Scandinavian Fete Given At Pomona Grange Meeting

The Lookingglass Grange opened its lovely new hall on Saturday April 27 for the meeting of the Douglas County Pomona Grange. The program opened with a delicious pollock dinner at 7 p.m., followed by the regular session conducted by Harold Densmore, Pomona lecturer. Approximately 120 were served.

Highlighting the program was the appearance of a group of 50 singers and dancers of all ages from Junction City, who presented a colorful Scandinavian Festival. Mrs. Karl Petersen and Mrs. Elmer Andrews were in charge of the presentation. All taking part in the festival were in native costume. The countries of Sweden, Norway, Finland and Denmark were represented. Songs and dances portrayed the different countries. Included in the troupe were several children of 4 and 5 years old who captivated the audience with their naive performance.

Winners of the district Pomona Youth Talent contest held recently at the Dorena Grange were David and Danny Barnett of the Drain High School. They presented their prize winning novelty number, "Man and Woman."

A cake sale was held in connection with the evening's activities and a sum of $63.80 was turned to the Home Economics Club scholarship fund.

Eighteen candidates received their obligation in the fifth degree at the meeting. Pomona officers in attendance were Master Carl James and Mrs. James; lecturer, H. Densmore; secretary, Mrs. Jessie Thomas; home economics, Mrs. Joe Brumbaugh; agriculture, Joe Brumbaugh; youth committee chairman, Emmett Walters and Mrs. Walters; treasurer, Hayden Taylor.

Coming from the Evergreen Grange were: Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Folmshee, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Veach, Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. White, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Fearnow, Ruby Tucker, Margaret Burt, Florence Burt and Judy, Jessie Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Spencer.

From North Douglas Grange:

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wishart of Roseburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Karen, to John Kerr, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Kerr of this city. The betrothal was told Saturday night at Beta Theta Pi house dance at Oregon State University. Jim Jarvis, a fraternity brother, stopped the music to make the announcement. The fraternity serenaded the couple following the announcement. Both Karen and John attend Oregon State University, where the latter will be graduated from the school of science in May. A January wedding is planned, after which the couple will resume their studies. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography).

Friendship Night Held Wednesday

Nine Southern Oregon chapters were represented when Oregon chapters were represented when Oregon Chapter No. 37, Order of Eastern Star, was host at a Friendship Night Wednesday at the Masonic Temple and Canyonville. Mrs. William Belcher, W.M., and William Belcher, W.P., greeted the guests.

The worthy matron's theme, "Love," and her emblem, the white dove, were used in decorating both the hall and the dining room set off with pink crepe paper streamers.

Girls from South Douglas Assembly, Rainbow for Girls, which Oregon chapter sponsors, presented a program preceding the meeting. Two comedy skits and a baton drill were included.

Grand officers present included Carlotta Wiseman of Grants Pass, a past grand matron; Morris Boughner of Medford, a past grand patron; Mrs. John Wright of Myrtle Creek, associate grand matron; Mrs. Frances Kalina of Malin, grand Adah, and Elmer Love of Riddle, a Grand Committee member. Also introduced were four worthy patrons.

Chapters from Jacksonville, Medford, Grants Pass, Glendale, Riddle, Myrtle Creek, Roseburg, Oakland and Malin were represented.

Serving as hostesses during the refreshment hour were Mrs. Leo Davidson, Mrs. William Preston, Mrs. Milton Herbert, Mrs. Lyall Byrd and Mrs. Richard Prairie. Table favors of clasped hands carried out the theme of the evening.

Men of the chapter will be hosts at the next meeting honoring mothers.

Wedding Of Interest Here

Miss Caroline Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Montgomery of Junction City, became the bride of David S. Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Evans of Glide, at a beautiful candlelight ceremony. The wedding took place on Saturday evening, April 13, in the Junction City Methodist Church, with Rev. Wayne Brown officiating at the double ring service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white floor-length gown of sheer silk organza, sheath style with Camelot overskirt of embroidered organza. She wore a brief veil of illusion, held by a pearl tiara, and carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias, pink roses and feathered carnations tied with shower ribbons.

Mrs. Vern Oremus of Eugene was matron of honor. She wore a gown of white chiffon with floral print pattern in shades of pink. She carried an arrangement of pink rosebuds and delicate fern, tied with pink ribbons. Miss Ellen Paescheke, bridesmaid wore a similar dress and carried a pink rose. Christopher J. Evans, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were John Suhrstedt, John Livingston and Daniel Montgomery, brother of the bride.

Larry Brown was organist and accompanied Mrs. Philip Buck who sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Baskets of chrysanthemums and stock and candles in candelabra decorated the altar.

Mrs. Montgomery, mother of the bride, wore a sheath dress of soft green brocade on bone-colored background with matching accessories. Her corsage was green tinted carnations. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Evans wore a pink silk sheath with all-over embroidery. She wore white accessories. Her corsage was pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor. Cake was served by Mrs. C. S. Dillon of Eugene, the bride's aunt; and Mrs. Gordon P. Evans, aunt of the bridegroom. Mrs. Fred Williams cared for the punch bowl and Mrs. Willard Loveless poured the coffee. Both are aunts of the bride. Mrs. Larry Gilson of Klamath Falls, the bride's cousin, attended the guest book. Janet Evans and Debbie Jacobsen, the bride's cousins, cared for the gifts. The table centerpiece was of white stock and pink chrysanthemums.

For traveling, the bride chose a suit in beige linen with lime and bone-colored accessories. Following a trip to the coast, the couple is at home in Eugene, where the bridegroom is a journalism student at the University of Oregon. Mrs. Evans is with Timber Tractor Co.

A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING took place April 13 in Junction City Methodist Church, when Caroline Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Montgomery of Junction City, became the bride of David S. Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Evans of Glide. The couple will reside in Eugene. (Photo by F. B. Schultz).
