Van Cliburn Concert Enjoyed

Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who will be 84 in July and who has been a teacher of piano for 57 years, had the thrill and enjoyment Monday evening of accompanying some of her piano students and their parents to Portland to attend the Van Cliburn piano concert. Mrs. Heinline reports she is especially appreciative of the fact so many of the parents were interested sufficiently to take the time to travel to Portland for this event.

Mrs. Heinline had heard the famed Van Cliburn play with an orchestra accompaniment two years ago, but this was her first time to hear him play the entire evening's concert alone. Some 4,000 music lovers were on hand for the concert and Mrs. Heinline reports she did not miss a thing as she had a front row seat and the other Roseburg residents were all "down front" for the occasion also.

Besides Mrs. Heinline those enjoying the concert were Mr. and Mrs. Earl T. Cone Jr. and daughters, Meredith and Shelley; Mrs. John Gardner and Wendy; Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Croucher and Frances; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Walpole and daughter, Robin; Mrs. W. D. Holst and Priscilla; Alanna Flood, Shirley Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hahn and son, Ricky.

Mrs. Heinline, who conducted a large music school here for many years, prior to moving to Cheyenne, Wyo., where she also conducted a similar school, has resumed her teaching since returning to Roseburg. She has studied under some of the most noted teachers in this country, as well as taking summer study sessions in England and other European countries. She has done much to promote good music in Roseburg and has been responsible for bringing numerous artists here in concert.
