

South Umpqua Church At Tiller Loses Pastor, Family In Move

By MRS. MILTON HAMMERSLY

The Rev. and Mrs. Cass Vincent and son, Charlie, have moved to Myrtle Creek to make their home following the resignation of the Rev. Mr. Vincent as pastor of the South Umpqua Community Church at Tiller. He preached his final service at morning worship July 1.

The family had resided in the parsonage apartment at the church since last fall, when they moved here from Washington upon Mr. Vincent's election as pastor of the church.

Cool temperatures prevalent in Southern Oregon July 2 and 3 brought frost to some local areas. Mrs. Ira B. Poole reported that squash plants were destroyed and corn nipped in the Poole garden, although cucumbers nearby escaped. Others sharing the garden spot at the Tiller Ranger Station found beans and tomatoes nipped. Reports of frost came from the Drew vicinity also.

Mrs. Fred J. Huffman and daughter, Evelyn, are back at their home following visits with relatives in Washington. In Seattle they visited the former's daughters, Miss Doris Huffman and Mrs. Albert Simpson and family, as well as other relatives, including Mrs. Huffman's mother-in-law, Mrs. Bernina Huffman and there were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Reynolds in Castle Rock. In Kelso, they called on Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McNeil and family, who formerly lived at Tiller.

Mrs. Huffman's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mason of Castle Rock brought the Tillerites home and remained for a visit at the Huffman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Day and Mrs. Lora Stewart of Medford were guests for the Fourth of July of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis of Drew. They are parents and grandmother of Mrs. Davis. The Davises are employed by the Cow Creek Ranger District, he with the fire suppression crew and she in the office.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Crispin and Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCutcheon, all of Milo, enjoyed a Fourth of July drive up Black Rock Rd. to the Diamond Lake Ranger District, then circled back through the Little River District by way of Look-out Mountain and the Quartz Mountain road. It was Crispin's first trip through the area by auto, but he had been over the ground many times in years past on foot or by horseback before roads connected the remote areas in recent years. The party picnicked at South Umpqua Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Mart Davis have returned to their home in Port Orchard, Wash., after a three-day visit in Tiller at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Davis and children.

Lutheran Women Slate Festival

The annual mission festival of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will be held Sunday, July 29 at the church, according to a statement made at the recent meeting of St. Paul's Lutheran Women's Guild held at the home of Mrs. O. F. Leonard, chairman.

Plans for the festival were made at the meeting. Members from sister congregations in Sutherlin and Tri-City will also attend the festival and the potluck picnic to be held jointly that date.

The chairman of a savings stamp project gave explanation of the points received for saving the stamps and validating covers.

The guild will hold rummage sales Friday, Aug. 10, and Saturday, Aug. 11, from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. Committees were set up under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lewis G. Wilson. Rummage may be left at Mrs. Wilson's home, 733 W. Ball, or at the parish house, Call Orchard 3-4563 for pick up. An open forum discussion followed the meeting with the Rev. D. W. Hinrichs answering questions and giving explanations of points under question.

A meeting for August, a potluck picnic will be held at Umpqua Park beginning at 8:30 p.m. Guild members, their husbands and children are invited.

Hostess Anne Leonard, served refreshments to 16 members and two guests.

GOP Principles Draw Tongue-In-Cheek Views

PORTLAND (UPI)—The Oregon Republican convention's admittedly "broad" statement of principles drew some tongue-in-cheek responses from leading Oregon Democrats. Democratic National Committeeman C. Girard Davidson of Portland commented: "I congratulate the Republicans on their statement and as Democratic national committeeman of Oregon I accept it wholeheartedly. It is a statement of broad and general governmental principles, with which every responsible American, Democrat or Republican, would heartily agree."

State Democratic Chairman E. D. Spencer of Salem added: "We're pretty much for that too, motherhood and state government. But I wonder how they feel about the sales tax."

"The Republican Party of Oregon stands for freedom, for opportunity, for responsibility. It believes in a limited form of government, based upon constitutional principles, that seeks as its goal the maximum extension of individual liberty. It rejects the philosophy which assumes that government is responsible for all aspects of the citizen's well-being. Republican philosophy rests on the doctrine that the individual has God-given rights and dignity and that government's role is that of servant, not of master. The Republican Party of Oregon believes in the individual's right and capacity to govern himself, to set his own goals and make his way toward them without the restraints of dictatorship or paternalism. "Believes that government should do only those things for the people which they cannot do as well for themselves. "Believes in providing adequate aid for the aged, ill, unemployed and needy and in assisting the restoration of such persons so far as possible to productive citizenship. "Believes that human rights cannot exist without the individual's right to keep and manage the rewards of his own efforts and asserts that any government that confiscates its citizens' possessions through excessive taxation and spending violates a fundamental freedom. "Believes in fiscal responsibility through careful management of the people's tax money and the protection of citizens' savings, pensions and insurance from erosive inflation. "Believes in maintaining the separation of the powers of government, with an effective system of checks and balances to protect the rights of the people and prevent the acquisition of dictatorial power by any branch of government. "Believes that continued growth of federal bureaucracy smothers individual liberties and that the role of local and state governments must be revitalized to preserve our republican form of government. "Believes that in order to provide employment, good working conditions and a higher standard of living for all, it is essential to have a tax, labor and business climate that will assure adequate wage and profit levels and permit our industries to expand and be competitive at home and abroad. "Believes that it is properly government's role to promote equality of opportunity for each individual and for all individuals, regardless of race, creed or national origin, in such areas as education, employment, housing and public accommodations, but it is not proper for government to attempt to force all persons into the same mold or to impose upon them uniformity of condition. "Believes that attempting to solve our economic and social problems through give-away programs destroys individual initiative, self-reliance and tends to corrupt the moral fiber of the nation."
