Schoolteachers Are Feted At Dinner Given By Masons

School teachers in the Roseburg district were honored Saturday night at an annual dinner sponsored jointly by Masons of the Laurel and Mt. Nebo lodges.

Members of Job's Daughters betheled 8 and 72 served dinner which had been prepared by women of the South Deer Creek Grange. Spring flowers were used to decorate the tables.

Nearly 200 were present for the affair, including Masons of both lodges, school teachers and their husbands or wives.

M. C. Deller, superintendent of schools, spoke briefly, thanking the lodge on behalf of the teachers.

Degree Given At Banquet Here

The "Order of the Rose," a degree given for 15 years' active service in Beta Sigma Phi, was given to seven women at the annual Founder's Day banquet Tuesday evening at the Roseburg Country Club. Taking the degree and receiving the beautiful symbolic pin were Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mu Chapter, and retiring city sponsor; Mrs. Horace Berg, honorary member of Mu and Xi Tau chapters; and Mrs. Marcus Brown, Mrs. Sid Domenico, Mrs. C. V. DeCamp, Mrs. Robert Kidder and Mrs. Florence Powell, all members of Xi Omicron Chapter. Mrs. Jack Wharton of Xi Tau Chapter was eligible for the honor, but was unable to be present.

Mrs. Bernard Saar was toastmistress for the affair. Decorations carried out the theme for the year, "The Torch Will Light the Way Through Doorways to Success." Beautiful hanging arrangements of flowers were used about the banquet room. The tables were centered by arrangements of spring blossoms in stemmed vases, with gold candles in the center.

The president of each chapter introduced the new pledges and also gave a report of her chapter's highlight of the year.

A gift was presented to Mrs. Clair K. Allen, who has resigned as city sponsor. Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher was introduced as the new city sponsor.

Guest speaker for the evening was Miss Carleen Felker, a Fremont Junior High school speech and English instructor. She titled her talk "Keeper of the Springs." She used the legend of that title to illustrate the importance of the tasks women have in this modern, scientific world, in keeping the basic ideals in proper perspective.

Pink And Blue Shower Given

A charming pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Loren Hinkle was given by the women staff members of Fremont Junior High Tuesday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Romayne Brand in Westmoreland. Mrs. Hinkle has taught music at Fremont Junior High for the last seven years.

Pink Kwanson cherry blossoms and blue bells, a pink umbrella and tall pink tapers graced the table. Mrs. Everett Moody poured and Mrs. Robert Aiken and Mrs. Ralph Scudder assisted in the serving.

A PICTURE OF RITA TRIPIETT IN RHYME

Rita is a sweet dream in reality. With a rather shy personality. Winner all during March for "Miss Umpqua Gem!"

One of the prettiest of all of them! She has the beauty that will not wash away.

Attends Roseburg High School every day!

And takes her studies quite seriously!

Rita also collects and polishes gems, you see.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Argie Perry, who cut and polish lots of agates, too. They all are members of Umpqua Mineral Club and so they attend field trips wherever they go.

So why not join the carefree throng And vote for Rita from now on?
