of Job's Daughters was held in the Douglas High School auditorium.

Pink and white and greenery comprised the color scheme used in the decorations. Candelabra with pink candles, pink pedestals topped with white potted plants of greenery and tiny pink artificial roses outlined the officer's stations.

Mrs. Mary Bird, guardian of Bethel 53 opened the installation ceremony assisted by the associate guardian, Dr. Harry Van Dermark, who escorted and introduced the installing officer of the evening, Diane Jackson, retiring honored queen of the Bethel.

Background music was played by the installing musician and past honored queen, Pamela Laurance. Other installing officers assisting Miss Jackson were: Guide, Maureen Cherrick; marshal, Judy Wade; chaplain, Perley Collins; senior custodian, Lois Williams; junior custodian, Virginia Hubbard; recorder, Wendy Hunt, and musician, Pamela Laurance. Candelights were Tamara Jones and Connie Dyer. Little Debbie Davis was the angel for the Book of Gold ceremony.

The new officers seated were: Honored queen, Vicki Peterson; senior princess, Jeannie Bird; junior princess, Yvonne Brosi; guide, Kathy Ross; marshal, Bonnie Parker; chaplain, Leona Schlacht; treasurer, Isabel Parker; recorder, Christine Burgess; musician, Tamis Campbell; librarian, Dorothy Day; messengers, Juanita Parker, Sherry Parker, Elizabeth Buckleair, Sherry Wilson and Suzy Harris; senior custodian, Penny Davidson; junior custodian, Vicki Daniels; inner guard, Carol Sanderson; outer guard, Suzanne Parker; flag bearer, Donna Hildebrandt; lady of the lights, Cheryl Oliver; page, Michelle Marquardt; Ruth Sanderson and historian, Kitty Dawson.

Highlight of the evening was the crowning and robing of the new honored queen, Vicki Peterson, while Yvonne Brosi sang "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. H. E. DeBarnard Jr. Miss Gloria Burnett was the soloist for the crowning and robing of the senior and junior princesses. Miss Burnett sang "My Task," and was accompanied by Mrs. Art Friend.

Past Associate Guardian Bert Laurance, Allen Roberts and Ron Burkhardt were in charge of the seating and lights. Jerry Justis, Mervin Pearson and Ron Northcraft were ushers.

Escorted and introduced were the installing officers taking part in the installation ceremony following the presentation of Mrs. Jackson, past honored queen of Burlingame, Calif., and the mother of the retiring queen; Ruby Peterson, past guardian of Winston-Dillard Bethel and the mother of the new honored queen; Zilpha McAllister of Eugene, charter past guardian of Bethel 53; Bert Laurance, past associate guardian of Bethel 53; Virginia Laurance, past guardian of Bethel 53; and Miles and Eva Feero, past associate guardian and guardian of Bethel 53.

After the meeting, refreshments were served to Mrs. Thel Allen, Mrs. Jim Godfrey, Mrs. Bob Johnson, Mrs. Frank Paul, Mrs. George Quine and Mrs. Bob Surkamer.

The following evening a workshop was held at the home of Mrs. Paul. Members made eight scrapbooks to be presented to local hospitals for use in the children's wards. More books will be made.

The new honored queen received the Cora Young queen's pin, her gavel from the Mt. Nebo and Laurel Masonic Lodges of Roseburg and a gift from her line officers. Other presentations included a gift from the Bethel membership and a past honored queen pin to the retiring queen, Diane Jackson in appreciation of her successful past term.

A reception followed the closing ceremony with Mrs. Oral Harris, Mrs. Ken Day and Dorothy Day in charge. Mrs. Marian Jackson was in charge of the decorations which consisted of pink candles in holders decorated with pink bows and pink roses with attached pink and gold butterflies. The white linen covered table also held the lovely cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Laura Haugh with a cluster of pink roses.

Presiding at the reception table were aunts of the honored queen, Mrs. Fred Burk, Mrs. Willard Laurance, Mrs. Gordon Burnett and Mrs. Bert Laurance. A dance followed the reception with Gary Cox of Radio Station KYES in charge of the music. Specialty musical numbers were given by Danny Promdahl and Norman Hill.

