

THE RHODES-ATKINSON wedding was an event of June 15 at the Drain Assembly of God Church when Joyce Arlene Atkinson of Canyonville became the bride of Van Lewis Rhodes of Oakridge. The couple will reside in Oakridge.

Assembly Of God Church Scene Of Lovely Wedding

Basket of white stock, pink carnations and candelabra with lighted white candles accented with blue bows decorated the scene when Joyce Arlene Atkinson of Canyonville and Van Lewis Rhodes of Oakridge exchanged vows June 15 at 8 p.m. in the Drain Assembly of God Church.

The Rev. Dwight L. Roys of Silvertown, assisted by the Rev. Billie Alsop of Oakridge, brother-in-law of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony before about 125 relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Atkinson, Drain. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Rhodes of Disston.

The bride, given by her father in marriage, was beautiful in a floor-length gown of nylon lace over net and taffeta. The bodice was made with a scalloped neckline, trimmed with pearls and pearl sequins, and full-length sleeves. The full nylon lace overskirt had a scalloped hemline caught with lace roses. The bride's veil of illusion was held by a crown of pearls and pearl sequins. She wore a necklace with a single pearl on a gold chain and carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and pink rose buds.

Joan Keener, Corvallis, was maid of honor. Linda Rhodes, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They wore powder blue sheaths with lace overskirts and white accessories and carried white fans with white and pink carnations with blue streamers.

Cloyd Rhodes was best man, and Hoover Rhodes was usher. Both are brothers of the bridegroom.

Lorain Hopkins, sister of the bride, played the wedding march. Soloists were Jackie Hopkins, singing "A Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Hopkins. Bob Davis sang "With This Ring," accompanied by Lucille Godding.

Jackie Hopkins and Larry Atkinson, niece and nephew of the bride, were candlelighters. Kathy Atkinson, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a blue nylon dress with white accessories.

Gary Hopkins, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a champagne beige dress with beige accessories and a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

A wedding reception that followed the ceremony was given by the bride's parents at their home, where the wedding theme of pink and white was repeated. The table was covered with a lace-clothed. A four-tiered wedding cake, topped with wedding bells and accented with pink trim, served as the centerpiece.

Glendale OES Has Meeting Tuesday

The Glendale Chapter of the Eastern Star held its last meeting before the installation of new officers Tuesday evening at the Glendale Masonic Temple.

The retiring worthy matron, Mrs. Pete Smith, and the retiring worthy patron, Martin Brooks, presented officers with gifts decorated with the Eastern Star emblem.

Mrs. Pansy McDowell of the La Cynce Chapter in Kansas, a guest in the Joe Payne home in Glendale, received an honorary membership in the Glendale chapter.

The chapter also voted to assist the FL Club of the Rebekah Lodge in the local arrangements for the visit of the Bloodmobile to Glendale on July 24.

Persons from the ages of 18 to 60 are requested to donate blood, according to information given to the chapter. Persons who wish to do so may designate their donation for the Masonic Blood Bank which will replace free blood used by any Masons, Star members, or members of their families.

After the meeting, Mrs. Juanita Clare, Mrs. Joe Payne and Mrs. Orval Halstead served refreshments.

Society

Sorority Women Honor Mrs. Bolen

Alpha Chi, Epsilon Sigma Alpha, had Mrs. Gene Bolen as guest of honor at a pink and blue shower at the home of Mrs. Floyd Walker. Mrs. Dick Hanlin was in charge of games. Prizes were won by Mrs. Chuck Edison and Mrs. Norman Johnson.

After Mrs. Bolen opened her many lovely gifts, refreshments were served by the hostess and Mrs. Hanlin to Mrs. Leon Hughes, Mrs. Paul Sanger, Mrs. Chuck Edison, Mrs. Joe Scallon, Mrs. Norman Johnson, Mrs. John Jones and Mrs. Glenda Gadoway.

Sending a gift, but unable to attend was Mrs. Gary Wilson.

THE ENGAGEMENT and approaching marriage of Judy Ann Christensen, daughter of Mrs. Anton E. (Alice) Christensen, and the late Mr. Christensen, and Richard Wayne Saffley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Saffley, Salem, has been announced. The bride-elect was graduated in 1960 from Roseburg High School and attended Linfield College the last two years majoring in physical education. She is a member of Kappa Phi sorority. Mr. Saffley was graduated in 1957 from McMinnville High School and has been at Linfield College the last two years. He is a member of Alpha Omega fraternity and is majoring in business. Both plan to complete their education. The wedding has been planned for Sept. 8 to take place in Roseburg. (Picture by Bob Leber).

