Party Occasions Double Surprise

It was a double surprise for three members of the Missionary Baptist Church of Winston Saturday night when nearly all the members gathered at the Olalla ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Linville to honor them.

For Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McCool of Wilbur it was a farewell party. Mr. McCool plans to begin courses at the Missionary Baptist Institute of Little Rock, Ark. He and his wife received lovely gifts.

Perhaps the most surprised of all was J. V. Reader, the hostess' father, from Whittier, Calif. The occasion marked the first party he had ever had in honor of his birthday. He received many useful gifts from his friends.

Refreshments were served out of doors.

Church Wedding Event Of July 21

Miss Cecelia Dell Petrey, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter VanderVeg, 1118 Fullerton St., Roseburg, became the bride of Arthur Norman Gwin, son of Mrs. Bernice J. Gwin of Springfield, at the First Baptist Church in Roseburg July 21. Dr. Eugene F. Gerlitz officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony at 8 p.m. in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

Baskets of pink and white gladioli and white cathedral candles formed the setting for the wedding. The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, was lovely in a floor-length gown of white embroidered net lace over white tulle fashioned with a skirt of ruffles edged in Chantilly lace. The bride had a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. Her veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed-pearls and lace. She carried a white lace-covered Bible topped by white orchids tied with satin ribbons.

Mrs. William Robinson of Roseburg was matron of honor and wore an aqua satin dress fashioned with a bouffant lace overskirt and lace jacket. Her hat and slippers were aqua and she carried a sheaf of pink gladioli.

Mrs. Charles Glen and Sandra Ellis of Roseburg were bridesmaids and wore pink satin dresses in pink designed to match the matron of honor's. They carried white gladioli sheaf bouquets.

Gerald D. Gwin was best man for his brother and Ronald E. Gwin, brother of the bridegroom, and Charles Glen were ushers.

A wedding reception followed. The bride's table was decorated with orchid asters, tall white candles and a tiered and decorated wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Clotis Clark, aunt of the bride, served the cake and Mrs. Bill Resner served the punch. Darlene Crowley presented the guest book.

For traveling the bride chose a white linen two-piece ensemble, white accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple will reside at 100 River Road, Apt. 4, Eugene.

Reception Set For This Saturday

The Three Links Club of the Umpqua Rebeccah Lodge is sponsoring a reception Sunday, Aug. 19, in honor of Mable Rader of Kellogg.

The reception will be held at the Beckley picnic grounds from 2 to 5 p.m., with a special program at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Rader is author of the book, "Lure of the West Lands," which will be on sale. All residents of the community are invited.

The couple will reside at 100 River Road, Apt. 4, Eugene. The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and the bridegroom was graduated from Springfield High School and is now employed by Roy L. Houck Sons Construction Co.

Coming from out-of-town for the wedding were Gerald D. Gwin of Cedar Ridge, Calif.; Darlene Crowley, Grass Valley, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Payne, John B. Van Etten, Springfield; Mrs. Cecelia Evans, paternal grandmother of the bride; R. L. Petry, father of the bride and JoAnn and Don Petry, all of Cutler City, Ore. and Mrs. Walter Grey, mother of the bride, Portland.

Wedding Is Held

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding July 27 of Mrs. Edwin A. Myers (Mary H. Myers) of Roseburg and Earl M. Preston of Eugene.

The double ring ceremony took place at the First Methodist Church in Medford at 4 p.m., the Rev. Roseberry officiating. Besides the couple's attendants, the only guests were Miss Sally Myers, daughter of the bride, and Mrs. Wallace Carpenter, wife of the best man.

Two baskets of white and pink gladioli and white snapdragons were arranged at each side of the altar.

The bride was most attractive in her pale pink chiffon afternoon dress, fashioned with a tucked bodice, full skirt and short sleeves. She wore a small pink flowered hat and rose-colored slippers. Her crystal earrings and necklace were pink to match her gown. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid and stepanotis which was later used as a corsage.

Mrs. Rose Konopatski was matron of honor. Her white dachon afternoon dress was embroidered with turquoise flowers, complemented by turquoise accessories. Her crystal earrings and necklace, a gift from the bride, were of the same color. Her nosegay bouquet was of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Wallace Carpenter of Eugene was best man for the bridegroom.

Following the wedding, the newlyweds gave a dinner at Mon Desir at Central Point for members of the wedding party and the two guests. The small wedding cake was served by the bride.

The couple left immediately after the dinner for their honeymoon

A 1000-HOUR award was presented to Miss Anna Link (above right), at the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary meeting at the hospital. Miss Link has been in charge of the sewing sponsored by the auxiliary for the hospital. At the left Sister Mary Norene, who heads the Mercy Hospital staff, presents a 50-hour award to Pink Lady Mrs. Michael Lee. (Pictures by Chris' Studio of Photography).

Melrose Miss Birthday Honoree

Robin Kelley of Melrose celebrated her eighth birthday at a party at Stewart Park. Following refreshments the children enjoyed games and the playground equipment.

Gifts were presented to Robin from Mrs. William Gawler and daughter, Roxann; Roxie, Debbie and Bill Plant; Fara Grubbe, Laura Garrett, Billy Claffin, Jackie and Jimmy Spencer, Mrs. Mildred Spencer, Mrs. Georgia Kimbrell, Selma and Mark; Mrs. Robert Reese, David and Bruce; Mrs. George Horton and Scott and Mrs. Marilyn Kelley.

MP Play Held

The monthly master point duplicate bridge play was held Sunday by the Roseburg Unit of the American Contract Bridge League at the Umpqua Hotel.

Mrs. L. E. McClintock and Mrs. J. M. Bevans were first; Mrs. Walter Fisher and Mrs. Russell Diehl, second; Alex Kennedy and Mrs. Nodel, third; and W. E. Herriott and Doyle Presnall, fourth.

Afternoon Party Held At Azalea

Mrs. Ray Buchanan of Azalea was honored at a pink and blue shower Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harrison Smith of Azalea.

Hostesses, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Gerald Clark, served cake and other refreshments.

The cake was iced in white and decorated with a dainty white baby bootie trimmed in blue and surrounded with pink roses.

Those unable to be present, who sent gifts, included Mrs. Cliff Morris, Mrs. Marion Chitwood and Mrs. Henry Schafer.
