Camas Couple Visits New Grandchild

By MRS. DAVE THRUSH

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Halterman of Camas Valley spent the past weekend in Eureka, Calif., visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Halterman, and greeting their new granddaughter, Mary Dianne, born July 17 to the Joseph Halterman's.

The baby's paternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Heuer from Fort Wayne, Ind., joined the family group.

Mother Is Visitor

Mrs. Edna Gokey from Spokane, Wash., spent the past week visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thurston.

Carl Dahl and his sister, Nellie Pleasant of Riddle, drove to Klamath Falls Friday where they visited their cousins Mr. and Mrs. Walter Herrick. From there they went to Summit Lake at Lassen Park and were joined there Saturday by Dahl's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dahl and children Sandra and Nadine, from Camas Valley; their daughter Janice from Portland; and their son, Keith from Oakland, Calif. Carl and Nellie also visited his step son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dancer and family in Grenada, Calif.

Guests Visit Overnight

Mr. and Mrs. Bill McClellan of Brookings were overnight guests recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bartley. The McClellans are former residents of Camas.

Mrs. Oren Stanley is convalescing at her home after being confined to Douglas Community Hospital in Roseburg for the past week.

Donna Smith received six stitches in her foot to close a cut she got recently while swimming in the Coquille river.

W. L. Christensen, owner of Chris' Studio of Photography, is back, following a vacation with his family in Sheridan, Mont. Mrs. Christensen and two sons, Jeff and Brad, are remaining in Sheridan visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perrault, for another week.

Miss Vera Price, Miss Martha Shaw, past president of the National Education Association, and Miss Linda Pinkham of Portland spent Saturday visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Fullerton en route to Gold Beach to take the mail boat on the trip up the Rogue River to Agness. The three are teachers.

Mrs. L. J. Fullerton and her sister, Mrs. Hubert Alford of this city drove to Portland this week to meet the former's daughter, Mrs. Douglas LeFevre, and 16-month-old daughter, Susan, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who will spend a month visiting here. Mrs. LeFevre is the former Mollie Fullerton.

Mrs. Robert P. Kidder and children, Robin, Phyllis, and Nancy, drove to Portland this week to pick up Lt. Col. Kidder, who has just completed two weeks at Fort Lee, Va. They were accompanied by the former's niece, Janet Dougherty, who returned to her home in Boring, Ore., following a week's visit here. Both Phyllis and Nancy Kidder visited at the Dougherty home in Boring earlier this month.

Mrs. Ethel Kennerly has as her house guest this past week Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Isaacs of Wichita, Kan., and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Spencer, retired teachers from Mindanao Island in the Philippines. They were on the way to the Seattle World's Fair and had stopped en route. Next week, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Johannes from Robinson, Kan., also en route to the fair, will stop to visit Mrs. Kennerly. All are relatives of Mrs. Kennerly.

Community News Briefs

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Boyles of this city drove to Eugene Friday evening to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Durward Boyles, and two children.

Willie Olson left Friday for Seattle to enjoy the World's Fair before returning to his home in Spokane, Wash., following a visit in Roseburg with her two sisters, Mrs. F. L. Von Schrittz and Mrs. Stella Grant. Over the weekend Mrs. Olson and Mrs. Von Schrittz went to Eastern Oregon and joined the latter's husband, who is enjoying a fishing stay there.

Marsha and Ramona Ferguson have returned to their home in Siletz, Ore., following a visit here for a week at the home of their maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. Hampton, on SE Chadwick Street. Mrs. Hampton, who has been convalescing from injuries suffered in a bad fall at the coast, has returned to her work at Gosline's Jewelry store.

Mrs. Mary Curtis has returned to her home in Roseburg, following several days in Portland and then going to Seattle to attend the World's Fair. While in Portland she visited her son and a daughter, who reside there. She also visited her grandson, Alan Mortensen, who is home on leave from the Navy. He is stationed in Charleston, S. C. Alan left Tuesday to resume his duties. He will leave later on a Mediterranean cruise.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Connley Hampton and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Theron Hampton, and children, Terry and Cheryl, who reside in Southern Calif., stopped over here recently to visit the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. Hampton, en route home from Seattle, where they attended the World's Fair. Hampton took the visitors on a trip to Diamond and Crater Lakes during their stay here.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lomax are back at their home on Cardinal Drive, following eight and a half months v e t i o n i n g . They spent the first several months in Matamoros, Mexico, after which they went to New Orleans and took in Holland-American line ship for Europe. They made Heidelberg, Germany, their headquarters as Mr. Lomax has a sister residing there. From Heidelberg, they made tours including a trip to Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Brussels, Belgium, Holland, London and other points of interest in England, and Paris, France. They returned to this country aboard another ship and following a stop over in Lake Ozarks, Mo., to pick up "Louis" their French poodle, they returned to the West coast via Rushmore National Park, Yellowstone National Park and Seattle to attend the World's Fair. During their absence their home was leased to Mr. and Mrs. Al Medford.