The bride lived in Drain about 11 years. She was graduated from Drain High School, and prior to her wedding was employed at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Corvallis as a nurse. The bridegroom attended Cottage Grove schools and is now employed by Pope and Talbot Lumber Co. at Oakridge.

The newlyweds are now at home at Oakridge, following a wedding trip to the coast. For traveling, the bride wore a beige dress with red accessories.

Out of town guests were: Shirley Keener, Mrs. Mildred Brenner and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Atkinson, all of Cottage Grove; Mrs. R. V. Rhodes, Homer Rhodes, J. V. Rhodes, Ruth Cline and Linda Rhodes, all of Disston; LaMar Heron and Mr. and Mrs. Hoover Rhodes, Dorana; Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Rhodes, Walker; Mr. and Mrs. Don Atkinson, family and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hough, Waldport; La Varda Joan Keener and Mr. and Mrs. William Haskell, Corvallis; the Rev. and Mrs. Bill Alsop, Oakridge; and the Rev. and Mrs. Dwight L. Roys, Silvertown.

Mrs. Millott Is Hostess At Dinner For Husband
A very delightful surprise dinner party was given at Umpqua Sunday for Leon Millott by Mrs. Millott. Many gifts were presented to the honoree.

At the lovely appointed table places were set for Mr. and Mrs. Clark Cole and Ronney; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cole and Evelyn; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jones, J. A. Jones, Kathy, Linda and Arlene; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cole and Jerry; and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Millott. Fishing and visiting was enjoyed during the afternoon.

Idleld Park Lodge Scene Of Party For Mrs. McClure
The summer social season opened with a charming bridal shower at the Idleld Park Lodge Thursday honoring Mrs. Loren McClure formerly Judith Clark of Portland. Hostesses were Mrs. Lee Eaton of Idleld Park, Mrs. Syd Comfort of Glendale and Mrs. Jay Eaton of Roseburg, all aunts of the bridegroom.

Large arrangements of white gladioli, yellow snapdragons and Michaelmas daisies graced the dining room. A lovely wedding cake, baked by Mrs. Lee Eaton, cut into individual serving pieces with a frosting yellow rosebud on each square, centered the serving table. The gift table was covered with greenery and yellow ribbon bows.

After the honored guest had opened her many gifts, two games were played. Then a surprise joke was sprung on Mrs. G. W. McClure, mother-in-law of the honoree, who had previously boasted she could bake a cake blindfolded. She was given the opportunity. Ingredients were laid out, she was duly blindfolded, the oven was ready for the cake — result, a flat, flat cake. The demonstration provided a great deal of merriment for the guests. Lovely refreshments were served buffet style.

Guests enjoying the evening were Mrs. Gordon Clark and Miss Mary Clark of Portland, mother and sister of the bride; Mrs. Carl Hastings Jr., Mrs. H. H. McClure, Mrs. Floyd Hickman, Mrs. Justin Eifert, Mrs. Merton Weaver, Miss Karen and Donna Weaver, Mrs. Joseph Eifert, Mrs. Albert DeBenedictis, Mrs. C. F. Moore, Mrs. Donald Fluke, Mrs. Howard Wilson, Mrs. Mayne Sendelbach, Mrs. G. W. McClure, Mrs. Marijean McClure, Mrs. James Marier, Mrs.

Bert Grindle, Mrs. Walter Gilkinson, Mrs. Jerry Rogge, Mrs. Hollis Bradstreet, Mrs. John Connine, Mrs. Wayne Nelson, Mrs. Davis Sanders, Mrs. James West, Mrs. Lester Spurgeon, Mrs. Howard Hatfield, Miss Shirley Eaton and Mrs. Eugene Boise, both of Roseburg; and the guest of honor, Mrs. Loren McClure.

