Adventist Church Books Film Showing Saturday
"Spies of Challenge," a sound motion picture featuring life in oriental Burma, will be shown in the Seventh-day Adventist Church on Garden Valley Blvd. this Saturday at 8 p.m.

The picture, photographed by Elder Raymond Woolsey, the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jennings and the brother-in-law of Mrs. Gerald Casebolt of Roseburg, has been acclaimed especially interesting by those who have had opportunity to see it, according to Inez Hitchman of the church. There will be no admission charge and the public is invited to view this picture.

The Woolsey's, who have spent six years in the Seventh-day Adventist mission work in Burma, are on their way to attend the denomination's quadrennial world conference in San Francisco which begins next Thursday and stopped here to visit the Jennings and the Casebolt's. Woolsey is pastor of two Adventist churches in Rangoon.
