

MRS. LE ROY GORTON, above right, of Roseburg is shown in her garden with her aunt, Mrs. Marie Guyot, who is spending several months visiting here from Liege, Belgium. Mrs. Guyot enjoyed touring South America before coming to this country. Mrs. Gorton is a native of Belgium also. (News-Review Photo).

BETROTHAL TOLD—Mr. and Mrs. Delbert C. Delaney of Seattle announce the engagement of their daughter, Jerri D. to Gerald W. Logue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Logue of Salem. Sept. 21 is the date set for the wedding. The bride-elect was graduated last spring from Roseburg High School and is employed in Salem. Mr. Logue was graduated from North Salem High School in 1958 and is also employed in Salem.

Potluck Enjoyed

The Friendship Club of the Glendale Rebekah Lodge met recently and held a potluck luncheon at the IOOF Hall. Eleven members were present for the dinner and meeting. The next meeting will be held May 7. A potluck dinner will be served, and members may invite guests.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA of Roseburg High School entertained their fathers and guests at the annual "Daddy Date Night" party at Roseburg High School Monday.

Dinner Enjoyed

Future Homemakers of America entertained their fathers and guests at their annual Daddy Date Night party at Roseburg High School Monday. An "Outer Space" theme was used throughout the party in decoration and program. Following a potluck dinner, the group heard a humorous reading by Elina Batton and then played group games. Committee chairmen for the party were: decoration and general chairman, Maria Burt; Heather McTaggart, cleanup; Joan Nordling, food; Carolyn Wheeler, entertainment. Those enjoying the party were: Ralph Teters, principal of the high school; Merritt Burt and Maria, A. H. Edwards and Jerri, C. H. Nordling and Joan, E. M. Vasterling and Dawne, John Reese and

Luncheon Meeting Enjoyed By Episcopal Church Women

The women of the Episcopal Southern Deanery met Monday at the Riddle Church of the Ascension with some 80 members present. Father Robert Bunnage, assisted by Father William Baker of Roseburg, conducted a Holy Communion service at 10:30 a.m., with Father Alfred Tyson, vicar of St. George's at Roseburg, playing the organ.

At the business meeting which followed, Mrs. Ed Arnold was elected president, Mrs. Morris Blakely, vice president, and Mrs. Don Woods, secretary - treasurer. All are members of St. Luke's Church, Grants Pass. New officers were installed by Bishop Gilsan of Taiwan.

The parish hall was beautifully decorated with cherry blossoms for the luncheon which followed. Place favors of tiny May baskets filled with cherry blossoms had been made by Mrs. Austin Wilson. Bishop Gilsan addressed the group at luncheon, the audience enjoying his vivid word picture of his work and the needs of that area.

Dean R.G.V. Bolster, vicar of St. Mark's, Medford, presided at the luncheon meeting, introducing members of the clergy present, among them Archdeacon Hal Gross of Oregon City and Father Loren Bush of Corvallis, a former vicar of Ascension and St. Anne's Church in Myrtle Creek.

Delta Kappa Gamma Enjoys Delightful Coffee Meet

The April meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma was a coffee held in the Fireside Room of Roseburg High School. It was presided over by the vice president, Catherine Mathews, in the absence of the president, Luella Whitehead.

The room was tastefully decorated with red roses. Refreshments were served by the social committee, Violet Wilshire, Pauline Brown, Elizabeth Randall, Gladys Williams and Irene McLaughlin.

The program, "Ventures in Education," was given by Margaret McGee and Mabel Williams. They told of many new techniques of teaching and the many things one can look forward to in the future. Many of these techniques and changes are already in use in the east, especially in the large cities. Margaret Adair read the slate of nominees for state officers. Gladys Monger of Roseburg is nominee for second vice president.

Esther Brown announced that Miss Moira Anne Nunnally of Reedport had been chosen as recipient of the Ruth Roberts Scholarship. She plans to attend the University of Oregon and major in languages.

IT PAYS TO PATRONIZE
NEWS-REVIEW
ADVERTISERS

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER Society BEVERLY BROOKE

6 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. —Tues., May 7, 1963

"Gram" Dillard Is 91 Thursday

Mrs. S. L. "Gram" Dillard, one of Roseburg's most loved residents, received the best wishes of her many friends at a party held at Mercy Hospital Nursing Unit lounge Thursday on the occasion of her 91st birthday.

In an attractive blue afternoon dress and wearing one of the corsages she received as a birthday gift, Mrs. Dillard enjoyed visiting with relatives and friends during the social hours of the party given in her honor.

A beautifully decorated birthday cake was cut and served with other refreshments. Mrs. John Long-fellow Jr., president of Mercy Hospital Auxiliary, was in charge of the serving. Beautiful bouquets of carnations formed the decorations (also given to the guest of honor for her birthday). Numerous cards and gifts were given to Mrs. Dillard.

Mrs. Dillard was born Mary Elizabeth Sebring to Francis M. and Gertrude Sebring, May 2, 1872, in Buena Vista, Ore. She was married in 1889 to Lee Dillard, who was a pharmacist in Roseburg until his death. They had four children: Mrs. Joseph (Gertrude) Clougherty of Beaumont, Calif., who is now on vacation in Europe with her husband; Mrs. Alta Skidmore of Phoenix, Ariz., and Fred and J. F. Dillard of Roseburg. She has five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. She is a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Roseburg.

Only because of her failing eyesight has Mrs. Dillard become incapacitated. Until in her eighties, she was able to continue working in her beautiful flower garden and maintaining her own home. She recognizes friends by their voices and enjoys talking over "old times" and "present times" with them. Her many friends here wish her continued good health and many more "Happy Birthdays."

