

LOOKING FROM THE ENTRANCE through the slatted grill-work, the tall cross in front of the church facing the highway may be seen. The church has been built in the "A" frame style with the roof reaching to the ground. Other facilities included in its building are a pastor's study, kitchen, storage room and lavatories.

Dedication Slated Sunday For New Tri-City Church

Another new church will be dedicated Sunday.

It is St. Matthew's Lutheran Church at Tri-City. The dedication ceremony will take place at 3 p.m., and the public is invited for the event.

Guest speaker will be the Rev. E. W. Hinrichs, Portland, executive secretary of Northwest District of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod.

One of the most striking things about the new church for the first-time visitor is the tall, stark cross which seems to hang from space in front of the church.

But it is only one of the many notable features of the building, the first real home of the Tri-City Lutherans who began meetings late in 1949, with the Rev. Walter Sylvester, former minister of St. Paul's in Roseburg, as pastor.

Cubs Get Awards At Dillard Meet

Presentation of awards was a feature of the recent pack meeting of Winston Dillard Cub Scout Pack 138 held at the Dillard School. Den 4 served as color guard for the event with Den Mother Mrs. Norman Lee directing.

Royce Bates, cubmaster, made the introductions and Mrs. Jack Nelson served as song leader. Awards were announced by Leland Stig.

It wasn't until June 24, 1962, that ground-breaking ceremonies took place. Construction began in July, with Norman Olson of Canyonville as contractor. The construction was made possible through a loan from the district Church Extension Fund.

St. Matthew's new structure contains a nave, pastor's study, fellowship hall and Sunday School space, as well as a kitchen, storage room and lavatories.

This Sunday, no Sunday school or morning worship will be held, but regular services at 11:15 and Sunday school services at 10 will be held on subsequent Sundays. Open house will follow the dedication.

Sentenced To 30 Days

Marvel Elwill Blanton, 49, of Monroe, has been sentenced to serve 30 days in the Douglas County jail and to pay a fine of $100 and $5 court costs on a plea of guilty to drunken driving in District Court Thursday. He was arrested by state police.

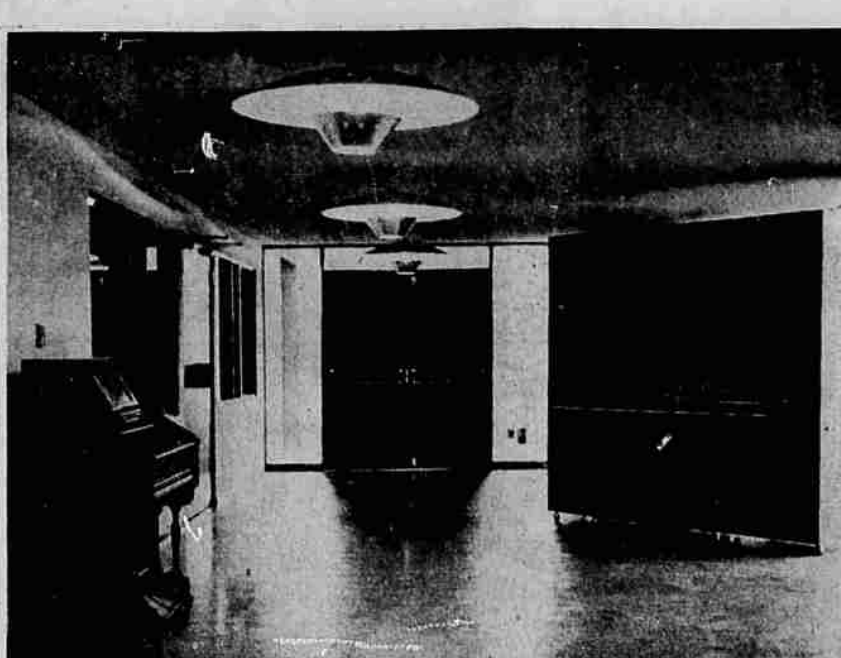

ANNOUNCING THE RETURN OF MERLE SUITER To The STUDIO OF HAIR DESIGN

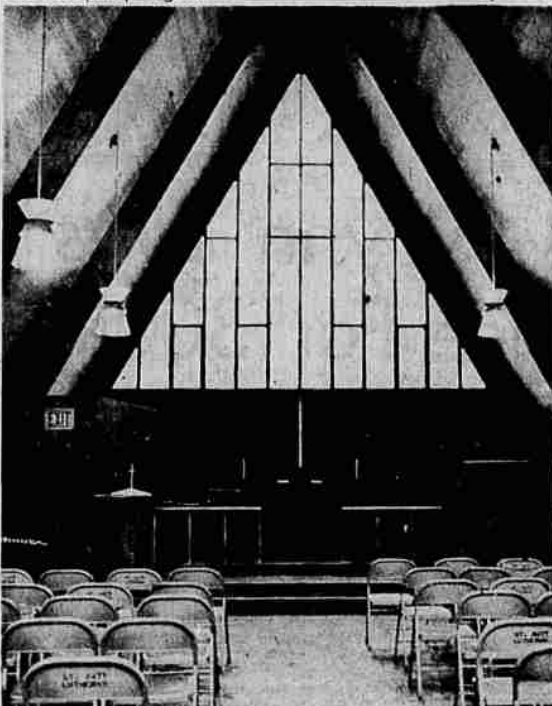

In response to many requests, we are happy to announce that Merle Suiter is once again a member of our staff. Merle, an award-winning hair stylist, is now available for appointments.

