Carol Fredlund Now Mrs. Gilbert

Members of the immediate families of Carol Mae Fredlund and Danny Loren Gilbert were present for the couple's wedding which took place March 16 at the Faith Lutheran Church. Pastor Allen G. Ingebritson officiated at the wedding ceremony at 2 p.m.

Both the bride and bridegroom are from Roseburg. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Fredlund. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gilbert.

Pink carnations and white stock were used to decorate the church. Mrs. Arlo Jacklin, organist, played the traditional wedding march.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She was charming in white lace over tulle, with matching jacket accented with pearl buttons. Her bouquet was of white roses.

Attending the bride was Linda Williams, wearing a light pink satin frock with matching hat. Her bouquet was of pink roses and carnations.

Paul Thomas acted as best man for the bridegroom.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

For the honeymoon, to Portland, the bride changed to a pink and white cotton dress and white accessories. The young people are now at home at 423 SE Kane, Apt. 2, Roseburg.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Roseburg High School. Mrs. Gilbert is employed as a bookkeeper for Arthur W. Lamka and Robert D. Trued, public accountants. Her husband works for Roseburg Lumber Co.

Fashion Show Luncheon Held

Roseburg's most beautiful party of the week was enjoyed Tuesday when the women of St. George's Episcopal Church entertained with their annual Easter bridge-luncheon at 12 o'clock at the parish hall.

Mrs. Robert Caley, president, very graciously welcomed the members and guests. Fifty tables were reserved for the affair. The Easter motif was beautifully carried out in the attractively appointed serving tables. Potted hydrangeas and plants formed the room decorations.

The latest spring fashions were enjoyed in a delightfully new type of style show presentation. No commentator was used for the show. April in Paris was the theme of the style show. Guests received printed information giving the names of the models and a description of fashions modeled. Each model carried a number corresponding with the number on the printed sheets making identification easy for the guests. During the luncheon and style show Mrs. Archie Amodeo played background organ music.

Presenting the style show were Linda Hartman, Pam Alexander, Jeanne Roles, Betty Grubbe, Joan and Clair Knudson, LaVonne Page, Vivian Kershner, Sue Steele and Arlene Myers.

A delightful highlight of the entertainment was the modeling of Easter hats by members of St. George's Church with Mrs. Caley modeling the Easter hat worn by Mrs. Mark O. Hatfield, wife of Oregon's Governor.

The beautifully decorated cakes made by Mrs. Marshall Haughey were awarded as door prizes and were won by Mrs. Russell Diehl Jr. and Mrs. Ray Puckett.

Winners in the afternoon's contract bridge play were Mrs. Ralph DeMoisy, first; Mrs. Charles Bailey, second; and Mrs. Robert Harris, third. Mrs. Ted Small won the pincheon prize.

The annual apron sale will be held by the Women of St. George's Episcopal Church May 8 at 12 noon luncheon at the parish hall. Mrs. John William Unruh will be the guest speaker and will demonstrate hat-making, which is her hobby. The meeting will be of unusual interest and all members are requested to be present.

Families At Lookingglass Have Easter Celebrations

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Meyer were hosts for a delightful Easter dinner in their home in Lookingglass Valley. Enjoying the occasion were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Meyer Jr. and children, Janice, Dianne and Don; and their sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schulze and daughter, Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ellenwood, Dale, Sharon, Larry and Julie; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Astor, Roger, Ethel, Ruth, Debra, Robin, Scott and Cindy; Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Astor, Tina, Kim and Jody; and Skip Rodgers and Charlie Martin.

son and daughter, Sherri, and son, Tommy.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buell served a lovely turkey dinner to their family on Easter Sunday. Covers were placed for the latter's mother, Mrs. Louella Marie of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buell, Bruce, Mollie and Nancy; Lyle Buell of Sutherland; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gohl and son, Richie; Empire, Chuck Tate; Mrs. Maxine Rodley of Roseburg; and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Buell, and children, Linda, Susie, Lori and Frankie.

Bridge Club Is Entertained

Mrs. Bea Smith was a most gracious hostess Wednesday, when she entertained her bridge club at a lovely 1 o'clock dessert-luncheon at her attractive home on SE Azalea Drive. Spring flowers formed the decorations for the occasion.

Covers were placed for Mrs. T. C. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Don H. Sanders, guests, and Mrs. Thomas Garrison, Mrs. Randolph Slomcum, Mrs. Emil Ramberg, Mrs. W. F. Forrest, Mrs. Ralph Ohman, Mrs. Dale Roles and the hostess, Mrs. Smith.

High score for the afternoon's contract bridge play was won by Mrs. Fitzgerald with Mrs. Roles winning second and Mrs. Sanders third.

Mrs. G. Smith Entertains Club

Mrs. Gordon Smith entertained her bridge club at the Episcopal annual Easter luncheon and card party Tuesday at the parish hall. Covers were placed for Mrs. Bruce Hetrick and Mrs. Dudley Walton, guests, and Mrs. James H. Harris, Mrs. James Richmond, Mrs. Leeland K. Wimberly, Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mrs. H. F. LeBeau and the hostess, Mrs. Smith.

Following the luncheon the group played bridge at the beautiful home of the hostess in Laurelvood. High scores for the bridge play were won by Mrs. Hetrick and Mrs. Harris.

Glendale Woman Party Hostess

Mrs. Harley White of Glendale was honored at a birthday party given in the White home by her neighbor, Mrs. Susan Pete. After the guest of honor had opened her lovely birthday gifts, refreshments were served. The cake had been baked and decorated by Mrs. Pete's daughter, Mrs. Bill Gibson.

Those present included Mrs. Mac Napier, Mrs. Maurice McDowell, Mrs. Harold Chrysler, Mrs. Ed Johnson, Mrs. Susan Pete and the hostess.

