Giants Regain NL Lead With Win Over Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants drew three of a kind in the early going off veteran Lew Burdette Tuesday night to defeat Milwaukee, 5-2, while the Braves only held a strong pair of aces.

The victory moved the Giants back into undisputed first place in the National League, a full game ahead of both Pittsburgh and St. Louis.

The three of a kind were home runs by Felipe Alou, Ed Bailey and Jose Pagan. Milwaukee's pair of aces were Hank Aaron, the league's leading home run hitter, and a crafty relief pitcher named Hank Fischer.

Manager Alvin Dark's sluggers gave pitcher Juan Marichal a soft cushion to work on as he posted his fourth victory of the year. Alou homered in the first inning, Bailey smashed a two-run shot in the second, and Pagan—who had scored on a single by Jim Davenport in the second — got his first roundtripper of the season in the fourth.

But then Aaron and Fischer went to work for the Braves. Aaron got Milwaukee's first hit off Marichal in the bottom of the fourth— a booming homer into the teeth of the wind. It was his 10th of the season.

Fischer took over the mound chores for Burdette in the top of the fifth and mystified the Giants completely in the four frames he was on the mound. He struck out eight San Francisco batters and didn't allow a hit. Fischer walked one man and nicked another with one of his few pitches that went astray.

Marichal's cushion got a little lumpy in the eighth and ninth innings, but he sat tight and bluffed his way through. He allowed just four hits in going the distance.

The Braves loaded the base in the eighth on two singles and a walk, and Marichal again faced Aaron at the plate. Hank hit a fly ball that scored one run, and Marichal retired the side.

Milwaukee threatened again in the ninth when a single and an error by Marichal put runners at first and second with one away. But Jim Davenport snagged a pop foul, and pinch-batter Norm Larker popped out to end the game.

The Giants,who have won seven out of eight games on their current road trip, will send Jack Fisher (2-2) to the hill tonight in the second game of the three-game series in Milwaukee. The Braves will counter with Bob Hendley (3-1).

Following the Milwaukee series, the Giants swing into Los Angeles for three games with the Dodgers before returning to Candlestick Park.

UCLA, USC Blamed For U.S. Davis Cup Chances Being Poor In 1962 Tournament

By OSCAR FRALEY
UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI) — The U.S. Lawn Tennis Association laid aside its racket and began swinging with brass knuckles today in an attempt to get Uncle Sam's derailed Davis Cup express back on the tracks.

The United States for 17 consecutive years was in the challenge round, meaning the Davis Cup finals, and eight times carried off the big chunk of silver. But the past three years we haven't made it and last year we barely got off the pad, winning only one match.

Yet with plenty of talent on hand this time around, Davis Cup captain Bob Kelleher has hauled off and blamed the selfishness of UCLA and the University of Southern California for damaging our prospects.

They, respectively, "own" Charles Pasarell and Dennis Ralston, two of our hotshots. In payment for tennis scholarships, they insist that their lads pay off on the investment by shooting for the intercollegiate crown at Princeton June 15-22.

Kelleher, a California attorney, wants them released to uncle so they can hook up with Chuck McKinley of Trinity and right from the start in our first match against Iran June 14-16 form a triumvirate which might go all the way to the challenge round.

The tall, handsome Kelleher didn't pull any punches as he surveyed the situation.

Thinks Universities Wrong

"The universities don't see eye to eye with me," he said bluntly. "I think they're wrong and I wish they could be persuaded to see it out way. There's no question but what the boys would prefer to play in the Davis Cup and the schools should recognize their obligation to the country."

Kelleher lists Uncle Sam as "having a lot of talent" in the college ranks but makes no secret of his desire to corral the "big three" and keep them together for the full shot at Australia.

"As it is," he explained, "they'll be on their own through Wimbledon, through the clay court championships at Chicago and we won't be able to form our team until two weeks prior to our match with Mexico."

The team, it might be added, which knocked us off in the second match we played last year.

Need Quality

Kelleher, running through our hopefuls, named a dozen lads but in this fashion: "Frank Froehling has a long way to go to make our team;" and "Allen Fox doesn't look like a world class player," etc.

"We can't win on quantity," he pointed out. "We have to do it with quality. You do it with one or two players. They're not doing it the organized way but making it difficult for the players and the team. Anyone who does well under these conditions would be plain lucky."

The universities can be expected to counter volubly. It is unlikely that silence will be the reward for what they probably consider to be an out and out case of hijacking. But it is rather interesting to watch the love set throwing the dinnerware.

Saccharine and "quiet please" ain't ever going to beat those Aussies.

