Delightful Program Given At Lookingglass Potluck

A delightful evening was arranged by the Lookingglass Grange at the hall Tuesday evening when the group met for a potluck supper and to witness the candlelighting ceremony of the O-KI-TA-YA Camp Fire Girls. Under the leadership of Mrs. Royelle Paulson, the group is sponsored by the Grange. Honors were awarded to each of the girls in the group. Mrs. Walter Smith had made a corsage which the girls bestowed upon their leader. In an impressive ceremony the girls presented the Camp Fire Law and sang a number of their songs. Nancy Ellis was a guest of the group.

Members with their parents included: Cathy and Donna Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Al Greer; Teresa Bowlin, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bowlin; Phyllis Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith; Paula Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Meredith; Sue Smith and Mrs. Jimmie Smith; Carolyn Champ and Gail Patterson.

Attending the grange potluck were: Mrs. Lillie Goodman, Ike Cline, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Niebaum, Corin, Lori and Cindy; Mrs. James Ties, Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Bolling, Glenda and Karen; Charles Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Lige Ollivani, Faye and Dan; Jous Paulson, Sheila Aldridge, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Provost, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Petheram, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Paulson.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Niebaum, Wesley Meredith, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Findlay, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Meredith and Guya Rudzik.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schulze and Mr. and Mrs. Perley Gar.

The hall was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. Visiting and card playing were enjoyed.

Dixonville Group Has Shower Party

Women of the Dixonville community entertained at a recent shower honoring little Patty McGraw, new 16-month-old adopted Korean daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley McGraw.

The group met at the McGraw home for a lovely potluck luncheon at noon. Visiting was enjoyed in the afternoon. Many nice gifts were given to Patty.

Those attending were Mrs. A. C. Cooper, Mrs. Lena Graves, Mrs. Thelma Rust, Mrs. Lela Ruhn, Mrs. Eva Swanson, Mrs. Cletha Hamer, Mary Edwards, Leora Meyers, Sylvia Gausnell, Jean Chappel, Hazel Brown, Martha Broadwater and Mildred Marshall. Those sending gifts but unable to attend were Mrs. Raymond Miller and Mrs. George Krueger.

SHOWN ABOVE in the traditional cake-cutting ceremony are Mr. and Mrs. Don K. Richardson. The bride, Linda Porter, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Porter of San Fernando, Calif., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Richardson of Myrtle Creek.

Couple Married In California

Miss Linda Porter and Don K. Richardson were united in marriage March 9 at 8 p.m. in the Rosewood Wedding Chapel in Burbank, Calif. The double ring ceremony was performed by candlelight by the Rev. Paul Peterson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Burbank.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Porter of San Fernando, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Travis Richardson of Myrtle Creek. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length gown of Chantilly lace over satin, styled with jeweled neckline and long sleeves. Her veil was matching jeweled net. Her wedding bouquet was of white and pink carnations.

Mrs. Don McAllister, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore pink taffeta with white accessories and carried pink and white carnations.

Tom King, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Bridesmaids were Mrs. King, sister of the bride, and Miss Charla Logan, her cousin. They wore green taffeta dresses styled the same as that of the matron of honor. Their bouquets were pink and white carnations, and their accessories were white.

Ushers were Gary Logan and Don McAllister, brother-in-law of the bride.

Oregon Chapter 57, OES, Gives Tribute To Mothers

Mothers were honored at Wednesday evening's regular meeting of Oregon Chapter No. 57, Order of Eastern Star, at the Masonic Temple in Canyonville.

Mrs. W. Frank Brown as the mother with the most children (five), and Mrs. Ray Wright as the grandmother with the most grandchildren (13), were each given a Martha Washington geranium plant by the worthy patron and matron, Mr. and Mrs. William Belcher.

The men, headed by W. Frank Brown and Joe Anderson, served during the refreshment hour. The tables were decorated with May baskets.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Francis McCabe reported that $129 was made from a recent rummage sale, May 15, the date of the next meeting of Oregon Chapter, has been designated as Memorial Night and will also be annual election of officers.

Members were told that a bus, making the round trip to Portland in one day, would leave from Myrtle Creek so that South Douglas OES members interested in attending the installation of grand officers at Grand Chapter Thursday,

June 6, might be able to see Mrs. John Wright of Myrtle Creek installed Worthy Grand Matron of Oregon. Mrs. Ira Poole, secretary, is making reservations for Oregon chapter members.

Fairoaks Group To Fete Mothers

The Fairoaks Industrial Club held its May meeting in the Fairoaks Grange Hall Thursday. A lovely luncheon was served at noon with Mrs. Raymond Bucknell and Mrs. Leroy Gerard as hostesses.

Following the dinner, a business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Thomas Sutton. The opening scripture was read by Mrs. Phil Gorley. The committee reported that a public dinner will be served by the club in Mothers' Day, starting at 12:30.

Special guests were Mrs. Virgil Smith, Mrs. Dave Henry, Mrs. Cleve Miller and guest speaker Mrs. George Munson, who explained means and ways of conducting successful welfare departments in small community clubs. All guests received lovely corsages.
