Society

Firebelles Name Club Officers

Officers who will serve for the coming year were elected at the recent meeting of the Firebelles held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Nelson.

Mrs. LeRoy Seibold presided at the meeting, 14 members answering the roll call. The ceremony of opening the Birthday Box, an annual event, took place. Mrs. George Thompson received the door prize.

During the social hour which followed the meeting, members enjoyed viewing paintings done by Mrs. Nelson. Mrs. Rose Noyer assisted the hostess when refreshments were served.

The May meeting will be a white elephant sale. The place will be announced at a later date.

Birthday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gladwill were weekend guests at the home of Mrs. Gladwill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coats, in Tenmile. They were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Keith Christopherson and daughters, Lori and Gayle, of Roseburg to celebrate the birthdays of Gayle, Lori and Walter Coats.

Narcissus and tulips decorated the table which was centered by a decorated birthday cake with candles.

JERI LYNN JOHNSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo "Tex" Johnson, celebrated her second birthday at a family dinner party given by her parents. Those joining Jeri Lynn and her parents in the festivities were Miss Janice Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sebastian. (Picture by Warren Studio, Sutherlin).

FL Club Of Glendale Plans IOOF Home Contributions

The FL Club of the Glendale Rebekah Lodge met at the IOOF Hall on Wednesday evening. The money to be donated by clubs in the state will be used to purchase needed items for the IOOF Home in Portland.

A request by the TV Booster's Club was presented, asking that the club take on the project of soliciting money for the operation of the TV booster unit when the funds become low enough to require donations again. Members voted to accept the responsibility for doing the job.

Plans were made for holding a car wash May 10 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. to earn money for the club's annual project of sending delegates to Girl's and Boy's State during the early summer.

It was also decided that a campaign would be started by the club for repainting the inside of the IOOF Hall.

After the meeting, a spelling bee was held, with the top prize going to Mrs. Don Blakely.

The hostess gift was won by Mrs. Claude Humphreys.

Sutherlin Hosts Spring Conclave

The Sutherlin Business and Professional Women's club hosted the Cascade District spring conference recently at the Community Building in Sutherlin.

The theme, "Quest for the Best," was carried out in the decorations, which were made by the Yoncalla Club, and also in the program for the evening.

About 80 members attended the meeting which followed a dinner served by the host Sutherlin club. Thirteen clubs were represented.

Musical entertainment was furnished by three girls from the Sutherlin High School.

To Hold Meeting

The Women of St. George's Episcopal Church will meet for communion Wednesday, May 8, at 10:30 a.m. at the church followed by the business meeting with installation of new officers. A 12 noon luncheon will be served and members will hold their annual apron modeling show, at which time they will model aprons they have made to be sold at the bazaar next fall. A highlight of the day will be Mrs. John W. Unruh demonstrating the making of a hat and will show several hats she has made. Making hats is a hobby of Mrs. Unruh's. All members are urged to be present.

Breakfast Given

Miss Helen Casey, Miss Naomi Scott and Mrs. John Young entertained at a delightful 10 a.m. brunch Tuesday morning at the former's lovely home on SE Blakeley Ave. in honor of Mrs. Chester Morgan, Mrs. Paul H. Helweg, Mrs. Maurice J. Newland and Mrs. L. J. Fullerton. Mrs. Paul Jenkins was also a guest. The four guests of honor are leaving the latter part of May with Mr. Morgan, Mr. Newland and Mr. Fullerton for a five weeks vacation trip to Europe. The flower arrangements consisted of lilies-of-the-valley and colorful pansies.
