

Oregon Cattle Bow To Autos

SALEM (UPI)—The new West nudged the old West a little farther into the past Saturday. Cattle bowed to cars when the House passed a bill to keep livestock off Oregon's interstate highways.

Rep. William Holmstrom, D-Gearhart, said it would apply only to the fenced, four-lane portions of designated interstate highways. He said a rancher needing to move livestock across an interstate highway would be able to get emergency permission.

Rep. Robert Smith, R-Burns, a rancher, called the bill a good safeguard.

The bill went to the governor.

No Injuries Reported In Train Derailment

LA GRANDE (UPI)—Twenty-two cars of an eastbound 90-car Union Pacific freight train were derailed 14 miles west of here early Sunday. There were no injuries.

A spokesman for Union Pacific said a broken axle was the cause of the derailment.

The derailment occurred on the railroad's main line. The line was reopened today.

The westbound City of Portland and the eastbound Portland Rose were held at La Grande and Pendleton. Passengers were taken off the trains by buses.

BURTON PREFERS SONG

LONDON (UPI)—A London merchant reported he recently asked a group of celebrities whether they preferred wine, women or songs.

He said actor Richard Burton favored song.
