

Coquille Chamber President Discusses Possible Damsite

William Ruhman, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce at Coquille, was one of the principal speakers at the dinner meeting of the Camas Valley Farm Bureau Federation held this week at the Grange Hall. Ruhman spoke on the proposed dam and lake in Camas Valley.

According to Ruhman, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers favors the Camas Valley site at present, but the people of Coquille Valley feel that the Fair View site considered would better provide irrigation and flood control. Public hearings will be necessary, