

Indians Climb To Tie With Angels; Dodgers Drop Giants To Up Lead

By United Press International
Don't try and sell the Cleveland Indians and the Pittsburgh Pirates that old saw about the Fourth of July major league pacesetters winding up in the World Series.
They're not buying.
History might be on the side of the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Los Angeles Angels because they reached the holiday milestone with half-game leads. However, the Indians and Pirates feel they're going to have a lot to say about the pennant races in the second half of the season.
The Indians climbed into a flat-footed tie with the Angels for the American League lead Thursday night when they nipped the Detroit Tigers, 7-6, on Don Dillard's two-out, ninth inning home run.

Scored Seventh Straight
The streaking Pirates, looking more and more like the 1960 world champions, scored their seventh straight victory by blanking the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-0, behind the six-hit pitching of Al McBean.

It's hard to predict which club faces the toughest obstacles in its pennant push. The Indians, of course, still must contend with the New York Yankees, who are only a half-game back in the American League race. And the Pirates, despite their streak, still are five games back of the Dodgers, who opened a 1½ game lead over San Francisco by cuffing the Giants, 11-3, Thursday.

The Indians' latest victory over the Tigers was another squeaker that must have left Detroit manager Bob Scheffing muttering to himself. The Tigers, who dropped a pair of extra-inning games to Cleveland Wednesday, wiped out a five-run deficit to tie the score at 6-6 in the seventh inning on Rocky Colavito's third consecutive homer of the game.

Homered In Ninth
Dillard, who broke the Tigers' back with a 13th inning grand slammer in Wednesday's second game, waited until the ninth time before parking a 1-and-0 pitch by Ron Kline into the stands. Dillard entered the game in the fifth inning when Al Luplow suffered a pulled thigh muscle.

Before leaving, Luplow hit a two-run homer. John Romano added a three-run blast to stake the Indians to their early lead. Colavito, who now has 20 homers this season, hit his first two of the game off Pete Ramos and added another off Frank Funk.
McBean struck out five and issued only one walk in blanking the Phils for his eighth victory of the campaign. The Pirates scored all their runs off Jim Owens, who lasted only two innings. Dick Groat, who has hiked his average to .322 during the Bucs' winning streak, hit his first

Canyonville Gets Pitching Machine

The Canyonville Fire Department is purchasing a pitching machine for the school district out of a special baseball fund, with the remaining expenses coming from the Fire Dept. fund.
The pitching machine will also be used for the summer recreation program in Canyonville, reports Beth Chappell, Canyonville correspondent.
In recent Little League and Babe Ruth League games the Canyonville teams were topped by Riddle. Riddle won the Babe Ruth League game 11-8, and the visitors took the Little League contest 9-1.

GIANT STARS SIGN

NEW YORK (UPI) — Versatile Joe Morrison and Phil King, back field stars who have played every position in the New York Giants backfield except quarterback, have returned their signed 1962 contracts to the Eastern Division champions of the National Football League. King, expected to work at fullback this season, signed for his fifth year, while Morrison, who alternates between the offensive and defensive backfields, signed for his fourth campaign.

homer of the season to climax a three-run second inning.

Drysdale Won 15th

Don Drysdale of the Dodgers became the majors' first 15-game winner, scattering eight hits and striking out eight Giants. Among big Don's strikeout victims were Orlando Cepeda (three times) and Willie Mays (twice). Loser Mike McCormick, who lasted only five innings, gave up homers to Willie Davis, Ron Fairly, Tommy Davis and Frank Howard.

The Baltimore Orioles scored three runs in the eighth inning to down the Chicago White Sox, 5-4, in the only other game on Thursday's thin major league schedule.

Jackie Brandt hit his 11th homer off loser Frank Baumann in the seventh inning and singled home the Orioles' winning run in the next frame. Skinny Brown allowed only one hit during 3 1-3 innings of relief work to pick up the victory.

BLM Plays Saturday

The Roseburg District BLM softball team will go after its second win of the season Saturday when it meets the Eugene District BLM squad on the VA field.

Archie Craft, Roseburg district manager, will be on the mound for the home squad when action begins at 1:30 p.m.

Handling the pitching chores for the Eugene squad will be Lester Dunn, Eugene district manager.

The Roseburg team Tuesday collected its first win by topping the Little River District fire suppression crew.

