Miss Ponsonby Becomes Bride

Miss Patricia Ponsonby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ponsonby of Azalea, and Jerry Winchester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Winchester of El Monte, Calif., were married in a ceremony which took place at the Catholic Church in El Monte.

The couple was attended by the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Monteleone of Rosemead, Calif. The bride was given in marriage by Orlo Worley of Azalea, who took the place of her father, who was unable to be present.

The bride wore a wedding gown which has become traditional in her family, since it was worn by each of her married sisters, Mrs. Hal Clark of Azalea and Mrs. Jim Montgomery of Phoenix, Ariz. It was a white brocade gown styled with a scalloped neckline which was outlined in iridescent sequins and pearls, a fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and a full skirt ending in a train. Her fingertip veil was caught by a circlet which was accented with pearl sequins. She carried a bouquet of white carnations clustered around a white orchid.

CWC To Hold Smorgasbord At Umpqua Hotel May 3rd

The Christian Women's Club will have a Swedish smorgasbord Friday, May 3 at 7 p.m. in the Gold Room of the Umpqua Hotel. All women in the community are invited. Husbands are also welcome.

An unusual program has been planned with the Swedish theme in mind. There will be eight members from the Junction City Swedish Festival to perform and give some Swedish interpretations and sing folk songs.

Speaker for the evening will be Paul Hinkson from the University of Oregon. He was graduated recently from the university where he was a member of Delta Upsilon Fraternity and president of the student body. He is now Director of Campus Crusade.

Reservations for the dinner must be made in advance and should be in by tonight. They can be made by calling Eda Wilson OR 3-5663, or Shirley Bryden, OR 2-1110.

At the April luncheon meeting of the club, "April in Paris" was the theme.

Miss Helen Casey, in her charming and humorous manner, narrated for the style show which showed fashions of yesterday. Members of the executive board had styled the clothes.

The a cappella choir from Roseburg High School, under the direction of Robert Robins, sang several songs before the meeting opened.

Rose Marie Lorenzena of the University of Oregon was the special speaker. Miss Lorenzena, born and reared in the Philippine Islands, came to the state of Colorado when a young girl to attend college. She is now active in Campus Crusade at U of O and is in great demand as a speaker.