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were Mrs. Robert Blakey Sr., Mrs. Buford Polley, Mrs. Dale Bonnell, Mrs. Forrest Losee, Mrs. Harry Cain, Mrs. Lynn Beckley, Mrs. James Starkcliff and Mrs. LaVina Borchert and Mrs. Walter Watkins both of Roseburg.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmoll, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Vint Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Art Bates, Ross Weaver, Mike Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Webster Briggs, Evelyn Heath, Susan Weaver, Rick Weaver, Susan McIntyre, Lyn McIntyre, Jan Gulbranson, Ron Gulbranson, Gloria Clark, Gerry Briggs, Matthew Briggs and Bill Briggs all of Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Galla, Eastside, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. John Rundell and Clifford Johnston, Drain; Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Weaver and Leslie, Medford; and Janet Greer, Portland.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmoll, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Vint Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Art Bates, Ross Weaver, Mike Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Webster Briggs, Evelyn Heath, Susan Weaver, Rick Weaver, Susan McIntyre, Lyn McIntyre, Jan Gulbranson, Ron Gulbranson, Gloria Clark, Gerry Briggs, Matthew Briggs and Bill Briggs all of Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Galla, Eastside, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. John Rundell and Clifford Johnston, Drain; Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Weaver and Leslie, Medford; and Janet Greer, Portland.

MR. AND MRS. GARY BRUMFIELD are pictured above, following their marriage June 8 at The First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg. The bride, Janet Simpson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Simpson, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Brumfield, all of Roseburg. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography).

Impressive Ceremony Unites Couple In Marriage June 8th

Miss Janet Simpson became the bride of Gary Brumfield at a double ring candlelight ceremony which took place June 8 at the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. John Adams officiated.

Both the bride and bridegroom are residents of Roseburg. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Simpson. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Brumfield.

Four large baskets of white gladioli and white stock were used to decorate the altar. Organist Charlene Miller played incidental music and the traditional wedding marches and accompanied the soloist, Stephanie Fowler, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a full-length gown of delicate lace, fashioned with full bouffant skirt caught up at the side front with Dior roses. The full back ended with a chapel train. The bodice was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and long sleeves. A half-crown of lace and pearls held in place her fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a white Bible. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Pam Davis was maid of honor, wearing a medium blue street-length full-skirted frock of satin with matching slippers. She wore a white veiled hat and carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli. Judy Parks, Joyce Clark and Charlene Dent were bridesmaids. Their dresses were light blue satin, worn with medium blue sashes and slippers. Their hair and bouquets were the same as those of the maid of honor.

Roger Simpson was best man. Ushers were Kenny Mehloff, John Metzger and Marshall Matthews. Ring bearers were Mike Baker, cousin of the bride, and Theresa Jensen, niece of the bridegroom. Vicki and Diane Jensen, nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls. They wore blue and white frocks and blue flower headbands and carried baskets of white gladioli.

Candlelighters Lori Manning and Marsha Wilson, cousins of the bride, wore light blue dress, white slippers and headbands to match their frocks.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Simpson wore a blue lace two-piece dress. Mrs. Brumfield's dress was a beige sheath. Both wore white accessories.

The reception was held in the church parlors. Tables were covered with white cloths.

Valley Newcomer Given Welcome
Mrs. Jess McMaster graciously entertained at a lovely noon luncheon at her home in Camas Valley, honoring Mrs. John Donovan, who is a newcomer in the valley. The Donavons are living in the Sunquist house for the summer months. They are former Tillamook residents.

Mrs. McMaster entertained on the front porch. Decorations were hanging baskets of begonias. Covers were placed for Mrs. Kenneth Bright and daughter, Kathy; Mrs. A. S. Schafer and granddaughter, Vicki; Ruppert; Mrs. Louis Pryor, Mrs. Leslie Catchpole, Mrs. Bill Battles, Mrs. Dave Thrush and the honored guest, Mrs. Donovan.

Potluck Enjoyed By Comfort Club
Mrs. Fred Graves was a recent hostess to members of the Elgar Comfort Club at her home in Melrose. Mrs. Henry Lander was co-hostess. A potluck luncheon was held, followed by a short meeting. The traveling prize was won by Mrs. Ralph Stewart. Door prize went to Mrs. Frank Schulze.

Present were the Mesdames Fred Alberding, Carl Backlund, Arthur Faulkner, Fred Graves, Steven Griffin, G. G. Graves, Henry Lander, Wesley Newman, Frank O'Brien, C. H. Parks, Stanley Sjogren, Ralph Stewart, O. J. Stringer, Frank Schulze, Ellis Warner and Claude Yarbrough.

The next meeting will be held in October with Mrs. J. Graves.

MILDRED WILSON, above, secretary of Roseburg Zonta Club, is serving this week as delegate from the local club to the biennial convention of Zonta International being held in New Orleans, La. (Picture by Wilson Studio).