SIGNS YANKEE CONTRACT

NEW YORK (UPI) — Chet Trail of Toledo, Ohio, a 17-year-old shortstop, has been signed to a 1963 contract for a "substantial" bonus by the New York Yankees, believed to be in the $25,000 bracket. Trail will report to the Yankees' training camp next spring.

Drain Splits Doug-Lane Twin-Bill

ANOTHER RUN crosses the plate for the Los Angeles Dodgers in Thursday's 11-3 victory over the San Francisco Giants. Dodger first baseman Ron Fairly bowls over Giant catcher Ed Bailey as he slides in safely in the ninth inning of the game. Fairly came around on John Roseboro's double to left-center. Wales' Relief Pitching Gives Drain 13-9 Win

After losing a tight 3-0 decision in the opener, the Drain Legion came back strong to hand Cottage Grove a 13-9 loss in the nightcap of a Doug-Lane League doubleheader Thursday.

Sparkling defensive play by the invading Cottage Grove crew resulted in the opening victory. The visitors did their scoring in the first two innings, then squelched the serious Drain threats with double plays in the third and fourth frames.

Drain's Dwight Pontius and Cottage Grove's Jerry Carr turned in top pitching performances. Carr was credited with the win. He limited Drain to five hits and did not walk a batter. Pontius gave up six walks and four hits.

Wild Second Game
The second game turned into a wild-and-wooly affair after a tight first inning. Cottage Grove broke the ice in the top of the second with three runs, only to see Drain score six outers in its half of the second. From that point on Drain scored in each inning, while Cottage Grove continued strong until Richard Wales came on in the top of the fifth to put out the fire.

Wales was brilliant in relief of starter Darrell Cellers. The Yoncalla youngster struck out seven of the 11 batters he faced during his three inning stint. Wales was tagged for a double in the fifth, then issued a walk with two away in the seventh to account for his only base runners.

In the opener Cottage Grove put together a single by Jim Rhoads, two walks, a fielder's choice and two Drain errors to score two runs in the first inning. The visitors scored a single insurance run in the second stanza.

Drain Rallies
Overcoming a 3-0 deficit in the bottom of the second inning of the nightcap Drain pounded starter Jim Ross for six runs. Mike Blomberg led off with a single and moved to third on an error. Ran Cool walked and Wales squeezed Blomberg home. The play at the plate was late and the base runners ended on second and third. A free pass to Roger Russell loaded the bases. Wes Anderson was safe on a fielder's choice with Cool scoring.

Gary McDonald drove in the tying run with a single to left, then Gary Cox lined a base hit to left to drive in two runs. An error allowed McDonald to score the sixth run of the inning.

However, Cottage Grove kept pecking away at Drain's lead until the score was knotted at 9-9 in the fifth inning.
Drain scored the winning runs in the bottom of the fifth off reliever Gary Vogler. McDonald punched his second single of the game and Cox sacrificed the runner to second. Two wild pitches allowed McDonald to continue around the bases. Cellers reached base on an error and scored on the combination of a stolen base and two passed balls.

Drain added two insurance runs in the bottom of the sixth to pick up its third league win against seven defeats.

The next outing for the Drain crew will be Sunday at Riddle in a league twin-bill with Winnetron Motors of Myrtle Creek.

Local Tennis Aces Set To Open In State Meet

Seven Roseburg tennis stars, winners in the recent Roseburg Jaycee Junior tennis tournament, will open in state tournament action today in Beaverton.
Competing for Roseburg in the Junior Boys division will be Doug Green and Don Harris. Green took the runner-up honors at the local play-offs, while Harris came in third. Don Lowe, winner of the local championship and defending state Junior Boys champ, will not be in action. Lowe has already been to the national tournament three times, and is not eligible for another trip.

Carrying the banners in the Junior Girls action will be Michelle LeBeau and Martha Hetrick. Sherry Sevall, winner of the Roseburg Junior Girls crown, will be competing in the Girls division, as she is too young for the Junior Girls classification.

Brian Phillips and Mike Hoffman will represent Roseburg in the Boys division of the state tourney. Phillips won the Boys crown during the local competition, while Hoffman took runner-up honors.

While in attendance at the state Jaycee tennis tournament, the Roseburg Jaycees will put in a bid for the 1963 state tournament to be held on the local courts.

