

Vacation Trip, House Guests Occupy Canyonville Croys

By BETH CHAPPELL

The month of June proved to be a busy month for the W. D. Croys of Canyonville. Early in June, two of Mrs. Croy's brothers and their families arrived from Cedar Rapids, Iowa. One of the brothers, the Canyonville Croys hadn't seen since 1945. During the time the visiting relatives were here Mrs. W. D. Croy celebrated her birthday with all the family members present. Upon the departure the visitors Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Croy and son, Bill, began preparation for their vacation to Southern California and their visit in Redlands, Calif., where Mrs. Croy's sister lives. While there, the W. D. Croys visited Disneyland, Knotts Berry Farm, Marineland, San Francisco, the Redwoods and Trees of Mystery. Mrs. Croy brought her niece home to Canyonville to spend the remainder of the summer. Just after reaching home still another brother of Croy, with his family, arrived for a visit from Cedar Rapids.

Portlanders Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Johnson and family of Portland were recent guests of Mrs. Howard Haymes. Mr. and Mrs. Eldo Coffman and son, Dennis, of Los Angeles were recent guests of the Mel Coffmans. Mel and Eldo Coffman are brothers. The Eldo Coffmans are former residents of Canyonville. Another brother, Doud Coffman of Sacramento, accompanied by his wife, also was a recent visitor. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Morris and family spent three days recently at Arcadia, Calif., visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Keeney and family and Mrs. Ethel Morris, mother of Mr. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvie Harter and family returned home July 6 from an extensive camping trip which began June 28. They camped on Silver Creek Falls and then went on down the coast camping along Devil's Lake and Winchester Bay. At Colton they visited a cousin of Harter, Fred Archer, and Mrs. Archer. At Toledo they visited with a brother and sister-in-law of Harter, Mr. and Mrs. John Harter.

Former Teacher Met

While taking a brief-hand course during summer school at Oregon State University Mrs. Guy McGee made the acquaintance of Miss Shirley Haustveit, former commercial and girls physical education teacher at Canyonville. Miss Haustveit taught one year in North Dakota and then went on to teach at Florence, Ore. for two years. She plans to teach at South Salem High School this fall. There she will teach typing, business law and general business. During summer school Miss Haustveit plans on visiting the Seattle World's Fair. She has another six weeks of summer school and then plans to visit in San Francisco and with her parents in North Dakota.

NEW BOUNTY BONANZA

POINT MUGU, Calif. (UPI)—Fishing military hardware out of the sea may become the next bonanza for the space age bounty hunter. The Navy's Pacific missile range headquarters here has announced a schedule of rewards for military equipment ranging from $100 for a wayward torpedo to $25 for a pilotless target aircraft.

Glendale Families Join Reunion On Southeastern Vacation Trip

By MRS. GERALD B. FOX

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cobb, their daughter, Deloris, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Magill and daughter, Donna, all of Glendale, returned recently from a two-week trip which took them as far east as Arkansas. They visited in Fairview, Kan., with Mrs. Cobb's sisters and brothers where they joined in a family reunion with Cobb's sister, in Westfork, Ark.; and with their daughter, Mrs. Eugene Dishmon and her four children of Jamestown, Tenn., who joined them at Westfork, Ark. En route home, they stopped at Lauguna, N.M., to visit with Mrs. Cobb's niece, and in Phoenix, Ariz., where they visited with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Snelling.

Residents Have Surgery

Charles Stackhouse of Fortune Branch underwent major surgery at Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene last week. Further surgery is planned for later in the week. J. D. Shepherd is recuperating at his home from surgery for goiter removal done at the Veterans' Hospital in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gurner of Springfield visited recently with his brother, Austin Turner and family in Glendale and with his nephew, William Turner and his wife of Sunny Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mill and daughter, Georgia of Klamath Falls visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Young over the weekend. They were accompanied by Dave Bolinger, also of Klamath Falls. While in Glendale the Mills made the preliminary arrangements for disposing of their property on Tunnel Creek Rd. east of Glendale.
