

CHAMPION IN ACTION — All-around logger Mervin Lentz is shown doing his stuff in the hand-bucking contest to capture first. He also claimed the hand-chopping title to be named all-around logger. The Westfir man cut through this log in less than a minute. His time for two logs, on which the title was based, was 1:57.3 minutes. (News-Review Photo).

GOING DOWN — Jim Herron of Gardiner is about to get a bath. He and John Wickheim were finalists in the log-rolling contest. Obviously, the champion at the annual Douglas County Timber Days was Wickheim.

CHAMPION DETHRONED — Don Mayfield, last year's axe throwing champion was in good form this year, but ran into some stiff competition which left him out of the money altogether. The event was won by a 15-year old youth from California.

QUICK START is made on the 100-foot spar pole at Douglas County Timber Days by Danny Sailor, left, world's champion speed climber. He claimed the title at Sutherlin with times of slightly over 40 seconds per climb. He won $100 for his fast ascent and decent. Second, third and fourth prize of $75, $50 and $25 were also awarded in the event.

BIG JOHN MILLER above retired as champion of Douglas County Timber Days Sunday, but he had fun. Obviously on hand to enjoy himself, he added zest to the two-day show with his antics. He came in second in hand bucking and third in hand chopping. He was last year's all-around logger.
