

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD REITMANN, above, were united in marriage by the Rev. John Adams of the First Presbyterian Church. The bride, Noma Ann Robinson, of Roseburg, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Robinson Jr. of Idley Park. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Arthur R. Reitmann and the late Mr. Reitmann. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography).

PICTURED ABOVE in the traditional cake-cutting ceremony are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kohloff, who were married July 20. The bride was Nancy Lee Woods before her marriage. The couple will reside at 3430 Quartz Creek, Merlin, Ore.

WAYNE ALLEN HOLMES, above, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Allen Holmes of 223 SE Mosher St., celebrated his fourth birthday July 31 at a party at his home. Additional guests included his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Carey. Cake and ice cream were served.

Melrose People Meet For Picnic

The Melrose Friendly Hour Club held its annual family picnic recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Fenn. A potluck dinner featuring homemade ice cream was enjoyed together with games and visiting during the afternoon. Those present were Mrs. Roland Cheek, Mrs. and Mrs. Kate Ben- edict, Donna, Vicki and Cindy; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller and Bill; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bly, David and Douglas; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Thompson, Mrs. Amy Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Bly; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Coffell; Mr. and Mrs. Joel Fenn and Ernie; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bradley and son, Bob; Mr. J. E. Conn, Mrs. Fred White, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Parks, Maloma, Janita and C. H. Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Graves, David and Jonelle; and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Fenn.

Annual Picnic Held On Sunday

The American Gold Star Mothers Department of Oregon sponsored a picnic Sunday at the VA Hospital with Mrs. Martha Ball, hospital chairman, in charge. Prizes were awarded to winners. Assisting with the affair besides Mrs. Ball were Mrs. Dorcas Coulter, Unity; Mrs. Lula Sturgell, Mrs. Margaret Aiken, Mrs. Ann Innes, Mrs. Mary Parker and Mrs. Lena Stereburg, of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. George Pro, Mrs. Coca Hutchinson, Mrs. Marie Champ and Mr. and Mrs. Norvel Emmons of Salem; Mrs. Jean Leach, Mrs. Edna Castle of Coos Bay; Mrs. Celia Everett of Manogue; Mrs. Mildred Edner of Tillamook; Mrs. Alice Harrison, Mrs. Alice Harris, Mrs. Emma Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Carter of Roseburg.

Noma Robinson Becomes Bride

A candlelight service at 8 p.m. June 29 united in marriage Noma Ann Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Robinson Jr. of Idley Park, and Harold L. Rietmann, son of Mrs. Arthur Rietmann of Roseburg.

The Rev. John Adams performed the services at the First Presbyterian Church before 100 friends and relatives of the couple.

The church altar was decorated with arrangements of calla lilies centered between two candelabra. A bouquet of white roses adorned the guest book table.

Married July 20th

Now at home at 3430 Quartz Creek, Merlin, Ore., are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kohloff, who were married July 20 in a single ring candlelight ceremony at 8 p.m. The wedding took place at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Grants Pass, the Rev. Howard Gurney performing the ceremony.

The bride is the former Nancy Lee Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Woods of Merlin. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kohloff of Roseburg.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess style ball-length dress of lace over tulle, the bodice fashioned with elbow-length sleeves. Her bouquet of white carnations was centered with a pink rosebud corsage. She wore an elbow-length veil, secured with a white rosebud headpiece. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Sherrie Baker of Grants Pass was maid of honor. She wore a dainty summer cotton frock with matching slippers. Her bouquet was of white gladioli.

William E. Kohloff of Roseburg was best man for his brother, David and Tommy Woods, brother of the bride, were ushers, the latter lighting the candles for the ceremony.

Baskets of gladioli decorated the church, together with the traditional candelabra.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Woods wore a light green crepe frock with white accessories. Mrs. Kohloff wore a beige sheath with brown accessories. Both mothers wore pink carnation corsages.

At the reception held at the church following the wedding, Barbara Newkirk served cake while Vivian Doersher served the punch. Sandra Woods attended the guest book. Sandra Jerdine was in charge of the gifts.

The young people are now at home following a honeymoon at the coast. For traveling, the bride wore a white suit with matching accessories.

The bride attended Grants Pass schools. The bridegroom, born and reared in Roseburg, was graduated from Roseburg High School. He is currently employed as an electrician by the Oregon State Highway Department.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kendall and son, Donnie, of Rio Dell, Calif.; Terry Locke, Klamath Falls; and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kohloff, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pankey, Mrs. Mary Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Stinner, Mr. and Mrs. William Kohloff, Mrs. Homer Elliott, Jim Elliott, Linda Currier and Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Holland, all of Roseburg.

Mrs. Richard John was organist.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a street-length dress of white satin, styled with bell skirt, and white lace jacket. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was secured by a tiara of pearls and sequins borrowed from her mother of honor, Mrs. Lance Tibbles of Eugene.

