Jackie Barnes Becomes Bride

The First Baptist Church was the scene Saturday, June 23, of the wedding of Jackie Sue Barnes and Eugene Paul Bratsch. The Club met Thursday night for the impressive double ring ceremony at 8 p.m. before 100 relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Barnes of Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Bratsch of Dillard.

Two tall white baskets filled with pink and white gladioli, and two candelabra with white candles were placed before the altar.

The traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Robert (Lorna Vance) Schulze, who accompanied her sister, Mrs. James (Ruby Ann Vance) Taylor, as she sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was radiant in her walk-length gown with fitted bodice designed with a scoop neckline and three-quarter-length sleeves. Her fingertip-length veil was held in place by a crown of pearls. Her flowers were a cascade of white roses centered by a white orchid, which she carried on a white Bible.

Miss Carol Naas, maid of honor, wore a pale pink satin dress with matching headband and veil. She carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations and roses. Candelights, Miss D'Ann Fullerton and Miss Kaye Beery, wore identical pale pink sheath dresses and headpieces of flowers and veiling. All wore white accessories. Jerry Griese was the best man. Ushers were Richard Wells and Gary Kennerly. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs.

Barnes wore a rose-beige lace sheath dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a rose silk jacket dress, with white accessories. Both wore lovely corsages.

Pink roses were featured in the decorations for the reception. The bride's table was attractive with nylon net over pink and centered by the three-tiered cake beautifully decorated with pink rosebuds and white wedding bells. The cake was topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom in a heart of white net and flowers.

Following the traditional cutting of the cake by the couple, Mrs. Laurence Peterson served. Miss Diane Stoffel presided at the punch bowl, and Miss Sharolyn McClune served the coffee. Also assisting at the serving table was Mrs. Bert Griffin. Mrs. Russell Cary and Mrs. Robert Kent, Miss Gay Van Horn and Miss Nina Walter presided at the gift table; Miss D'Ann Fullerton and Miss Kaye Beery had charge of the guest book. After a honeymoon trip to Calgary, Lake Louise and Banff, Alberta, Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Bratsch are at home to their friends at 435 NE Winchester St., Roseburg.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Thomas, Miss Billie Lee, Lon Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Madden and children, all of St. Helens; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coulson and children, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thomas and children, Empire; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ritchey, Eugene; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kennedy and Kathy of Kelso, Wash.

Wonch-Wisner Wedding June 16

Now at home at 1583 SE Douglas, Roseburg, are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Wonch, who were married June 16 at a 7:30 p.m. double ring ceremony at the Westside Christian Church. The Rev. Donald H. Smith officiated.

The bride is the former Sharron Lee Wisner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Wisner of Roseburg. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William F. Wonch of this city.

Decorations at the church included candelabra and four bouquets of pink roses, arranged with fern and blue flowers and ribbons. Allison Pfaff was the organist, accompanying Mrs. Gene Cooksey, who sang "You'll Never Walk Alone" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage. Her ballerina-length dress of lace and nylon chiffon over taffeta had lace inlays on the skirt. Her bouquet was fashioned of white roses with stephanotis and forget-me-nots.

Kay Lynn Wisner acted as maid of honor for her sister. Her powder blue frock was styled with a lace bodice and a bubble skirt of taffeta. Her bouquet was a nosegay of forget-me-nots centered with white roses and carnations.

James Ridenour of Portland was best man. Ushering duties were performed by William Long, a cousin of the bridegroom, and by Ronald A. Wisner, brother of the bride.

A reception was held in the church parlors after the wedding. The bride's table was decorated with blue and white streamers. Wedding bells adorned the gift table. The lovely three-tiered wedding cake was decorated in white and blue and was topped by a miniature bridal couple.

Lois McAlpine, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Coffee and punch were served by Doris Butts, aunt of the bridegroom, and Marie Ridenour. Serving the cake were Barbara Kemp and Carol Coplin, sisters of the bridegroom, and
