

Palmer Fires 69 To Take Lead In Open

TROON, Scotland (UPI) — Defending champion Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., and Kel Nagle, a one-time woodcutter from Australia, were ready for a head-and-head battle today over the final 36-hole round in the British Open golf championship.

Thirty-seven other men who survived the cutdown after Thursday's second round, including Sam Snead, Jack Nicklaus, Don Essig III and Phil Rodgers of the powerful American contingent, joined in the double-round march over the old Troon course.

However, this one shaped up as a "revenge" match between the two musclemen from opposite ends of the globe — Palmer and Nagle.

Nagle Equaled Record

In the 1960 British Open at St. Andrews, Nagle equaled the tournament record with an aggregate score of 278 to beat Palmer by a stroke. The likeable Pennsylvanian started that final round four strokes back of Nagle.

Palmer, though, was in the driver's seat this time. He shot a three-under-par 69 Thursday to reach the halfway mark of the 72-hole tournament with a 140. That gave him a two-stroke lead over Nagle, who fired his second straight 71 in the second round. The two leaders were paired for today's final round.

Rodgers, a freshman pro from La Jolla, Calif., was locked in a four-way tie for third place, five strokes off the pace. The red-haired Californian posted a 70 in the second round for a 145 total.

Essig Posts 148

Essig, former U.S. public links champion from Indianapolis, carded a second-round 72 for a 148 aggregate; Snead, who won this tournament back in 1946, had a 73 for 149, and Nicklaus, the current U. S. National Open champion, barely qualified for the final 36 holes with an 80-152.

Three Yanks were eliminated after the second round. They were former U.S. Open champion Gene Littler, who had a 74-153; Jack Isaacs of Langley Field, Va., 78-154, and world seniors champion Paul Runyan of La Jolla, Calif., 77-156.

Littler wasn't the only "name" golfer who failed to survive the cut. Others included former champions Gary Player and Bobby Locke of South Africa, Dai Rees of Wales, the British Ryder Cup captain, and Irish Joe Carr.

Winchester Pee Wees Stop Hucrest Twice

Winchester's 11-and-under and 13-and-under Pee Wee teams recorded a pair of victories over the invading Hucrest Tigers Thursday.

In the 11-and-under game Winchester posted a 6-3 win on Mike Avery's one-hitter.

Winchester scored three runs in the first inning after Hucrest had opened with two marks in the top of the stanza. Barry Smith's single was the lone hit of the uprising. The winners added three more in the bottom of the second to insure the win.

Dale Cave's second inning single was the lone hit off Avery.

A pitchers duel in the 13-and-under game was decided when Winchester scored a single run in the second inning to take a 1-0 victory.

Hucrest's Jerry Joelson and Winchester's Gordon Smith locked horns in the battle. Hucrest picked up two hits off Smith, while Winchester tagged Joelson for three base blows. One of Hucrest's hits was a double by Jim Cave.

Winchester's winning tally crossed the plate in the second when Gordon Smith walked, took second on a passed ball and scored on Bill Shinn's single.

11-And-Under

Hucrest 210-3 1 2
Winchester 33x-6 3 2
Batteries: Hucrest; Isaacson and J. Cave. Winchester; Avery and Malone.

13-And-Under

Hucrest 000 0-0 2 1
Winchester 010 x-1 3 2
Batteries: Hucrest; Joelson and J. Cave. Winchester; G. Smith and B. Smith.

AL KALINE, star Detroit Tiger outfielder, takes his first practice swings since leaving the lineup with a collar bone injury May 26. Kaline was injured when making a spectacular catch against the New York Yankees. He hopes to start playing later this month. (UPI Telephoto).

RCC Lady Golfers Set 'Alibi' Tourney

The Roseburg Country Club lady golfers have had a busy week of action competing in three tournaments.

In Tuesday's putting tournament at the RCC course the winners were Thora Leiken, Class A, with 32 putts; Frances Luoma, Class B, with 33 putts; Ruth Borden, Class C with 16 putts; and Dina Quisenberry, Class D, with 19 putts. The Class C and D golfers shot at only nine holes.

Winners of the Eclectic Tournament that ended recently were Vivian Harth, Class A; Sue Siekman, Class B; Jeanne Barnes, Class C; and Edith Nordling, Class D.

During the week several lady golfers traveled to Bend to compete in the W.V.S.O. tourney, but none of the local participants managed to win.

An Alibi Tournament is planned for July 17 at the RCC greens. In this action one bad stroke may be subtracted from each hole. Nine hole golfers will play the back nine.

The pairings for the July 17 tournament are:

CLASS A—Thora Lieken, Trudy Napier and Dorothy Puckett. Paula Casebeer, Vivian Harth and Edna Teague. Ruth Bridges, Pat Harris and Dona Mocabee.

CLASS B — Rosemarie Longfellow, Ann Machen and Loretta Sims. Dona Caley, Rosiland Lanspa and Bonnie Ring, Margaret Ganz, Ann Sanders and Sue Siekman. Julia Fritz, Mary Scholl, Colleen Schvaneveldt, Frances Luoma, Mary Roberts, and Barbara Smith. Mirna Hard, Nancy Lecklider and Cissy Woodruff. Helen Jensen, Margaret Krewson and Kay Mouché. Greta Peterson and Ruby Ellison.

CLASS C — Rachel Bryant and Esther Burr. Rita Barcus and Sally Gibbons. Ruth Borden and Jeanne Roles. Pat Holt and Mabel McCord. Rita Carstens and Martha Coen. Verner Denton and Jean Moore. Jeanne Barnes and Doris Mathis.

CLASS D — Ruth Jackson and Dina Quisenberry. Charlotte Gray, Edith Nordling and Jean Markham.

Lumberjills Open In Eugene Tournament

The Roseburg Lumberjills will open tonight against the Portland Rosebuds in the Girls' Invitational B Softball Tournament in Eugene.

Roseburg's game will be played at 8:30 (PDT) on the Amazon Park diamond.

In regular season play the Lumberjills have posted two wins over Eugene, and lost a thriller at the hands of the Eagle Point Dairy Maids.

Roseburg will enter the tournament as one of the stronger "dark-horse" teams in contention for the crown. The Portland entrants are battling for the favorites role.

If the local squad wins tonight's game, it will face the winner of the Eugene-North Marion game Saturday morning at 10:30. Should the Lumberjills be pushed into the losers bracket, they will face the loser of the Eugene-North Marion game at 9 Saturday morning.

A total of eight teams from throughout the state will take part in the double elimination tournament. In addition to Roseburg, teams will be present from Springfield, Woodburn, Eugene and Salem (North Marion). From Portland will be the Rosebuds, Aloha and the Miss Prints.

The championship game will be played Sunday at 7 p.m. (PDT). As the tournament is double elimination, the final battle could be forced to go two games. Fri., July 13, 1962 — The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 7