Regular Bethel meetings will resume in the fall.

MR. AND MRS. C. STEPHEN KENNEY, above, were united in marriage June 9 at an impressive ceremony at the First Methodist Church in Roseburg with the Rev. H. James Jenkins officiating. The bride, Dixie Luona Wooton, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Wooton of Roseburg. The bridegroom is a student at University of Oregon. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography).

Dixie Luona Wooton Bride June 9 Of Stephen Kenney

At 7:30 p.m. June 9 Miss Dixie Luona Wooton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Wooton of Roseburg, became the bride of C. Stephen Kenney of Eugene, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Worky of Wellsley, Mass.

One hundred relatives and friends were present for the ceremony which took place at the First Methodist Church of Roseburg, the Rev. H. James Jenkins performing the service.

Flowers at the wedding and decorations for the reception table were done by Mrs. George Blank of Oakland.

Musical solos were "Love" by Mary Baker Eddy and "Wedding Prayer" by David Williams. Organist was Lynn Thompson of Seaside, college friend of the bride. Mrs. Pat Dishman was soloist.

For her wedding, the bride wore a floor-length gown of silk organza over taffeta. The dress had a bell skirt and rounded neckline, the bodice accented with appliques of Venetian gros-point lace. Dainty fabric bows were featured on the elbow-length sleeves. The bridal veil of French illusion was caught to a wreath of wax orange blossoms and tiny pearls.

Mrs. Michael Wooton, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Bonney Shields of Eugene was bridesmaid. Both wore frocks of pink organza over taffeta with matching pink netting circlet headpieces. Adelle Wooton, niece of the bride, was dainty in her dress of pink tulle.

Bouquets carried by the bride and her attendants were French nosegays having pink and white flowers with satin streamers.

Society

Buffet Enjoyed Thursday Night

Mrs. George Holm was a charming hostess at her home Tuesday evening when members of the Woodmen Circle Work Basket met for a social evening. Mrs. George Thomas and Mrs. Harry Doyle were co-hostesses.

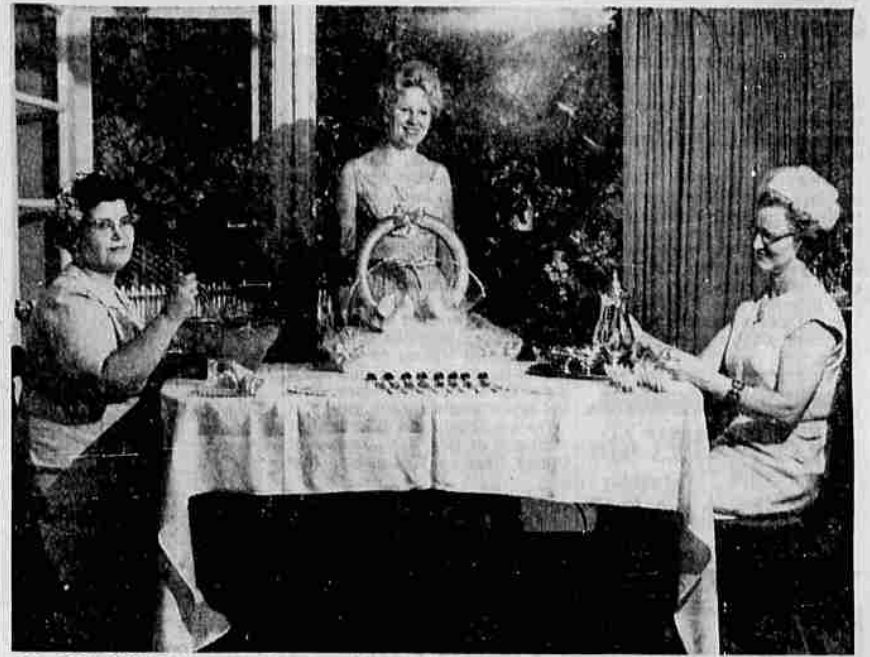

The women discussed several projects which the club may consider for the balance of the year. A delightful buffet supper was enjoyed following the meeting. Those attending were the Mesdames Paul White, Sarah Cyrus, Richard Croucher, Lucy Benson, Alice Christensen, Ruby Tucker, Art McGuire, John Hess, and the hostesses, Mrs. George Holm, Mrs. H. A. Doyle and Mrs. George Thomas. Mrs. John Cornelsen and Mrs. Ruby Tucker will be hostesses at the former's home at the July meeting of the Work Basket.

