'King' McElhenny Gives Seattle Fans Display Of Top Grid Action

SEATTLE (UPI) — The "king" came back to Seattle Saturday and 22,500 of his loyal subjects roared approval.

At 33, Hugh McElhenny is a mite older and a step slower than in the days when his flashing feet carved out a chunk of football history at the University of Washington.

Pro football has largely passed him by. Backs are faster now, the pace is man-killing and the former All-American is headed down the home stretch of a long professional career.

Still, nobody got a bigger hand than McElhenny when the public address announcer called the roll as the Minnesota Vikings and the San Francisco Forty Niners of the National Football League matched muscle, might and man-power in preseason play here.

Show of Courage

San Francisco won it 30-24 when Bill Kilmer and Jim Johnson collaborated on a 92-yard touchdown pass play.

Afterwards, in the dressing room, McElhenny punched a fist over and over into his palm.

"I wish we could have won it; I wish we could have won it... dammit!"

Nobody in the stands minded too much.

He gave them in the third quarter what they came to see—a display of raw courage into which he poured all of his vast talents.

San Francisco had gained a 20-14 halftime lead when Tommy Davis drilled a pair of field goals just before the half ended. Then the "king" returned.

Leads Drive

He stepped for 3, added 10 more and still another 10. A screen pass to McElhenny was good for 11.

A Viking pass play fizzled then and Fran Tarkenton, a sophomore quarterback, was hopelessly trapped. Tarkenton shoveled McElhenny a pass that traveled 41 of 18 inches and off he stormed for 12 more yards to the Forty Niner five.

The next play came as a surprise—at least to the Forty Niners. Mel Triplett, another gent who has been in the program a long time, scored standing up around right end.

Sprawled on the grass after a withering block that wiped out a Forty Niner defender was McElhenny.

They had given him a plaque at halftime and Hugh smiled and waved up to the stands.

It was a fair trade. He gave quite a bit of himself.

Football Clinic Set For Session Tonight

The Oregon School Activities Association will hold a football clinic for prospective officials tonight at 8 at the Roseburg High School.

Edward J. Ryan, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer of the OSAA, will conduct the clinic. Included in the evening's program will be the showing of a film, a discussion of the new rule changes and a general summary of all rules and the mechanics of officiating.

All persons interested in officiating high school games this fall are urged to attend.

Portland Squad Captures NW Babe Ruth Tourney

CASPER, Wyo. (UPI)—Power-laden Madison of Portland walked Great Falls, Mont., 12-3 to win its second straight Northwest regional Babe Ruth baseball tournament Sunday.

The Portlanders, unbeaten in the double-elimination tourney, earned a spot in the national Babe Ruth meet at Bridgeton, N.J., Aug. 20-25.

Padres Take 10-Game Lead In PCL Chase

United Press International

San Diego has taken another big surge toward the Pacific Coast League pennant and much of the credit goes to pitcher John Tsitouris.

The 25-year-old righthander hurled a three-hitter Sunday night to lead the Padres to a double-header sweep over second-place Salt Lake City. Tsitouris picked up his sixth straight victory as the Padres won the second game, 5-2, after taking the opener, 6-2.

The victory vaulted the Padres 10 full games ahead of the Bees and left Tsitouris with an 11-6 season record.

In other games, Vancouver topped Tacoma, 2-0, Hawaii defeated Spokane, 8-2 and 7-5, while Seattle split a pair with Portland. Portland took the opener, 3-2, and Seattle grabbed the second, 5-1.

San Diego, which now leads Salt Lake City 4-0 in their current series, won the opener when the Padres gained five unearned runs in the second inning. Tsitouris' cause was aided in the nightcap by Ron Samford who hit a solo homer in the fourth inning to give the Padres their go-ahead run.

The hitting of Stan Palys and Hap Richie was the key to Hawaii's sweep. In the opener, each hit homers. In the nightcap, Palys singled in the 10th inning and then stepped aside for pinch runner Bobby Kanoop. Richie then drove in Kanoop with the winning run.

Portland put together four straight singles in the seventh inning to top Seattle in their opener. But the Rainiers came back to win the second game on a three-run homer by Mike Shaanon and a two-run round tripper by Ted Schreiber.

Veteran George Bamberger pitched a five-hitter to lead Vancouver to victory. He struck out six and walked two as he registered his second shutout of the season.

Pee Wee Jamboree Starts Play Tonight

Perhaps Roseburg baseball fans are finished watching Legion Junior baseball this season, but there is still some baseball left at Stewart Park. This is proven by the annual Pee Wee Jamboree slated for Stewart Park tonight and Tuesday night.

Tonight's games feature the 10-11-year-olds, while Tuesday's game will find the 8-9-year-olds doing battle. This year's Jamboree is sponsored jointly by the Kiwanis Club, Roseburg School District and the City of Roseburg. The games originally were to be played Aug. 6 and 7. Tickets purchased for those two nights will be accepted.

Opening tonight's action will be a 7 p.m. game between the High School Indians and the Fremont Angels. At 8 p.m. the Fremont Orioles will clash with the Green Athletics and at 9 p.m. the Eastwood White Sox will be pitted against the Winchester Senators.

Tuesday night's play, featuring the 8-9-year-olds, will open at 5 p.m. The High School Robins play the Winchester Wolves in the first game; the Hucrest Vandals meet the Winchester Wildcats at 5:45; the High School Beavers play the Eastwood Colts at 6:30; the High School Falcons clash with the Hucrest Bucks at 7:15; the Fremont Vikings lock horns with the Fullerton Bruins at 8; the Riverside Cougars battle with the Fullerton Bears at 8:45; the Riverside Huskies challenge the Green Rams at 9:30; and the Fremont Bulldogs are pitted against the all-star team in the closing game at 10:15.
