

U.S. Track Team May Lose Grelle For Meel

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI)—It will be either 12 o'clock high today or 12 o'clock "low" for Coach John Oelkers of the United States track and field team after he gets the word on whether Jim Grelle can run the 1,500 meters against Russia.

At last reports, the Oregon distance whiz was ready to go in the metric mile along with pint-size Jim Beatty. But Oelkers will make one final check before noon today with Ducky Drake, the UCLA track coach and trainer who has been treating Grelle in Los Angeles for a strained thigh muscle.

Noon today (PDT) is the deadline for each country to file its official entry list on the eve of the Saturday and Sunday dual meet.

After that, no changes can be made later than 45 minutes before the start of an event.

The long range forecast was for fair weather for the two-day convalesce in which the nations will be clashing for the fourth time. About 75,000 are expected at Stanford Stadium each afternoon as the United States men try to make it four straight over the Soviets while the U.S.S.R. women aim to do the same thing to the slighter American females.

And the United States men are favored and the women the underdogs in a meet that could see a world record in the 400 meter relays being established on the track of decomposed granite.

The meet will be televised nationally Saturday from 7:30-8:30 p.m. EDT and on Sunday from 5 p.m.-9 p.m. EDT.

There is a 150-mile blackout in the San Francisco area.

Mountie Pitcher Gets Instructions Pitches 1-0 Win

Pacific Coast League Roundup
By United Press International
The electronic age of baseball has arrived in the Pacific Coast League but there's still room for human error and team victory.

Vancouver southpaw Jerry Arigo struck out 14 to lead the Mounties to a 1-0 victory over the Tacoma Giants Thursday night while listening to his boss over a radio transmitter.

Mountie manager Jack McKeon installed the dugout-to-diamond radio communication and kept in constant contact with Arigo during the game. The pitcher wore a tiny receiver in the pocket of his shirt.

The win gave the Mounties a sweep of their three-game series and their sixth straight win. The game's only score came in the fourth inning when rightfielder Al Moran singled home second baseman Jim Snyder.

The Salt Lake City Bees touched Portland for 16 hits and an 11-4 victory in the second game of a doubleheader. The Beavers took the opener, 2-1.

In other games, Seattle shut out Hawaii, 6-0, and San Diego beat Spokane, 3-1.

The Padres broke a 1-1 tie in the ninth inning for their win at Spokane. Tommy Harper tripled in the two last-minute runs for San Diego.

Right-hander Pete Smith sparked the Rainiers' shutout over Hawaii, allowing seven hits and batting two singles, scoring twice and driving in Seattle's first two runs in the fourth inning.

At Salt Lake City, Jack Kubisyn, Bill Williams and Craig Sorenson paced the hitting for the Bees. In the second game Jim Brewer pitched the distance despite 13 Portland hits.

In the first game at Salt Lake, the game was tied at 1-1 until the final seventh inning. Dave Ricketts came home on a single by Tony Bartirone for Portland's winning run.

Friday's Probable Pitchers
Salt Lake City (Weaver 7-5 and Prince 7-6) at Seattle (Spanwick 1-7 and MacDonald 5-7) 2 games.
San Diego (Flavin 6-1) at Portland (Willis 6-3).

READY for action against the Russian track team Saturday and Sunday at the Stanford University Track is Gene Johnson and Carol Smith. Miss Smith is entered in the women's 200 meter race for the U.S., while Johnson will carry the banner in the high jump. Both Miss Smith and Johnson are from Fresno, Calif. (UPI Telephoto).

Carol Jo Eliminated From Golf Tourney

WICHITA, Kan. (UPI)—Mrs. Mike Skala of Sutherland was eliminated in the third round of the Trans - Mississippi women's golf tournament here Thursday.

Mrs. Skala, a co-medalist in the tourney, was beaten 3 and 2 by Kathy Farrer of Decatur, Ala.

Pirates Continue To Win Threaten Dodgers' Lead

By United Press International
The Pittsburgh Pirates are like an old fashioned girl — dull at times but capable of stealing the big prize from glamorous rivals.

The Pirates admittedly don't have the glamour of the Los Angeles Dodgers or the San Francisco Giants but they're closing in on both so fast that people are beginning to remember this is the same team that beat the New York Yankees for the world championship in 1960.

They helped send Casey into retirement with that 1960 victory and Thursday night they made him wish he never came back when they beat the New York Mets, 5-1, in a sprightly fashion and 7-6 in 10 hideous innings.