FOUR REPRESENT U.S.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Chuck McKinley, Jon Douglas, Dennis Ralston and Frank Froehling, all of whom competed at the Wimbledon championships this year, have been named to represent the United States in its first-round American zone Davis Cup elimination series against Canada at the skating club of Cleveland, July 13-14-15. Winner of the series will oppose Mexico in the zone semi-finals.

Kern hit a solo homer in the second and then added a three-run homer in the sixth. Then, to polish off his night's work he crossed in the 11th with the winning run when he got aboard after being hit by a pitch and scored on a double by Dave Ricketts.

Weatherpoon was just as busy at Spokane. In the first frame, he blistered a 370-foot homer with one man aboard. In the fourth, he homered with the bases empty to account for all Vancouver's runs.

Jerry Arriaga was the winner although he needed help in the eighth.
Jose Cardenal singled in the winning run in the tenth for Tacoma after a walk and a hit batsman set the stage for the decider.

Tacoma right hander Gerry Thomas scattered five hits and pitched the distance to record his eighth win.

Stew MacDonald, young Seattle righthander, and Tracy Stallard combined pitching chores to blank Boston. Lee Howell drove in two runs with a pair of singles and Jim Rivera accounted for the other pair with a double.

Harry Anderson had a pair of homers, one with the bases loaded, and Tom Harper homered with two aboard in San Diego's win over the Pioneer League All-Stars. Doyle Wagner, Pioneer League catcher on a one-night loan to the Padres, also hit a bases-loaded homer.

American Loop All-Stars Named

BOSTON (UPI) — A new generation of New York Yankees graduated into All-Star class today when Yankee manager Ralph Houk announced his pitching and reserve selections for the 1962 American League All-Star squad.

The champions continued their long domination of the All-Star squad balloting with six of the 25 players chosen for next Tuesday's first All-Star game at Washington.

Two "new Yankees" to All-Star selection, rookie infielder Tom Tresh and pitcher Ralph Terry, won squad berths along with established star veterans, Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris in the outfield, catcher Elston Howard, and infielder Bobby Richardson.

Berra, Ford Skipped

Two "old Yankees" displaced from long-time star berths in the balloting by the players and the selections of Houk were outfielder-catcher Yogi Berra and pitcher Whitey Ford. Berra had been chosen for 14 successive seasons and Ford named in seven of the last nine years.

In addition to Terry, Houk chose six other right-handers and a lonely southpaw, Detroit's Hank Aguirre. The right-handers, picked in a bid to stem the power of the National League's all-rightie starting lineup, include Jim Bunning of Detroit, Dick Donovan of Cleveland, Bill Monquette of Boston, Camilo Pascual of Minnesota, rookie Dave Stenhouse of Washington, and Hoyt Wilhelm of Baltimore.

Starters Picked Earlier
The American League starting lineup as established earlier by the voting includes Jim Gentile of Baltimore, Billy Moran of Los Angeles, Louis Aparicio of Chicago and yearling Rich Rollins of Minnesota around the infield, Maris, Mantle and Leon Wagner of Los Angeles in the outfield, and Minnesota's Earl Battey as catcher.

Houk exactly followed the player voting in choice of his reserves, picking runnersup to the starting selections right down the line. In his only variation, he added his own Howard to catching selections Battey and John Romano of Cleveland.

Yachting Cup Trials Set To Open Today

NEWPORT, R. I. (UPI) — Emil (Bus) Mosbacher, a veteran Long Island Sound yachtsman with a roomful of sailing trophies, will attempt to steer the yacht Weatherly to her fifth consecutive victory today in the America's Cup trials off Newport.

Weatherly, a blue-hulled beauty who underwent an overhaul earlier this year to become a red hot contender, will meet the 1958 cup defender, Columbia, while the sleek newcomer to international racing, Nefertiti, pairs off with four-time loser Easterner.

Weatherly handed Easterner her fourth loss in as many days Thursday when she swamped Chandler Hovey's entry by 10 minutes, 30 seconds, the greatest margin of victory of any of the contests in the four days of the match racing.

Nefertiti, still smarting under the drubbing administered on Wednesday by Mosbacher and Weatherly, hauled across the finish line Thursday 3 minutes, 40 seconds ahead of Columbia.
