

Spahn And Roberts Keep Hitters Guessing While Compiling Wins

By United Press International
Forget those pennant races for a moment and sound a salute for Warren Spahn and Robin Roberts—two grand old pitchers whose baseball obits were prepared somewhat prematurely.

Spahn, who had only an 8-11 record on July 13, gained his 15th victory of the season when he pitched the Milwaukee Braves to an 8-1 win over the Philadelphia Phillies Sunday while Roberts, winless until June 11, chalked up his seventh triumph for the Baltimore Orioles, 7-2, over the Los Angeles Angels.

The victory was the 320th of Spahn's career and gives him an outside chance to achieve his 13th 20-win season. Roberts' win was the 241st of a career that seemed ended when the New York Yankees released him in June.

Spahn yielded six hits and walked one batter in squaring his season record at 11-11. He was backed by a 10-hit attack which included two homers by Joe Adcock that drove in five runs. Eddie Mathews also homered for the Braves who dealt Dennis Bennett his seventh defeat.

Roberts allowed five hits and also walked only one batter in raising his season mark to 7-4. Triples by Jerry Adair and Dick Williams drove in five Baltimore runs and a homer by Brooks Robinson produced another. The loss was the seventh in 11 games for the Angels, who are now 6½ games behind the front-running New York Yankees in the American League race.

Dodgers Split Twinbill
The Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Chicago Cubs, 4-3 in 14 innings and then suffered a 4-2 loss that ended the league leaders' three-game win streak; the San Francisco Giants beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 2-1; the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Houston Colts, 7-4, after losing by the same score and the Cincinnati Reds scored a 6-3 win after the New York Mets won their opener, 5-2, in other National League action.

The Chicago White Sox made it two in a row over the Yankees, 3-2, in 13 innings; the Minnesota Twins beat the Detroit Tigers, 8-3, in 11 innings and then lost, 5-2; the Boston Red Sox dropped their opener, 2-0, but defeated the Washington Senators, 5-4, in 11 innings, and the Kansas City Athletics whipped the Cleveland Indians 3-2 and 5-2 in other AL action.

The Dodgers won the four-hour and one-minute first game when Tommy Davis singled home Tim Lincecum in the 14th inning. Don Cardwell pitched a three-hitter, including a two-run homer by Ron Fairly, to win his fifth game of the season in the nightcap.

O'Dell Takes 13th Victory
Billy O'Dell pitched a five-hitter and singled home the winning run in the seventh inning to post his 13th victory for the Giants. O'Dell was in trouble only in the fourth inning when two singles and Bob Lillis' run.

Minnie Minoso's two-run single and Bill White's three-run homer were the big blows of a five-run fifth-inning Cardinal rally that brought rookie Paul Otho his first big league win. The Colts rallied for seven runs in the last two innings of the first game with Bob Lillis' fourth single driving in the decisive runs.

Al Jackson pitched a five-hitter and rookie Rick Herrscher hit a three-run homer for the Mets in the first game, but the Reds split the doubleheader with the aid of Gordy Coleman's three-run homer in the nightcap. Jim Maloney went seven innings to win his fifth game for Cincinnati.

Pizarro Scores Winner
The White Sox pulled out their 13-inning win over the Yankees when pitcher Juan Pizarro singled went to second on center-fielder Jack Reed's error and scored on a single by rookie Mike Hersberger.

Rich Rollins' two-run homer capped a six-run 11th-inning rally for the Twins in the first game but the Tigers won the nightcap on the wings of a two-run homer by Dick McAuliffe and a two-run double by Al Kaline. Rookie Howie Koplitz won his second game for the Tigers.

Tom Cheney pitched a five-hitter for the Senators who beat Bill Monbouquette in his first start since pitching a no-hitter. The Red Sox, however, gained a split when Carroll Hardy scored in the 11th inning of the second game on a throwing error by Bob Johnson.

Dan Pfister and John Wyatt combined in a four-hit pitching effort for the Athletics in their opener and Kansas City completed the sweep in the nightcap with the aid of Ed Charles' three-run homer.

Lumberjills Give Dairy Maids Scare In One-Run Loss

Roseburg's Lumberjills gave the Class A Rogue River Dairy Maids a real scare before going down to an 11-10 defeat Saturday as the Camp White diamond near Medford.

The defending state champs found the Jills on top twice, and going into the bottom of the seventh the score was tied at 10-10. The Dairy Maids came through with a single run in the bottom of the seventh after two were out to win the game.

Roseburg capitalized on Dairy Maid miscues early in the game, and worked the Rogue River pitchers for 11 walks. Behind the pitching of Brenda Solnicka and Glena Wolford the Lumberjills played heads-up ball.

The game was decided in the bottom of the seventh with two away. Left fielder Bighorn blasted a triple to drive in the runner on first with the winning tally.