Mrs. Tibbles wore a mint green street-length dress of batiste, fashioned with a full skirt and draped bodice. Her net hat matched her dress, and she wore white accessories. Her flowers were white carnations.

Mrs. John Michaels of Eugene and Mrs. Terry O'Neill, sister of the bride, were attendants. Their frocks and accessories matched those of the honor attendant.

Allen Talbott of Burlingame, Calif., was usher with Jerry Martin and Donald Foster.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Robinson wore a blue batiste dress with white feather hat and black patent accessories. Mrs. Rietmann wore blue flowered batiste with white tulle jacket and white accessories.

The reception was held in the social hall of the church following the ceremony. Mrs. John Caudill tended the guest book. Mrs. Willard Rietmann attended the gift table. Mrs. Wayne Rietmann and Mrs. Nathaniel White served the Maltese Cross wedding cake. Punch was served by Mrs. Pete Aquino and Mrs. Lloyd Hill.

The couple honeymooned at Lakeside. For traveling, the bride wore a pink two-piece suit. Her slippers and hat were of a deeper shade of pink.

The bride and bridegroom both attended Roseburg High School. She is employed as secretary for Kelley and Garrison, Roseburg attorneys. The bridegroom is a roofer for Bailey Roofing Co.

The newlyweds are making their home at 457 W. Harrison.

Linda Gaskill Shower Honoree

A bridal shower honoring Linda Gaskill was given recently by Mrs. Anceil Osborne and Miss Sherrie Gaskill.

The afternoon was spent playing games, with prizes going to the honoree and to Miss Donna Kinney and Miss Carol Spuhn.

Mrs. Don Moore assisted the hostesses as they served refreshments.

Guests were Miss Donna Kinney, Miss Mary Ann Wilson, Miss Carol Spuhn, Miss Beverly Tapp, Mrs. Don Moore and Miss Linda Gaskill.

Pink And Blue Theme Of Party

A pink and blue shower was given to honor Mrs. David Williams of Drain and her infant daughter, Travis Jean. The shower was held Friday at the Anna Drain Park.

Hostesses were Jo Shirley, Velma Haldeman, Jeanne Cunningham and Ruby White.

Sweet peas were arranged with two beautifully decorated cakes as centerpieces. One cake was topped with booties and the other was topped with a clothes line with baby clothes on display, both were accented with pink.

About 24 gathered to admire the new baby and view the many gifts, those unable to attend sent gifts.

Now It's Challis for the Beach!

It's down to the beach in the newest fabric that takes to water: feather-light challis. Boy-leg swimsuit (left) has sunny gold and orange medallions on white background. Cover-up is provided (right) by matching cardigan jacket. Cresslan challis is fast drying.

Picnic Is Given By MacCrackens

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacCracken entertained at a picnic Saturday afternoon at O. C. Brown Park near Dixonville. The affair was in honor of their son, Gordon Stuart, on the occasion of his eighth birthday.

The picnic was climaxed with the serving of the birthday cake, decorated as a baseball mitt. Those present were Gordon Stuart MacCracken, the guest of honor, and Larry McFarland, Gary Quist, Mike Stokes, Tim Pease and Paul Dietrich.

IT PAYS TO PATRONIZE NEWS-REVIEW ADVERTISERS

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER Society BEVERLY BROOKE

8 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. —Wed., Aug. 8, 1962

Ashland Church Wedding Scene

A double ring ceremony Friday evening, June 29, at the First Presbyterian Church in Ashland united Suzanne Bordeaux of Ashland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard O. Bordeaux of Riddle, and Morton Wayne Scripser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Scripser, all of Ashland. The Rev. B. J. Holland officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white net over satin bouffant floor-length gown which had been worn previously by her two cousins. Chantilly lace formed panels in the skirt and was fashioned into the wrist-length sleeves and Sabrina neckline both ornamented with seed pearls and sequins. A shoulder-length veil fell from a ruching-trimmed lace bandeau. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Sally Smith of Eugene, a Riddle schoolmate of the bride, was maid of honor with Mrs. K. Wayne Heard and Mrs. Rodney Strieby, bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of silk organza over tulle in afternoon length. Miss Smith's was honeydew color and the others were apricot. White carnation and yellow glads formed the nosegays carried by the bridesmaids, while the maid of honor carried apricot gladioli and white carnations. All wore complementing net head coverings.

Dennis Reiter served as best man, with Lloyd Morrow and Peter Nightingale, ushers.