Family Reunion Is Recent Event

Mrs. Martha Allen of Yoncalla was honored recently at a dinner and family reunion held at the Wallace Nelson home. This was Mrs. Allen's 83th birthday. A dinner was enjoyed at noon and visiting completed a most enjoyable day.

Those enjoying the party included Mrs. Martha Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Allen of Elkton, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Delton Allen and son, Dale; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Trump and four children; Mr. and Mrs. Howard DeLauney and daughter; Marvin and Mike Allen, Linda Allen, Creed Allen, Jimmie Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lee and Ted Peterson.

IT PAYS TO PATRONIZE
NEWS-REVIEW
ADVERTISERS

TO COMPLEMENT Miss Beverley Baxter, (above center) at a charming bridal shower party, Mrs. Ray Klaisner, Mrs. Bert Brewer and Mrs. Richard Crenshaw (pictured below) were hostesses. With Miss Baxter above are Mrs. John Blanchard, left, and the honoree guest's mother, Mrs. J. Clifford Baxter. (Pictures by Wilson Studio)

Beverley Baxter Honored At Charming Shower Party

Miss Beverley Baxter, bride-elect, was honored at a charming shower-party Sunday, given from 3 to 4:30 p.m. by Mrs. Bert Brewer, Mrs. Ray Klaisner and Mrs. Richard Crenshaw at the latter's home in Laurewood, with members of the First Christian Church as guests.

The exquisite table centerpiece was of tiered pink tulle ruffles edged with pink satin ribbon and seed pearls caught at the corners with pink lily of the valley and small white wedding bells. Two small white porcelain doves rested on a white satin platform at the top, framed by a large pink satin wedding ring to which was attached white wedding bells. The arrangement had been made by Mrs. Byron Harmon.

Mrs. Clifford Baxter, mother of the bride-to-be, and Mrs. John Blanchard poured coffee and punch for the many guests.

Beautiful bouquets of pink roses and orange blossoms graced the living room. Card tables covered with pink cloths and centered by Cecil Brunner roses were placed under the trees in the back yard. Guests enjoyed the dainty refreshments of pink and white heart-shaped ice cream-filled cakes decorated with pink roses.

The honoree opened gifts from Mr. and Mrs. Homer Pattison, Miss Mary Sala, Miss Nelle McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Meeks and Drena, Mrs. Catherine Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. Washington Hughes, Miss Daphne Hughes, Mrs.

Harold Horn, Miss Jane Prowell, Mrs. Frank Patton, Mrs. Jane Stephens, Mrs. L. F. Jackson, Mrs. Earl Bridgess and Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Russell, Mrs. Helen Fenwick, Mrs. Elbert Nass and Bonnie Sue, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford White, Mrs. Clarence Trued, Mr. and Mrs. James Marr, Dorothea and John Marr, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wimer, Mrs. Fred L. Perry, Dr. and Mrs. Donald Gibbs, Mrs. C. A. Coffel, Mr. and Mrs. Verdon Boucock, Jerry, Roger and Brooke Boucock, Mr. and Mrs. John Blanchard and Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper and Joe.

Mrs. James Briggs, Mrs. Russ Briggs, Mrs. James Smith, Jeri Lyn and Julie Smith, Mrs. Lela Tyler, Mrs. Lyle Baker, Mrs. William Unrath, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Nesseth, Christie and Laura Nesseth, Mr. and Mrs. Selby Leap, Mrs. Vern Morin, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Batt, Mrs. Paul Nott, Paula and Pamela Nott.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Buchanan, Mrs. Walter Daum, Mrs. Byron Harmon, Mrs. Bert Brewer, Martha Brewer, Mrs. Ray Klaisner, Mrs. Chester Hamm, Sue Hamm and Mrs. Richard Crenshaw.