Sensitive Artists

DERBY, England (UPI)—David Stocker and Gerry Smith, a pair of 4-year-old modern artists, have received apologies from the adults who hung two of their paintings upside down in a current exhibition.

Stocker painted a railway engine and Smith a little girl. The works however, were placed upside down and named a "petrol pump" and a "flower pot."

ENGAGEMENT TOLD—Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Rockwell, Roseburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Faustina (Frost), to Bruce Martin Lofton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos M. Lofton of Huntington, Miss. Rockwell attended Huntington High School and is currently employed by Union Pacific Railroad. The wedding has been set for June 29 in Roseburg.

Unit Winners

Winners Monday evening at the Myrtle Creek Duplicate Unit play were Mrs. E. J. Wilson and Mrs. R. N. Stevens, first; Mrs. H. N. Butler and Mrs. L. E. McClintock, second; Mrs. R. A. Jones and Mrs. J. Coyle, third, and Mrs. W. K. Johnson and John Markham, fourth.

Formal Reception Saturday Honors Grand OES Officers

The Glendale Chapter of the OES held a combined Friendship Night and Formal Reception at the Masonic Temple in Glendale Saturday evening. The reception honored two officers of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, Mrs. Robert Thompson of Glendale, a member of the Home Endowment Committee; and Mrs. Bill La Prath of Vancouver, formerly of Glendale, representative of Louisiana in Oregon.

Mrs. Chiavara, worthy matron, read a welcome poem. The invocation was given by Maurice Boughner of Reams Chapter No. 66, Medford, a past grand patron.

A number of Grand Chapter of Oregon officers were escorted, officially honored and welcomed. Included were Miss Carlotta K. Wiseman of Josephine Chapter No. 28, past grand matron; Maurice Boughner; Mrs. Frances Kalina, Prosperity Chapter No. 160, Grand Adah; Elmer Love, Mistletoe Chapter No. 114, Estari Committee; Benny Knyptara, Elktion Chapter No. 143, Endowment Committee; Mrs. Joyce Clements, Martha Chapter No. 48, Estari Committee; Mrs. Leona White, Selwood Chapter No. 82, chairman of the Endowment Committee; Mrs. Kathryn Boardman, Pay of Representatives Committee, Oakland Chapter No. 91; and Mrs. Fanny Snook, Nevada Chapter No. 83, Estari Committee.

Like honors were paid to Mrs. Edna Harding, representative of Ohio in Washington. The following worthy matrons and worthy patrons were officially honored and seated in the East: David H. (Hap) Lloyd and Mrs. Marie Breckinridge of Western Star Chapter of Kerby; Donald Shores and Mrs. Delaine Shores, Adoral Chapter, Jacksonville; Richard Wiley and Mrs. Marilyn Wiley, Elktion Chapter; Wellington De La Vergne and Mrs. Ella De La Vergne, North Star Chapter; Dr. George Findley and Mrs. Eva Findley, Clapha Chapter; Ashland; Russell Fair and Mrs. Irma Goff, Nevada Chapter, Central Point; Arthur Harper and Miss Joan Harper, Roseburg Chapter; Leo Sparks, Oakland Chapter; Mrs. Minnie Adaitt, Mistletoe Chapter; Riddle; Mrs. Lois Rookard, Martha Chapter, Redwood; Mrs. Nellie Dyke, Reams Chapter, Medford; and William Reese, Josephine Chapter, Grants Pass.

After the meeting was adjourned, refreshments were served in the temple dining room. The main room and the dining room were beautifully decorated with yellow daffodils, augmenting the Hawaiian decor being used throughout the year.

Committees who had charge of the arrangements for the evening included the following: Decorations, Howard Edson; music, Mrs. Joe Payne; flower cases in the dining room, Mrs. Ed Harris and Mrs. Mary Harris; refreshments, Mrs. John Sether.

Mrs. Stierwalt Is 97 April 7

Mrs. C. W. Stierwalt (Lucy), who has made her home at Riversdale Sanitarium for several years, was honored "in absentia" during the Sabbath School service at the Adventist Church as the oldest member of the local Sabbath School and church. She celebrated her 97th birthday April 7. Members were urged to give her a "card shower" in lieu of much visiting for she has not been quite so well of late. Many responded to provide a bit of sunshine.

Mrs. Stierwalt was born in Hutchinson, Minn., in 1866. She grew to womanhood and was married (1893) in the same community. Twenty years later the family moved to Roseburg. There are two children, Earl of Olympia, Wash., and Mable (Mrs. Arthur Warren) of Eugene. The Stierwalts became members of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church early in life. Both held a number of church and Sabbath School offices. Mrs. Stierwalt died in 1943. Since that time Mrs. Stierwalt has made her home with Mrs. A. S. Wallace on West Harrison Street until a few years ago when it became advisable for her to enter a nursing home and she went to Riversdale.

A number of years ago Mrs. Stierwalt ("Grandma Stierwalt") as she is lovingly called by those who know her best) turned to making hand-woven rugs on the loom made for her by her brother many years ago. These she has used for fundraising efforts to aid the missions program of her beloved church. By this means she was able to contribute approximately $200 toward the building of the new Adventist church on Garden Valley Boulevard. Recently she has been working toward the new elementary school building on NW Calkins Road. The chairman of the finance committee recently presented a $10 gift she had just made and called upon all who could to make an extra $10 gift and thus to make the "widow's mite" grow to a sizeable sum. A number responded. Yes, although fingers are not so nimble as of yore, still this 97 years young woman does make rugs to sell for missions. And although eyes are not quite so keen as of yesteryear she still reads as of her favorite book is the Word of God—the Bible.