The Jills' keystone combination of Judy Zeigler at second base and Joanne Davenport at shortstop played well in the field and at bat, accounting for both Roseburg hits. Miss Davenport cleared the bases with a triple in Roseburg's six-run sixth inning.

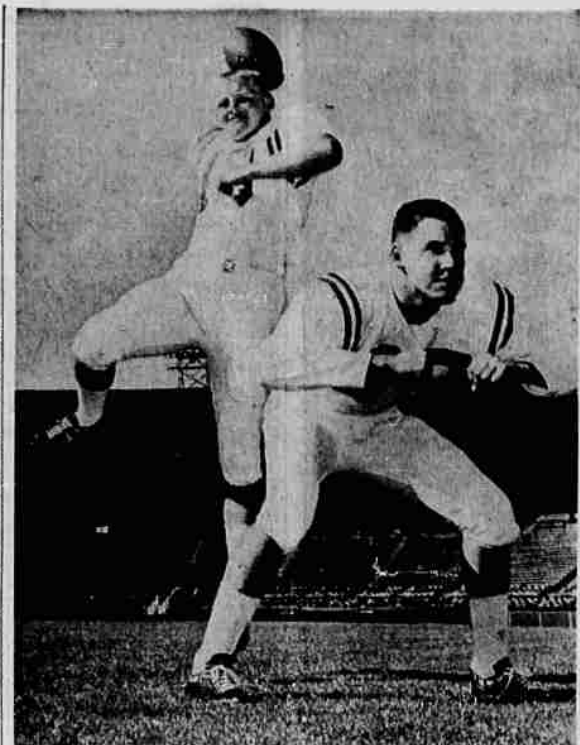

The Lumberjills next outings will be in the state tournament Aug. 11-13 at Eugene. Roseburg 010 026 1-10 2 5 Dairy Maids 200 062 1-11 8 3 Batteries: Roseburg, Solnicka, Wolford (5) and Crenshaw, Dairy Maids; Bannon, Callaghan (6) and Hall. WP: Callaghan. LP: Wolford.

Shriner All-Star Game Saturday Set To Pit Top State, Metro 11s

Football's finest hour—the annual Shriners' Hospital All-Star game—will come into being for the 15th time Saturday night in Portland's Multnomah Stadium.

The 8:30 p.m. (PDT) kick-off will be preceded by an hour of pageantry, featuring over 2,000 uniformed persons in marching and musical units. Pageantry is under the direction of Al Vaughan.

Mexico Leads U.S. In Cup Zone Action

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—Mexico went into the final two singles matches of the Davis Cup American zone eliminations leading the United States, 2-1, today and confident of victory.

In the opening match, Rafael Osuna was favored to beat Jon Douglas of Santa Monica, Calif., who was downed in four sets Saturday by Antonio Palafox.

In the final match, Chuck McKinley, St. Louis, Mo., without a doubt the star of the U.S. team here, was pitted against Palafox, who was largely responsible for Mexico's lead, in what was expected to be the anti-climactic duel of the series.

Betting favored Mexico to win the tournament in today's first match. Sunday, Palafox held up his own end and part of his partner, Osuna's, to defeat McKinley and Dennis Ralston, Bakersfield, Calif. 8-6, 10-12, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2, for Mexico's second doubles Davis Cup competition victory over a U.S. team.

Mexico's first doubles victory was in Cleveland, Ohio, last year with the same four players in action.

McKinley got the United States winging on Saturday when he whipped Osuna, the American collegiate champion, but Palafox squared matters when he routed the jittery Douglas.

Metro, State 11s Resume Practice

PORTLAND (UPI)—The Metropolitan and State teams resumed two-day practice sessions today for the 15th annual Shrine all-star football game Saturday night.

The squads, which opened workouts last Monday, were given a day off Sunday.

Two injured players were listed as improved and coaches said they probably will be able to play in the annual classic at Multnomah Stadium.

They are Metropolitan halfback Art Brasmer of St. Helens, suffering from a sprained ankle, and State center Roger Nelson of Lebanon, suffering from a badly sprained thumb.

Reed and Bond took the first set from Driscoll and Susman, 7-5, Sunday, when play was halted by Darkness. Earlier in the day, Dell and Bond eliminated Clark Graebner of Lakewood, Ohio, and Charles Pasarell Jr. of Puerto Rico, 18-16, 5-7, 8-6, in a quarter-final match.

Reed and Bond reached the finals by beating Tom Edleson of San Francisco and John Maloney of South Africa, 7-5, 11-9.

Justina Bricks of St. Louis teamed with the ever-present Miss Smith to win the women's doubles championship with a 7-5, 6-4 decision over Mrs. Susman and Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif.

Fred Skeels Leads Baptist 9 To Win Over Vets Squad

Fred Skeels came up with his second one-hitter in a week to lead the Conservative Baptist nine to a lopsided 18-4 victory over the Vets Patients in a YMCA Church League softball title.