Mrs. Jim Smith recorded the gifts and donors. The Misses Jeri Lyn Smith and Martha Brewer, dressed in pink and white, arranged the opened gifts for display.

Miss Baxter will be married July 7 to Doyle Dobbin, former youth minister at the First Christian Church in Roseburg.

Timber Town Winners Told

Timber Town Duplicate Bridge Club met Monday, June 25, with nine tables in play. North-South winners were Dr. Charles K. Todd and Dr. Robert Goulding, first; Mrs. C. B. Wade and Mrs. W. C. Callison, second; Mrs. Neil Kaser Jr. and Mrs. Phil Kaser, third, and Mrs. David Weisman and Mrs. Robert Curtis, fourth.

East-West winners were Verdon Hockett Jr. and William Pritchett, first, and tying for second were Mrs. John Brooke and Fred Harder and Mrs. James Doyle and Carlton Wilder, and fourth were Mrs. K. W. Fitzgerald and W. C. Callison.

Regular play was held Monday, July 2, at 7:30 p.m. Those desiring more information or assistance in partnership are asked to call either Mrs. Walter Ulrich or Mrs. John Davenport.

The Timber Town Duplicate Bridge Club winners for the June 18 play for North-South were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Patterson, first; Raymond P. Borden and Walter Ulrich, second; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scott, third, and Dr. Charles K. Todd and J. M. Bevans, fourth.

East-West winners were Mrs. S. G. Palmer and Mrs. D. B. Bubar, first; Mrs. Walter Fisher and Mrs. James Doyle, second; Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Moischenbacher, third, and Mrs. Bliss Secoy and Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp, fourth. There were 12 tables in play for the master point session.

Friday-Tuesday Winners Told

Winners in the Friday play of the Roseburg Duplicate Bridge Club, ACBL, at the Umpqua Hotel were Mrs. Harry Hildeburn and Mrs. Harry Bruffy, first; Mrs. L. E. McClintock and Mrs. Ray Carrio, second; Mrs. W. C. Callison and Mrs. M. L. Hallmark, third, and Mrs. Ira J. Seitz and Miss Gertrude Rast, fourth.

Master Point play was held by the Tuesday evening club at the Umpqua Hotel. Winners were Richard H. Scott and Alex Kennedy, first; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Patterson, second; Mrs. L. E. McClintock and Mrs. G. W. Marshall, third; Mrs. Ray Carrio and Mrs. Russell Diehl, fourth, and Mrs. Edgar Lewis and Mrs. Harry Hildeburn, fifth.

All bridge players interested in duplicate bridge are welcome to attend the Tuesday-Friday plays. Those desiring more information or assistance in securing partnerships are asked to call Mrs. James Little.

Shower Party At Melrose Compliments Mrs. Warren

A pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Leonard Warren of Elgarose was held at the Melrose Community Church Thursday.

The room was decorated in pink and blue crepe paper and baby pictures, the traditional stock centering the gift table. Carol Arensmeier and Gail Gentry had done the decorating.

Several games were played, after which the guest of honor opened her many gifts.

Those present were Evelyn Bowen, Edna Sjogren, Mrs. Sundberg, Virginia Hutton, Hon. Bassett, Hilder Johnson, Esther Nikolaus, Norma Fenn, Carol Arensmeier, Ysabella Shipn and Charlotte, Hazel Krohn and Judy, Janet Parks, Marge Landers and Lorraine, Eva Mae Clement, Shirley, Edith and Mary Ellen Clement, Ethel Rogers, Faye Conn and Dennis, Virginia Richardson, Crystal Conn, Ella Johnston, Ruth Wooton, Zelma Sands, Dean Gausnell and Gail Gentry.

Those sending gifts but not present were Teresa Warner, Betty Hutton, Carmel Scott, Sylvia Gray and Doris Eschelman.

The two beautifully decorated cakes had been made for the occasion by Ethel Rogers.

