

Drain Couple Joins Reunion

By JO CARLILE
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carter of Drain attended the Owen D. Thompson family reunion at the home of Mrs. Carter's sister, Mrs. Delbert Addleman, in Eugene Sunday.

The Anson Thompson family reunion was also held the same day and the two families got together for an afternoon of visiting. The one coming the greatest distance was Gordon Thompson, a missionary to Puerto Rico. The oldest attending was Mrs. Carter's father, Owen Thompson. The Carter's grandson, Rickey, 2-months-old was the youngest to make an appearance.

Drain BPW Club Hears Reports At Meeting

Committee reports on the recent club-sponsored well-child clinic were heard at the last meeting of the Drain Business and Professional Women's Club, reports Jo Carlile, correspondent.

A total of 29 children received the pre-school hearing test and three babies had immunization inoculation, it was reported.

Committee appointments for the coming year were made. Club prizes for the meeting were won by Margaret McCarger and Edith Wright.

The next meeting was set for Aug. 9 at the home of Edith Wright.

Tiller Girl Accompanies Visitors For Stay With California Friends

By MRS. MILTON HAMMERLY
Eunice Henry of Tiller is currently visiting friends in California, having made the trip south with Bruce, Ken, Frank and Susie McKannan when they returned to their home in Morgan Hill, Calif., following a two-week visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Henry and family with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Denmore and daughter, all of whom live on Red Butte Rd.

California Friends Leave
Wanda and Terry Tume have returned to their home in Arcata, Calif., following a visit here with their father, John Tume, Mrs. C. L. Irwin took them to Canyonville to board a bus. Their brothers, John and Donnell, remained for a longer visit.

Bay Chemical Co. of Tacoma, Wash., applied dust retardant to approximately four miles of the Jackson Creek Rd. last Saturday. The firm's crew will return next Sunday according to present plans, and will complete the remainder of the Jackson Creek project and undertake application of the dust retardant materials to portions of the main South Umpqua Rd. The work was scheduled to commence July 9 and continue for four days, but was delayed at the request of the Bay Chemical Co., according to a Forest Service spokesman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Irwin drove to Eugene Saturday to attend the wedding of the latter's niece, Sally Lou Randall, who became the bride of Patrick Curtis Wiley. Both young people are from Eugene and the bride has been attending the University of Oregon. Mrs. Irwin's son David Lewis, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Marshall and family in La Center, Wash., returned to Tiller last weekend. He accompanied Gilbert Butler, who has been working in that vicinity, when he came to Tiller to move his family to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nordwick of Medford, accompanied by the latter's sister, Mrs. Jane Creager of Coquille, called Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Poole at the Tiller Ranger Station. Mrs. Creager is the former Jane LaVelle, who taught many years ago at Tiller's one-room school. She now teaches in Coquille.

Danny Clauson, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Clauson, received medical treatment at Myrtle Creek Hospital Sunday for two puncture wounds in his right leg which he received when he fell from a log into a pile of dry twigs while on an outing with his family. The Clausons, accompanied by Dennis Beadel of Tiller and Mr. and Mrs. Don Olson and children of Canyonville and their house guest, Miss Margaret Amble, who is visiting here from North Dakota, drove to Crater and Diamond Lake and had stopped at Farewell Bend Forest Camp on Highway 62 to cook their supper when the mishap occurred.

Bean Picking In Days Creek Area Draws Sizable Crew Monday

By MRS. DURNIN SWINGLEY
Bean-picking started at the Hayden Laurence field three miles west of Days Creek Monday with a quick once-over by a sizable crew of pickers, some coming from as far away as Drew and up-river from Tiller. Some beans were ready for picking several days earlier but the cannery wasn't yet receiving.

Picking at the local field should be much easier this year as the problem of too much foliage has been alleviated, according to the Laurences. Planting was made on a new acreage this year. The harvesting of sweet corn should start in about two or possibly three weeks, also, according to Mrs. Laurence.

Arizona Folks Visitors
Mr. and Mrs. George Osborn have arrived from Yuma, Ariz., to visit the latter's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Prairie and family. They brought their mobile home which they park under a tree in the side yard. The area was prepared for the convenience of friends and relatives who bring their trailers. Later, the Osborns will return south through California.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Iszler were their daughter, Mrs. Linda Vanderrock, and a friend, Gordon Osko, both of Los Angeles. Coinciding with their daughter's visit was the arrival of Iszler's nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Iszler, and sons, Folly and Virgil, of Streeter, N. D. They had been to the Seattle fair and came on south to Oregon to visit relatives and for sightseeing.

Also visiting at the Iszler home were the Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Morais of Napoleon, Md., their daughter, Ruth, who attends college in Minnesota, and their son, Dwight, who teaches at LaMars, Iowa. The Rev. Mr. Moritz is pastor of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. They had been to the Fair also.

Others from North Dakota visiting the Iszlers recently were his niece and family, the Rev. and Mrs. Gideon Eberhardt and daughter, Gwinn, from Cavalier.