Skeels again missed his no-hitter in the seventh inning. This time the bid for the no-hitter was spoiled by Gaines' towering triple. Skeels had his other bid for a no-hitter ruined Wednesday in the seventh when he tossed a 15-0 shutout victory over the Latter Day Saints.

In dumping the Vets, Skeels struck out 10 and issued six walks. From the opposing pitcher Skeels' teammates collected 14 hits.

Leading hitters with two apiece for Conservative Baptist were Addison Talbot, Skeels, Roy Keller, Bill Ford and Bob Shelton. Ford and Shelton each had perfect 2-2 games.

Conservative Baptist scored 10 runs in the first three innings to more than ice the victory. A five-run uprising in the fifth, combined with single runs scored in the fourth, sixth and seventh gave the winners a total of 18 marks.

Angels Get Bird As Orioles Use Tough Old Robin

BOSTON (UPI)—The Orioles used their robin Sunday—but it was the Angels who were for the birds.

Baltimore's Robin Roberts pitched a five-hitter as the Orioles swept a three-game series from Los Angeles with a 7-2 victory. Able to total only 15 hits and 6 runs in the three games at Baltimore Memorial Stadium, the fallen Angels arrived at Boston for this evening's game against the Red Sox.

Rookie Dean Chance (8-6) was named by manager Bill Rigney to pitch for Los Angeles—who was more concerned about his suddenly inept batters. Don Schwall (5-11) will pitch for Boston.

Chance either will have to be in near-perfect form tonight or the Angels will need to snap out of a slump that has harried them for the past few games. A team isn't going to win many games on a five-hit average—even against the Red Sox.

Roberts, the 35-year-old onetime Philadelphia Phillies ace who was released by the Yankees this year because they considered him finished, stymied Los Angeles on a combination of experience and effectiveness. Lifting his record to 7-4 for the season, Roberts used his newly developed forball pitch to strike out four batters.

His control was excellent—only one Angel drew a walk in the nine innings. And Roberts lowered his earned run average 2.48, not bad for a pitcher who at the end of 1961 was cut loose by a club that finished with the worst record in the National League.

Only Albie Pearson and Billy Moran were able to hit Roberts' pitching. Pearson, the diminutive Angels centerfielder, led off the first inning with a home run to give Los Angeles a 1-0 lead.

Moran got three singles in four at bats and scored the Angels' only run.

Trailing 2-1 in the fifth, Baltimore's Jerry Adair rammed a triple off losing pitcher Eli Grba that drove in two runs and sent the Orioles into the lead 3-2.

Then pinch hitter Dick Williams killed any Los Angeles chances by hitting a bases loaded triple in the eighth. Ron Hansen's double drove in Williams to finish the scoring. The Angels were finished about three innings earlier.

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Dodgers survived their most critical pitching situation since Sandy Koufax was sidelined by splitting a doubleheader with the Chicago Cubs Sunday and settled for only the loss of a half game to the second-place San Francisco Giants.

Manager Walt Alton said 10 days ago that the Sunday doubleheader would be crucial because he would have to start both games with rookies, going with Phil Ortega in the first and Pete Richert in the second.

The Dodgers won the first game on the pitching of Larry Sherry in relief and the timely hitting of Tommy Davis who singled home the winning run in the 14th inning for a 4-3 victory.

Richert lost the second game but few pitchers would have beaten Don Cardwell who gave up only three hits in recording the 4-2 victory. But for Ron Fairly's homer in the seventh he would have had a shutout.

Podres Faces Mets
With the doubleheader now in the past, the Dodgers tonight go back to their top hurlers. Johnny Podres, who is riding a four-game winning streak after a slow start, will take the mound against the rejuvenated New York Mets. And 20-game winner Don Drysdale is scheduled to start Tuesday. Opposing Podres tonight will be either Craig Anderson or Jay Hook.

Alton arranged his pitching schedule so that Podres, Drysdale and Stan Williams would be the pitchers starting Friday when the Dodgers open their three-game series at San Francisco against the Giants that could decide the National League race.

Thanks to their victory over Pittsburgh Sunday, the Giants are now 4½ games back of the Dodgers. A twin Los Angeles loss would have cut the Dodgers lead another full game.

Howard's Payoff Peg
There were several key plays in the 14-inning opener but the biggest of these was the perfect throw Frank Howard made from right field to catch Ernie Banks at the plate in the sixth inning. Had he scored, the game would have ended with a 4-3 Chicago victory.

Banks and George Altman both homered and had seven of the 12 Chicago hits between them. Tommy Davis, with four hits in six times at bat, drove in two vital runs. In the seventh he singled with the bases loaded and two out to score the run that tied the game. And his 14th inning single scored pinchhitter Tim Harkness from second with the winning run.

Larry Sherry worked seven relief innings, his longest mound stint of the year, and did not give up a run. He now has five relief appearances without yielding a run.

Maury Wills increased his stolen bases to 87 and now has the best National League mark in thefts since Max Carey stole 58 in 1918.