Pink And Blue Shower Is Given

Mrs. Del Godbey of Tiller was honored at a pink and blue shower recently at the home of Mrs. John Davis, with Mrs. Robert D. Clauson assisting. Attractive arrangements of garden flowers and favors in keeping with the pink and blue motif were used by the hostesses as decorative touches.

Game prizes were won by Mrs. Richard Williams and the honor guest, who then opened her gifts.

Following a pleasant evening of visiting, the hostesses served dainty refreshments to Mrs. Godbey, Mrs. Roger Williams, Mrs.

Cleon Puetz, Mrs. Robert W. Squires, Mrs. John A. Wright Sr., Mrs. Charles L. Redding, Mrs. Robert S. Bryant, Mrs. Richard Williams and Gretchen, Mrs. John T. Utley, Mrs. Ollard M. Lullgren, Mrs. Glen Hunter, Mrs. John O. Wilson, Mrs. Paul F. Brady, Mrs. Mahlon Hale, Mrs. Alfred G. Darach Jr., Mrs. Chet Haney and Mrs. John Loeblein.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Elmo A. Picht, Mrs. Irvin Poole, Mrs. Ray Looney, Mrs. Jess Mount, Mrs. William Oden and Mrs. Vernon McGinnis.

Installation Ceremonies Held By Mistletoe Chapter

Officers for the coming year were seated in Mistletoe Chapter 114, Riddle, at installation ceremonies held Saturday evening.

Mrs. Warren Adsit is worthy matron; Warren Adsit, worthy patron; Mrs. Leonard Morrow, associate matron; Elmer Love, associate patron; Mrs. J. L. Aikins, secretary; Mrs. Glenn Willis, treasurer; Mrs. Arthur Bates, conductress; Mrs. Jim Nichols, associate conductress; Mrs. Clarence Collins, chaplain; Mrs. Alvin Walker, organist; Mrs. George Gibson, Adah; Mrs. Lloyd Van Doren, Ruth; Mrs. William Donnelly, Esther; Mrs. Francis Kummer, Martha; Mrs. Orin Dunlap, Electa; Mrs. Grace Becker, warder; Jim Nichols, sentinel; Mrs. E. P. Blundell, publicity.

Mrs. Harry Williams is retiring worthy matron; Elmer Love, retiring worthy patron.

Installing officers were: Virginia Wright, Myrtle Creek, associate grand matron; Morris Boughner, Medford, past grand patron; Mrs. John Durgin, marshal; Mrs. E. P. Blundell, chaplain; Verna Conley, organist.

A number of visitors were present from Drain, Myrtle Creek, Medford, Canyonville, Alaska, and North Carolina.

Auxiliary Meets At Powell Home

The Oregon Ladies Auxiliary 1813 to the National Association of Letter Carriers was entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Richard Powell.

Plans were made for installation of new officers in July.

Reports of the State Postal Convention held in Corvallis were given by Mrs. George Quine, Mrs. Thel Allen and Mrs. Warren Sellers.

After the meeting, refreshments were served to Mrs. Thel Allen, Mrs. Jim Godfrey, Mrs. Bob Johnson, Mrs. Frank Paul, Mrs. George Quine and Mrs. Bob Surkamer.

The following evening a workshop was held at the home of Mrs. Paul. Members made eight scrapbooks to be presented to local hospitals for use in the children's wards. More books will be made.

AN IMPRESSIVE CANDLELIGHT CEREMONY was held to confer the "Order of the Rose" degree on Mrs. Benjamin DuFresne, Mrs. Paul Hult and Mrs. Wayne Crooch, members of Beta Sigma Phi for 15 years. Mrs. Hult was rush chairman when Alpha Iota and Alpha Theta Chapters were formed. After four years in Mu Chapter the three took the Extemporal Degree transfer to Epsilon Chapter. In 1954 Mrs. Hult transferred to the newly formed Xi Theta Chapter. Beautiful Order of the Rose pin were presented by respective chapters. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography).

BYRD'S
MARKET
OPEN
JULY 4th
9 A.M. to 6 P.M.