Plans for a school picnic were begun at the recent meeting of the Tenmile PTA. The picnic will be held May 31 with Mrs. Lloyd Thomas as chairman. Volunteers to help with arrangements are needed, it was announced, and those willing to help are asked to contact the chairman.

Budget Outlined

Supt. George Corwin of the Dilard-Winston district was guest speaker at the meeting and outlined details of the proposed school budget. He cited the need for an additional bus, more teachers and funds for building maintenance. Also on the program was a group from Mrs. Thelma Leigh's first grade presenting a square dance, and a demonstration on physical fitness.

Mrs. Barbara Nelson was installing officer for ceremonies inductive The little Rustlers 4-H livestock in the model of the proposed school of the pr