Also available for appointments: Mr. Dale Christensen, Mr. Gerald Davenport, Mr. Dennis Knight

FELLOWSHIP HALL of the new Tri-City St. Matthew Lutheran Church, as shown here, encompasses a large portion of the building. Entrance to the church and the nave is made through doors at the side of the building. Other features of the new church are mobile partitions for sectioning off class rooms (shown at the right) and an old-fashioned foot-pump organ.

NAVE PART of Tri-City's newest church, the St. Matthew Lutheran, is done up in wood paneling with open beam work. It also features stained glass windows at both ends of the building. Seating capacity is 148. (News-Review Photos by Andy Fautheree).

Sunday Ceremonies To Dedicate New Lookingglass Grange Hall

The new home of the Lookingglass Grange No. 927 will be officially dedicated at 2 o'clock this Sunday afternoon.

Allen P. Wheeler of Portland, state Grange Master, will officiate. Other state officers are expected to be in attendance and participate in the service.

Local officers and Grangers from this vicinity will also be present. Musical numbers will be furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Don Morberg and Mrs. Joe Brumback. An invitation is extended to the public to be present for the dedication and the open house that will be held during the afternoon, according to Hazel Marsh, Lookingglass correspondent.

Historically, the Lookingglass Grange is a unique tribute to the enthusiastic dedication and co-operation of a group of folk bent on reviving the spirit of the Grange and replacing the time-worn building used since 1910 when the local group organized as Rescue Grange No. 420. The interest of the first organizers waxed and waned from time to time and in 1944 they disbanded. Mrs. Marsh reports the active members at that time joined the Melrose Grange.

In April, 1949, new interest was aroused and the group reorganized under a new name, declaring that "Rescue Grange had been 'rescued' too many times."

On April 20, 1949, 27 charter members were given the first de-

First Asian Flu Case Is Reported

PORTLAND, (UPI) — Oregon's first known case of Asian flu since an outbreak struck the Atlantic Coast last December was reported Thursday.

The State Board of Health said tests showed a woman in Hood River had the disease. There are six to eight other persons in Hood River and White Salmon, Wash., with similar symptoms, the board said.

Dr. Grant Skinner, state epidemiologist, said the woman had "Pretty well" recovered from the disease.

There have been only a few confirmed cases of Asian flu on the West Coast since the outbreak in the east, Dr. Skinner said.

Saturday Legislative Session Seems Certain

SALEM, (UPI) — A session of the House of representatives this Saturday seemed a virtual certainty, House Speaker Clarence Barton said recently.

In addition to the income and cigarette tax bills, the Friday calendar already includes more than a dozen other bills, Barton explained, and more measures were expected to come out of committee today.

Barton anticipates lengthy discussions on both tax measures, which would necessitate a Saturday session to keep the calendar up to date.

Brother And Sister United During Visit In Days Creek

By MRS. DURNIN SWINGLEY

Two former Days Creek residents, a brother and sister, were Easter weekend guests of their stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. Lewis Weaver. Mrs. Clarence DeVoe arrived Saturday morning from Medford and accompanied the Weavers to Roseburg to meet her brother, Carl Totten of Los Angeles, when he came in by plane from Portland.

Totten returned Sunday to Portland to complete his business there before returning south. He is head of public relations for Shell Oil Co. in the western states, including Alaska. Totten and Mrs. DeVoe, who attended upper grades and high school at Days Creek, rarely have the opportunity for a visit when his work brings him into Oregon as she is employed fulltime at Medford.

Another guest at the T. L. Weaver home was Weaver's youngest nephew, Clarence Stone of Seattle, who stopped by for a several-hours' visit on his return from a business sales manager for Forest Interiors Corp. of Seattle. He plans a trip to the New England area "when the weather is better." Stone told the Weavers his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Otto Stone, have returned to Seattle from a month's trip to Hawaii. The Stones are former residents of Canyonville, where he taught school for a time. Mrs. Stone (Kate Weaver) spent her girlhood there, coming west with her area were Mrs. R. L. Frame of Sunnyvale, Calif., and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Clark (Jerrie Frame), also of the Oakland area. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Frame moved to California early last summer after selling their farm, known as the John Ferguson place, upriver from Days Creek to Earl Soudan. Of interest to local high school students is the fact that Mrs. Clark will be graduating from high school in California this spring. She was an honor student as well as being in band and other activities while in Days Creek High School until the end of spring semester last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Rogers of Oakridge were visitors last week with the latter's brother, Glenn Racher, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Richardson.

Marilyn Martin and Kay Prickett drove over from Coos Bay where both are employed to spend the weekend with the former's parents and family, the Robert Martins.

Mrs. William D. Ward has been confined to her home with pneumonia for the past several days. Mrs. Ward is secretary at the school office.