Traditional wedding music was played on the church organ, Rex Clarke, singing "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The reception followed at Caesar Hall in Mark Antony Hotel in Ashland, with Mr. and Mrs. Bordeaux and Mr. and Mrs. Scripser joining the bridal party in the receiving line. Dancing followed with the Kilty band of the Ashland Elks serenading the bridal couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Scripser will spend the summer in Ashland where both are employed. They will make their home this fall in Corvallis where the bridegroom has a fellowship at Oregon State University to study for his master's degree. At the same time, he will teach geography.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Bordeaux and Bruce, those attending the wedding from the Riddle area included Mr. and Mrs. John Bingham, Mrs. Kathy Roberts and Mrs. Jessie Stout, all of Riddle; a Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy McGee of Canyonville. Other out-of-town guests included Mrs. Laura Beach of Vancouver, Wash., the bridegroom's grandmother; Mrs. Milton Byrd of Hamilton, Mont.; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Krasky of Rockaway and Mrs. Robert Lewis of Gardiner.

A LOVELY WEDDING at the First Presbyterian Church in Ashland united in marriage Suzanne Bordeaux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard O. Bordeaux of Riddle, and Morton Wayne Scripser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Scripser of Ashland. (Picture by Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek).

Long Look of Summer Necklaces

In appearance, these pearls (left) are first cousin to cultured pearls. They have the look and the lustre, are hand-knotted and budget-priced. Sautier (right) is the revival of a necklace fashion of the 1920's. This one is in coral and gold. Both designs are from Richelieu.

Wedding Shower Held At Drain

A wedding shower was held for Esther Alsop Cole at the Drain First Baptist Church Friday. Games were enjoyed.

Guests of the bride were: Mrs. Oscar Butler, Mrs. James Bryant, Mrs. Otis Doherty, Mrs. Clifford Wadkins, Mrs. Billy Alsop and Dorothy, Mrs. Saul Phillips and Mary Ann, Mrs. Clyde Powell, Mrs. Reggie Powell and Mrs. Demp Henderson.

Those sending gifts but not able to attend were Mrs. Don Wise, Mrs. E. E. Wise, Mrs. Earl Jacobs and Mrs. Carl Alsop.

Zuleima Group Enjoys Potluck

South Douglas Zuleima Nile Club members enjoyed a delightful potluck picnic on the spacious lawn of the home of Mrs. Ira B. Poole at the Tiller Ranger Station Tuesday.

The noon meal was followed by a brief meeting, and the afternoon was spent visiting. It was the last meeting of the group until September, when they will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Victor Curnutt in Myrtle Creek.

Attending the delightful affair were Mrs. Frank Danner and Mrs. Victor Curnutt, Myrtle Creek; Mrs. Wayne McCoy, Riddle; Mrs. W. L. Boyd, Mrs. Malin Moore and Mrs. William E. Belcher, all of Days Creek; Mrs. Bill Meyers of Milo; and Mrs. Poole.

Howard Hunsaker Feted Thursday

Howard Hunsaker was complimented by a group of close friends at a surprise birthday party Thursday afternoon at the Silver Nook Grill. Charles Brundage of Weber's Bakery furnished the decorated cake.

Present for the informal occasion were C. H. Esselstrom, Harry Winter, David Weisman, Reginald Johnson, Charles Brundage and the guest of honor.

Couple Married In Washington

The wedding of Curtis Bridges and Betty Quinn took place in Stevenson, Wash., July 19. They were accompanied on the trip by the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Velton Bridges, who acted as the couple's honor attendants.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bridges of Winston attended Douglas High School. The bride received her education in Oklahoma. Both are employed at Roseburg Lumber Co., No. 2.

The newlyweds plan to take a honeymoon to Reno, Nev., this month. They are presently residing at 371 SE Henry St. in Roseburg.

25th Anniversary Is Celebrated

A surprise 25th anniversary party was given in honor of Tom and Mary Cox of Drain after the evening services at the Church of Christ Sunday.

A tiered cake, with a silver "25", was beautifully decorated with pink sweet peas and pink rosebuds, accented with pink trim. Sylvia Mattoon had baked and decorated the cake for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Cox received a silver bread tray from the group of about 40 friends.

Shower Is Given For Miss Hayden

Irene (Tarnowski) Hoskins of Drain and her son, Christopher, who is three-weeks-old, were honor guests at a pink and blue shower given in their honor at the home of Mrs. Cecil Parker, with Mrs. Ted Mauk and Mrs. Stanley Cunningham assisting as hostesses.

The room was decorated with nasturtiums and sweet peas. About 15 relatives gathered to admire the new baby and view the beautiful gifts.

Games were played during the social hour, with Edith Writh and Mrs. Horace Cunningham named winners.

Unique — Colorful — Beautiful

MARTIAN GARDEN and the GARDENS OF TOMORROW

DOUGLAS FAIR

AUGUST 15-19 ROSEBURG

RED HAVEN PEACHES

for Canning and Freezing

Come Now-Short Supply

BURKS' BLUE FRUIT STAND

Dillard OS 9-8876

General Electric

Mobile Maid

"WIFE SAVER"

NEW 1962 MOBILE MAID

Priced From $138

NOTHING DOWN

No Payments 'Til October

Carter Appliances

266 S. E. Stephens

OR 2-3393