Mr. and Mrs. Harold Follett and small daughter of Portland visited the former's mother, Mrs. Leta Follett, and other relatives and friends last weekend. Young Follett attended school here and later the Adventist college at Angel, Calif. He is now in a medical laboratory in Portland.

Mrs. Rose Hillary of Spokane, Wash., arrived in Roseburg last Friday to visit her sister, Mrs. H. Pape Sr., and with other relatives and friends. Mrs. Pape, who has been hospitalized at Mercy Hospital as a medical patient, is reported to be convalescing satisfactorily at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Forrest, on SE Kane St.

Mrs. Robert Kaye and two small daughters of Ocean Lake, Ore., have been spending a few days here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tonole, on Eden St. Her husband, Dr. Kaye, was with the Roseburg Medical Clinic here before moving to Ocean Lake several months ago. He reports he and the pastor of the Seventh-day Adventist Church there have just conducted a five-day Stop Smoking Clinic and results of the clinic have proved excellent. Dr. Lewis Hart and Pastor A. P. Ritz of the local church, are scheduled to hold a similar free clinic at the YMCA lounge beginning next Monday evening, May 13 and continuing for five successive nights. Registration for the clinic may be made by calling the "Y".

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond P. Borden have returned to Roseburg following the last five weeks in Los Angeles attending to business and visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Albright have returned to their home here, following a visit from Saturday through Tuesday in Portland at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Wernsing, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Bovee and son, Harold, of West Kenwood St., were in Monitor, near Silverton, over the weekend. Their youngest son, Jimmy, a senior student at Laurelwood Academy near Gaston, was guest speaker in the Monitor Seventh-day Adventist Church Saturday.

Udall Asks Dunes Seashore

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Interior Secretary Stewart Udall Wednesday urged Congress to turn a 40 mile strip of land along the Oregon coast into a national recreation area.

Udall testified before a Senate Public Lands subcommittee in behalf of a bill offered by Sen. Maurice Neuberger, D-Ore., to create the Oregon Dunes National Seashore.

"Udall urged quick congressional action because 'land values within the area are increasing at about 10 per cent a year. As development continues the area suitable for public use shrinks proportionately.'"

Private land within the area is now valued at $7.5 million, he said. The area includes about 44,000

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allan of Eugene were recent visitors in Roseburg at the home of the latter's daughter, Mrs. John Longfellow Jr., and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brooke of Lathrop, Calif., visited in Roseburg Tuesday with their sister-in-law, Mrs. John Brooke. They were en route north to visit in St. Paul with Brooke's sister, Mrs. R. J. Lambert.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Safely and small grandson from Medford spent Tuesday in Roseburg attending to business and visiting friends. They formerly lived here, at which time they owned Wayne's Shoe Store on SE Cass Ave. Safely is now in the insurance business in Medford.

FAST DEFROSTING

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) — A Frankfurt housewife placed a burning candle inside her refrigerator recently to speed up its defrosting.

The plastic inside cover of the refrigerator caught fire. The blaze spread, wrecked the woman's apartment and sent her to the hospital with smoke poisoning.

D. P. Smith of Boring, Ore., visited Mr. and Mrs. William Updegrave over Saturday. Mrs. Updegrave and Mr. Smith are charter members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church at Sandy, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Long of this city returned to Roseburg Monday, following a stay since last Friday in Marysville, Calif., visiting the former's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Brent Long.

United Foursquare Women of the local church will hold a pre-Mothers Day bazaar Saturday beginning at 9 a.m. at 540 SE Jackson. The sale will feature all new home-made articles such as quilts, aprons, holders and fancy work.

Mrs. Robert Edson of Eureka, Calif., was in Roseburg this week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Sanders, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stark, and family. She also visited her many friends in the area. The Edsons, former Roseburg residents, are leaving soon to make their home in Santa Cruz, Calif.

Mrs. Guy (Elizabeth) Chamberlain, who has been at Riversdale Sanitarium for some time, has returned from a trip to Salem to attend a reunion with her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Phillips, and her six children and their respective families. The Phillips family resided in Roseburg for several years. Mrs. Phillips works in a government hospital in Idaho. One of the granddaughters, Mrs. Howard (Ellen Phillips) Dana, who taught in the Seventh-day Adventist system of elementary schools, is now working with her husband in a medical laboratory in Portland.
