State FFA Group Heads For Europe

Fifteen Oregon Future Farmers of America left Portland July 15 on a People-to-People Goodwill Mission to travel for 23 days in England, Scotland, France, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, and Denmark. Travel will be via scheduled airlines across the ocean and from country to country.

The mission will allow Oregon's Farm Youth an opportunity to carry a message of goodwill to the farm youth and associated trades people in Europe, especially in the communist-dominated sections. They will inspect typical agricultural operations, working conditions, and methods as well as learn something of the conditions that exist on both Eastern and Western European farms.

The tour is arranged and designed to implement the aims and purpose of the United States Cultural Visitation Exchange Program and the People to People Foundation. The first annual Oregon FFA Delegation will be headed by Nat Etzel, vocational agriculture instructor, for the past seven years at Eagle Point High School. He is immediate past-president of the Oregon Agricultural Teachers' Association. None of the students is from Douglas County.