Delegate For Club

The week of July 9 will find Mildred Wilson in New Orleans attending the biennial convention of Zonta International, executive women's service organization. Mrs. Wilson, Secretary of Roseburg Zonta Club, will serve as official delegate from the Roseburg club.

In addition to participating in official business to be transacted, Mrs. Wilson is looking forward to meeting interesting leaders from all parts of the world, because most of the 19 countries in which there are Zonta clubs will be represented among the 1500 expected to attend. Special interest centers on Zonta's newest country, Japan, where the Zonta Club of Tokyo was chartered in April.

As a member of Zonta's Board of Directors, Miss Clara Nasholm, District 8, governor, will be in New Orleans for at least 10 days attending meetings of the board before and after the convention proper.

Highlight of the convention program will be an address by Dr. Virginia L. Senders, professor of psychology and coordinator of the Minnesota Plan (for women's continuing education) at the University of Minnesota.

A focal point of Thursday, which will be dedicated entirely to Zonta's service activities, will be the announcement of this year's winners of Zonta's Amelia Earhart scholarships. Actually $2500 grants are awarded, in memory of Zonta's great aviatrix member, to qualified young women for graduate work in aeronautical sciences.

At the July 12 banquet new officers, to be elected earlier, will be installed. President Ellen Harris of Vancouver, B. C., will preside throughout the convention, and will relinquish the gavel to her successor, Mrs. Harris is a member of District 8.

SHOWN ABOVE cutting their wedding cake are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Douglas Jones, whose June wedding took place in the Riddle First Baptist Church. The bride, Mary Jane Clark, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clark of Althemer, Ark., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Jones of Riddle.

Mary Jane Clark Bride Of Richard Douglas Jones

Mary Jane Clark and Richard Douglas Jones exchanged marriage vows in an impressive double ring ceremony which took place Sunday, June 10, at two o'clock in the Riddle First Baptist Church with the Rev. Maurice Y. Miller officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clark of Althemer, Ark., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Jones of Riddle. The church was decorated with baskets of pink roses, carnations and white dahlias.

The bride wore a white nylon organza dress, ballerina length, and a shoulder-length veil held in place by a circlet of pearls. She carried a white orchid upon a white Bible. Maid of honor was Joyce Burke of Crescent City, Calif., niece of the bride, wearing a blue afternoon dress with a beige sash and lace jacket, and a corsage of white carnations.

Best man was Lonnie Jones Jr., home on leave from the U.S. Navy. Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held at the Perry Jones home. The newly married couple cut the first slice of the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, white and blue, with a miniature bride couple within the petals of an open flower on the top layer.

Mrs. William Barrong of Glendale, sister of the bride, served the cake; Mrs. Walter Reich of Glendale poured coffee; Mrs. Lonnie Jones, Riddle, served the punch; Mrs. Rodney Blevins of Myrtle Creek presented the guest book; and Myra Holland of Sutherlin had charge of the gifts.

After a brief honeymoon spent at Oregon Caves and other places of interest in Southern Oregon, the young couple left for Las Vegas, Nev., where the bridegroom, a June graduate of OTI, Klamath Falls, has a position in Lawrence laboratory at Mercury Missile Base.

Melrose Girl Is Honored At Party Friday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Fink entertained at a family birthday party Friday evening at their home in Melrose honoring their daughter, Susan; Mrs. Fink's brother, Jimmie Finn, 18.

A barbecue dinner was enjoyed in the yard and a pleasant social hour followed. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Finn, Mrs. Amy Driskill, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson and sons, Rickie, Steven and Kevin; and Carol Rhonda Fink.

HOW LONG HAS IT BEEN?

Since you purchased "refrigeration" in block form and left a trail of liquid "refrigeration" all the way to the house?

Since you listened to marches on a gramophone?

Now then...

Are you still trying to make do with a refrigerator just a step ahead of the ice-delivery days?

Wouldn't you rather have a SUPERMARKET in your kitchen?

Put meals-at-your-finger-tips... save on food budgets... add ease of preparation... all by putting in your kitchen a truly modern ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR FREEZER!

Refrigerators in most kitchens today are completely outdated... won't hold enough, do not protect flavor and freshness well enough, do not have the added compartments and controls of 1962 model refrigeration units.

Trade up to modern living... put that super-market in your kitchen... Talk to your favorite Cal/Ore Electrical League Dealer about a new REFRIGERATOR-FREEZER today!

Cal/Ore Electrical League