The Pirates have now won 8 of their last 9 games, 16 of their last 19 and 22 of their last 28 to move to within 2 1/2 games of the first-place Dodgers, who dropped a 4-3 decision to the Cincinnati Reds.

Giants Beat Braves
The Giants advanced to within one game of the Dodgers when they beat the Milwaukee Braves, 7-3, the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Houston Colts, 6-2, and the St. Louis Cardinals topped the Chicago Cubs, 5-4, in other NL games.

In the American League, the New York Yankees ran their winning streak to seven games and maintained their 3 1/2-game lead over the Los Angeles Angels with a 10-6 drubbing of the Boston Red Sox.

The Angels beat the Detroit Tigers, 2-1, the Minnesota Twins downed the Cleveland Indians, 9-0, and the Baltimore Orioles clipped the Kansas City Athletics, 7-3.

Dick Stuart and Bill Mazeroski each had a homer and two singles and Bob Frier pitched a five-hitter for his 10th victory in the Pirates' first game breeze. Then the Pirates and Mets struggled three hours and 36 minutes in a 10-inning caricature of baseball before Bob Skinner's "wrong field" homer gave relief ace Elroy Face his seventh win of the season.

Reds' Rally Beat Dodgers
Don Zimmer singled home the tying run and Eddie Kasko tripled in the winner as the Reds rallied for two runs in the ninth to down the Dodgers. Frank Howard hit a homer estimated at 500 feet in the second inning to give Johnny Podres an early lead. Bill Henry gained his third win of the year for the Reds.

Jose Pagan drove in three runs, Felipe Alou knocked in two and Willie Mays hit his 28th homer for the Giants, who nevertheless needed a five inning shutout relief effort by Bob Bolin to clinch the victory. Hank Aaron and Lee Maye homered for the Braves.

The Phillies beat the Colts for the 12th straight time with a three-run eighth-inning rally that snapped a 2-2 tie. Pinch-hitter Bob Oldis brought in the tie-breaking run with a squeeze bunt to hand Hal Woodeshick his eighth defeat. The loss was the Colts' 12th in 13 games.

Three passed balls by catcher Dick Bertell helped the Cardinals score a tie-breaking seventh-inning run. Knuckle - baller Barney Schultz was the Cub victim. Bill White had three hits for the Cardinals and Lou Brock drove in two runs for the Cubs.

Skowron, Boyer Homer
Bill Skowron and Clete Boyer homered and Elston Howard drove in three runs with a triple and two singles for the Yankees. Roland Sheldon won his sixth game although Luis Arroyo entered in ninth-inning relief after Jim Pagliaroni hit a three-run homer for the Red Sox.

Bill Moran singled home Albie Pearson in the seventh inning with the Angels' winning run. Eli Grba allowed six hits and one run in seven innings to gain credit for his sixth victory while Jim Bunning suffered his sixth loss for the Tigers.

Jim Kaat's three-hit pitching and two homers by Bob Allison powered the Twins to their fourth straight victory. Kaat, who struck out five and walked one, won his ninth game of the season while 12-game winner Dick Donovan lost his fourth game for the Indians.

Charlie Lau hit a pair of two-run homers to lead a 12-hit Baltimore attack that brought relief pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm his fourth win. Jackie Brandt also homered for the Orioles.

Favored McKinley Reaches Quarterfinals

CHICAGO (UPI)—Top seeded Chuck McKinley faces collegian Marty Reissen and Jon Douglas meets Spain's Juan Couder in two of today's four quarter-final matches in the National Clay Courts Tennis championships.

Larry Nagler was paired against Carter Lenoir and Australian Fred Stolle, the tourney's top-seeded foreign player, faced Arthur Ashe of St. Louis, Mo., in two others.

No seeded players survived Thursday's quarterfinal round in women's play.

Nancy Richey eliminated Gwyneth Thomas, who was fourth seeded, 6-2, 3-6, 6-1. Top-seeded Karen Hantze Susman withdrew because of a hand injury and two other seeded women, Darlene Hard, national singles champion, and Billie Jean Moffitt, failed to survive the second round.

Miss Richey meets Carole Caldwell, the California teen-ager who upset Miss Hard, in one women's single semi-final match. Donna Floyd, who won her match when Mrs. Susman defaulted because of injury, and Julie Heldman, an unranked competitor from New York City, meet in the other.

Douglas saved the tourney from yet another upset Thursday when he rallied to win 11 consecutive games and turn back a serious threat from unranked Clark Graebner of Lakewood, Ohio, 4-6, 7-5, 6-0.