Mrs. Paul Dillon delighted the guests by playing favorite violin selections for the guest of honor during the social hour.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. William H. Terry of Oakland announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Joyce, to Richard J. Hallam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hallam of Yoncalla. The bride-to-be is a senior at Oakland High School. Her fiancé was graduated from Oakland in 1961 and is now employed by the U. S. Forest Service Station at Toketee Ranger Station. A July wedding is planned. (Picture by Warren Studio, Sutherlin).

SOC President Banquet Speaker

Southern Oregon College President Dr. Elmo Stevenson will be the featured speaker at the first annual SOC alumni banquet scheduled for 6:30 p.m. (DST) May 11 at the Umpqua Hotel in Roseburg.

The banquet, buffet style, is for all SOC alumni and their husbands or wives. Master of ceremonies will be Dale Truax. Entertainment will be furnished by The Lettermen, a vocal music group, and a group of Hawaiian dancers. A short business meeting is scheduled.

Reservations may be made by calling chairman John Foust, OR 2-4277; Harold Winfield, OR 2-1014; Bob Colley, OR 2-1579; or Chuck Bailey, OR 3-6551.

NINETY-ONE YEARS OLD is Mrs. S. L. (Mary Elizabeth) Dillard, pictured above on her birthday anniversary Thursday at Mercy Hospital Nursing Home lounge with her son, J. F. Dillard of this city. On hand to wish Happy Birthday to "Gram" Dillard were many of her former neighbors and friends. The beautifully decorated birthday cake was given to her by her son. (News-Review Photo).

New Lookingglass Grange Has Dedicatory Ceremony

The newly completed Lookingglass Grange Hall was dedicated in an impressive ceremony Sunday afternoon, April 21.

A number of state officials were in attendance and participated in the program. State Master Allen P. Wheeler of Portland gave the formal speech of dedication. He said he was reminded of the ancient Israelites of whom it was said in the rebuilding of their wall around Jerusalem that "The people had a mind to work." This, he said, applied to the Lookingglass Grangers in their rebuilding of the splendid hall.

Other state officers in attendance were: State Deputy Ted Simms and Mrs. Simms; National Youth Committee woman, Mrs. Allen P. Wheeler, Flora, Alta Faye Rogers; chaplain, Florence Hammer, home economics chairman, Mrs. Leona Kienz, Dist. No. 2 home ec chairman, Mrs. McPherson; deputy Linn County, Chet Sicksels; deputy Lane County, Ralph Rogers; and deputy Douglas County, Eugene Atwood, and Mrs. Atwood.

The dedicatory program had been arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Don Morberg and Mrs. Joe Brumback of the South Deer Creek Grange. The local program, arranged by Mrs. Charles Schulze, included two cornet numbers by Dale Schulze and a solo by Mrs. Ruby Ann Taylor, both accompanied by Mrs. Robert Schulze who also served as pianist for the dedicatory program.

Master Tom Findlay of the local grange introduced the guests, each of whom responded with congratulations to the grangers for their accomplishments.

Starting with 27 charter members when the grange was reorganized in April, 1949, the membership now stands at 45. Approximately 200 attended the dedication on Sunday.

The new hall is beautifully finished in wood paneling with matching podia used in the regular programs. It is complete with stage, lounge, rest rooms and a beautifully appointed kitchen.

A large cake handsomely decorated in the grange colors, blue and gold, centered the attractively appointed refreshment table. Mrs. William Niebaum and Mrs. Neal Meyer served the cake. Mrs. Elmer Paulson poured, and punch was served by Mrs. Thelma Provost and Mrs. Clare Meredith.

Among the young ladies participating in the dedicatory ceremony were Miss Karen Boling, Bible bearer; Miss Paula Meredith, Faith; Miss Georgia Schulze, Hope; and Miss Glenda Boling, charity, appearing in a tableau. The girls all wore white dresses.

Kevin Sullivan Feted At Party

Kevin Roy Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roy Sullivan, celebrated his first birthday April 5. An evening party was given for him by his parents at their home on NE Jackson.

A blue and white color theme was carried out in the crepe paper decorations and table setting. Colored balloons decorated the living-dining room.

After Kevin opened his presents, refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. V. Sullivan, paternal grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Bradley and Marilyn, Sherry and Mike; and Mr. and Mrs. Efton Sullivan and Cary and Craig.

Sending gifts were Roy F. Olinger, maternal grandfather; Mrs. Lewis Barclay, great-grandmother; and Debbie, Laura and Michelle Olinger.

Mrs. Hasbargen Entertains Class

St. Paul's Lutheran Mid-Week Bible Class was held at the home of Mrs. Mayme Hasbargen. The session was opened by a prayer by Pastor Hinrichs and hymn singing.

A short report on the Woman's Missionary League Rally was given. Those attending the rally were Mayme Hasbargen, Grace Teater, Lilly Hasbargen, Karla Bartels, Alice Buettner and Carol Wulff.

Mrs. Hasbargen served lovely refreshments to Annie Vogt, Rose Grandall, Pearl Kaine, Vera Wilson, Anna Elow, Alice Buettner, Margaret Stefferud, Mrs. Smith, Pastor and Mrs. Hinrichs, Mrs. Larry Cox and Doreen and Lori Ann Hinrichs.

Be a
Happy Bride
Call...
CHRIS
The Recommended
PHOTOGRAPHER
OR 2-3212

PENNEY'S
ALWAYS FIRST QUALITY

Gaymode[®]

SEAMLESS DRESS SHEERS

The "name" in nylons she knows and loves best! Sturdy 400- and 474-needle double-loop knit with a sheer so sheer look—a Gaymode exclusive at this low price! Costume cued colors and proportioned sizes too — from 9 to 12, including extra-longs!

3 PAIRS 285

M
O
T
H
E
R
S
D
A
Y
M
A
Y
12