

Lookingglass Woman Visits Yellowstone

By HAZEL S. MARSH

Mrs. Vernon Brenden of Lookingglass, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Donna Barker, and children Rex, Dix and Mindi, returned last week from a month's motor trip visiting relatives and friends.

On their tour they visited in North and South Dakota, Montana, Idaho and Washington. They included a tour of Yellowstone National Park and the Black Hills. Mrs. Barker and family reside in Springfield.

Visitors the past week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brenden included their granddaughters, Sandra and Susan Brenden of Richland, Wash., and Mindi Barker of Springfield. Mr. and Mrs. Byron Brenden, Lavelle and Michael of Richland, Wash., were also guests during the week and on their return took their daughters with them.

Mrs. Regina Brenden of Bend joined the group at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brenden for several days.

Fair Visit Made

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Kerr returned recently from a week's trip north in which they met some cousins from Hawaii in Tacoma and together they visited the Fair at Seattle. The Kerrs returned home via Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smiley and small son, Mark, of Sun Bernardino, Calif., left Saturday after spending the week with the latter's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Kerr. They returned home via the coast route and stopped for a visit in San Francisco.

Mrs. Betty Thompson and son, Randy, will leave Thursday for their home in Toledo, Iowa, following a several week's visit with Mrs. Thompson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Green and family. The Greens took their guests on a trip up the North Umpqua and Little River on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ellis, Roy, Tom, Bruce, Nancy and Mollie drove to McKinley Sunday to attend a family gathering on the Hollis Mast ranch and to meet with an aunt, Mrs. Ann Mast.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Buell, R.D., Steve and Echo drove to Ashland Sunday to visit Mrs. Buell's brother, Ty Stephens and family. They were accompanied home by their daughter, Deanna, who had visited with her cousin the past week.

Children Visit Grandmother
Mr. and Mrs. Bob Graves and family went to Yakima over the weekend to visit the former's mother, Randy, Sandy and Gregory stayed for a longer visit with their grandmother and, Loretta had been with her grandmother the past month returned home with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hubbard and family have been enjoying a visit the past week with the former's nephew and his bride, I.A. and Mrs. James Tancharian. The young man was graduated this month from the Flight School at Pensacola, Fla., in the marine corps and will be stationed at Santa Anna Air Base. The couple was married on July 21.

Ruth and Beth Hubbard returned Friday from the week at Fireroff summercamp of the Village Missions at Langlois.

ARRIVED FOR VISIT

PARIS (UPI)—Princess Chichibu, sister-in-law of the Emperor of Japan, arrived in Paris Tuesday for a private visit.
She flew in from London and planned to leave for Stockholm Friday.

GOOD LOOKING BANDIT

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (UPI)—Police here couldn't be blamed today if they were looking extra hard for a bandit who stole $800 at gunpoint from the Flamingo Hotel.

The bandit's description: A shapely blonde wearing skin-tight capri pants.

MANNEQUIN SNATCHER

MOUNT CARMEL, Ill. (UPI)—Mrs. Gene Doane called police recently to report a store mannequin lying in front of her home dressed only in blue pumps.

Before officers arrived an unidentified man loaded the mannequin into his car and drove away.
