Double Wedding Held In Eugene

Two lovely sisters, Wauunita Frazier of Eugene and Bonita Frazier of Salem, recited their marriage vows in a double wedding ceremony which took place June 9 at St. Paul's Catholic Church in Eugene.

Wauunita became the bride of Ramon Nolte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Nolte Sr. of Roseburg. Her twin sister was wed to David Soderstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nassahahn of Dallas. The brides are the daughters of Mrs. Davis Frazier of La Grande.

A large number of guests were present for the single ring ceremony which took place at noon, Father Robert E. Cieslinski officiating.

Mace Schram of LaGrande, brother-in-law of the brides, gave the girls in marriage. Both were lovely in their floor-length bouffant-skirted gowns of white peau de soie over lace. The fitted bodices had long sleeves and scalloped necklines. Their filmy veils of white tulle were tiered and were caught to dainty ornaments of pearls and sequins. Their bouquets were yellow daisy chrysanthemums centered by two yellow orchids.

Mrs. Mace Schram, sister of the brides, was maid of honor for Wauunita. Sharon Rossos of Eugene was bridesmaid. Kassie Schram, a niece, was flower girl.

Bonita's maid of honor was another sister, Betty Frazier of Seattle. Patty Cowie of Eugene was her bridesmaid. Susan Schram, a niece, was flower girl.

The honor attendants and the bridesmaids all wore street-length yellow taffeta dresses, styled with petal skirts. They wore small yellow halo headpieces with dainty veils. They had white slippers and gloves and carried bouquets of yellow daisy chrysanthemums.

Ramon Nolte's best man was Paul, his younger brother. Another brother, Edwin Nolte Jr. of Grants Pass, was usher.

David Soderstrom had Ken Goran of Eugene as best man. His usher was Dave Duncan of Eugene.

The wedding music was played by the church organist. The altar was decorated with the traditional candelabra and white and yellow gladioli and chrysanthemums.

For her twin daughters' wedding, Mrs. Frazier wore a becoming beige suit with purple accessories. Mrs. Nolte wore a smart beige dress with matching accessories. Both mothers had yellow chrysanthemums as their corsages.

Twin cakes, all-white, were featured decorations on the bridal table at the reception following the ceremony. Yellow and white flowers were used to complement the tiered cakes, both topped with white wedding bells.

Serving at the reception were Mrs. Larry Chaffin, Louise Gae and Dee Ann Cooper, all of Springfield, and Cherie Havens of Roseburg. Presenting the guest book was Mrs. David Flury of Roseburg. Mrs. Jon Peckles of Roseburg had charge of the gifts.

Both bridal couples honeymooned at the Oregon coast. The new Mrs. Nolte wore a light green suit with white accessories for her going-away outfit. Her sister wore a beige suit with white accessories.

Wauunita was graduated from Ontario High School and Sacred Heart School of Nursing in Eugene. She is employed as a registered nurse at Mercy Hospital in Roseburg. Her bridegroom, a Roseburg resident for most of his life, was graduated from Roseburg High School and is attending Oregon State University. He will be graduated from college this coming winter. During the summer, he is employed by the Coca Cola Bottling Co. The young people are making their home on Keasy Road for the present, then plan to move to Eugene this fall.

Bonita, also a registered nurse, was graduated from Sacred Heart School of Nursing and is employed in a Salem hospital. Her husband is attending University of Oregon. They are making their home in Dallas.

MOLLY ANNE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Katzmeyer, of Milbrae, Calif., granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Herrman and Mr. and Mrs. George Gough of Roseburg celebrated her third birthday at the Herrman home at a lovely lawn party. Besides her grandparents and brother, Max, those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Herrman and her cousins, Dalan and Chris. A birthday cake decorated in yellow, green and white centered the table. Balloons and other favors were presented to the guests. (Picture by Macy's Hillsdale, San Mateo, Calif.).

10th Birthday Celebrated At Enjoyable Swim Party

Ronda Crume was honored on her 10th birthday anniversary at a swimming party at the river beach at the Michaels place west of Days Creek.

Swimming and games were enjoyed, with prizes going to Kathy Lortie, Patty Washburn and Joyce Perkins.

Jean Slater Wed In June

Miss Jean Slater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Slater, formerly of Days Creek, and CPO Albert J. Thurlow of the U.S.S. Archerfish were married June 2 at Lewiston, Idaho.

The bride attended grade school at Days Creek, where two of her sisters, Mrs. James R. Moore and Mrs. Charles Tumey, reside, moving to Olympia with her parents several years ago. She was graduated from Rochester High School this spring.

The bridegroom, son of J. B. Thurlow, is also from Olympia, and is at present in the submarine service. The Thurlows visited relatives here following their marriage.

Jay-C-Ettes Set August Campout

The Roseburg Jay-C-Ettes met at the home of Mrs. Glen Gowey on Lynnwood Drive Monday night. Plans were made for a trip to Honeyman Park Aug. 11 and 12. It will be a family camping trip and promises to be a lot of fun for all who attend.

Other events under discussion which will be coming up soon were a cake sale and the summer planning session in Grants Pass, both in July; and a swimming party tentatively scheduled for August.

Immediately following the meeting a food-tasting party was enjoyed. Each member brought her favorite dish to be sampled and recipes were exchanged.

Those attending were Mrs. Glen Gowey, Mrs. Glen Yates, Mrs. Ken Clark, Mrs. Bob Stevens, Mrs. John Davis, Mrs. Bob Hayes, Mrs. Ron Strickling, Mrs. Ken Byland and Mrs. Gil Harvey.

Next month's meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gene Stewart, with Mrs. Ken Byland and Mrs. Gil Harvey co-hosting.

Oakland Home Is Setting For Monday Shower Party

Miss Trudy Downs was the recipient of a lovely bridal shower Monday at the Clifford Peterson home in Oakland.

Hostesses were the Misses Diane Peterson, Linda Brown, Carol Copeland, Joan Archer and Susan Beahm.

The bride's gift table carried out her colors of white in the candles and flower arrangements of roses, sweetpeas and daisies.

Guests were Miss Downs; her mother, Mrs. Albert Downs; her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Walter Robinson; her sister, Karen; Mrs. Robert Young, mother of the bride-groom-elect; and Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Jim Archer, Mrs. Delmar Copeland and daughter, Terri; Mrs. Conrad Paxton, Sandra Monett, Elaine Vaale, Cheryl Peterson, Jill Lytle, Sue Malkasian, Sandy Thennes and Sharon Cole.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Jim Seehawer, Claire Nichols, Yvonne Stewe, Gail Finnel and Barbara Pichette.

Relatives Attend Birthday Party

Bobby Munyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Munyon Jr. of Glendale, celebrated his first birthday Wednesday at a birthday party at his home.

Those present included his great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McCollum of Grants Pass; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Wooleridge of Azalea; his uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Craddock of Springfield, and their five children; Mr. and Mrs. Don Williams and son and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Munyon and children, all of Glendale.