Feature Event At Portland Sunday Will Run 150 Laps

PORTLAND (Special)—A classy field of over 20 late model stock cars hold their second assault on the Portland Speedway's tough one half mile oval Sunday, with the feature event of the carding going for 150 laps.

The large field of stock cars will include six 1963 models with the addition of Art Watts, the runner-up to the 1962 Northwest title having his new Ford fastback ready for action powered by a 427 cubic inch engine.

Other '63 models which will be competing will include the two California Chevrolets driven by Dick Getty and Eddie Pagan; a Mercury Marauder with Royce Hagerty; a Dodge driven by Bill Amick; and another Chevrolet driven by Carl Joiner.

Kuzie Kuzmanich, 1962 Northwest title holder continued his winning ways in the opener last month at the Speedway by breaking his own one lap track record in trials while driving his 1961 Pontiac and also grabbed top spot in the 100 lap inaugural feature event.

It was the 1961 and 1962 models that dominated the top positions at the inaugural with Hal Beal, '62 Dodge; Dick Bown, '62 Chevrolet; Johnny Smythe, '62 Mercury and Gordy Haines, '61 Mercury convertible grabbing the next four positions.

Time trials will get underway at 1:30 p.m. with the first of the six racing events set for 2:30 Sunday.

Carl Joiner, stock car president announced that the first eight cars in timing for the 150 lap feature will be reversed adding to more thrills for spectators.

Added to the large field of cars will be Jack McCoy of Van Nuys, Calif., who will be piloting a 1962 Chevrolet; Jim Marine, Portland, '60 Dodge Dart and Ernie Trujillo, Portland, '60 Plymouth.

Bob Gregg, the Northwest's most famous driver, will be back in action driving Dick Niles' 1962 Mercury.

Advance tickets will be on sale at the Speedway all day Saturday.

Keg Champs Tourney Set

MILWAUKIE, Oregon — Oregon's top end-of-the-season kegling event, Milwaukie Bowl's Tournament of Champions, is heading toward a record entry list of over 1800 bowlers if the first avalanche of entry blanks from state bowling teams is any indication.

The Fourth Annual Tournament of Champions zooms off the launching pad on Friday, May 10th and all first and second-place league bowling teams in the state are eligible to compete for the $5,000 plus prize fund.

Tournament co-promoters, Bud and Champ Husted of Milwaukie Bowl, report that this year's sign-up is considerably ahead of 1962 response, probably due to the approximate 10 per cent increase in league bowlers in Oregon during the 1962-63 season.

Entries in the men and women's team events, mixed teams, and men and women's singles contests close on Thursday.

Klamath Lake Mullet Run Providing Great Sport Fun

The Klamath lake mullet (Catostomus luxatrus), a particular species of sucker native to the Klamath basin, are beginning to run and providing great sport to fishermen.

And the most popular method of taking these large fish is with snagging gear, the only game fish in Oregon which may be taken legally by the snagging method.

Art Gerlach, district fishery biologist at Klamath Falls, reports that schools of mullet are concentrating around shore line springs and are beginning to push into Klamath lake tributary streams on their spawning runs.

The Klamath mullet may be taken the year around at any size and in any numbers. The fish seldom bite on hook and line although an occasional fish may be hooked on small baits. Because of their unsocial attitude toward hook and line angling, these fish may be taken by spear, gaff, or snag hook.

The most popular fishing time is during the spring when the fish school and congregate near the shore line and in the rivers on their spawning runs. Flesh is white and firm and is excellent smoked, the favorite method of preparation by most anglers. During the early days, the Klamath lake mullet was a major source of food for the Klamath Indian tribes.

The fish is large, some going to 15 and 20 pounds. Most of the mature fish will run anywhere from 5 to 10 pounds in weight. Its color is dark-greenish to black on the back and sides, whitish on the belly. Its mouth is round and sucker-like.

Bob Turley Regains Top Firing Form

By JOE ST. AMANT

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —Pitcher Bob Turley of the Los Angeles Angeles today looked as though he might be regaining the form that won him the nickname "Bullet Bob" when he was with the New York Yankees.

Turley, 1-3, pitched his first Angel victory Tuesday night and it was a lulu — a three-hit 2-0 whitewashing of the Minneapolis Twins. He struck out nine men and walked no one.

"That's the greatest game I ever pitched," said Turley, "and that includes the World Series."

Turley, 32, in his 12th major league season, has a World Series record of 4-3. The big righthander had an arm operation after the 1961 season with the Yankees and they traded him to the Angels this spring.
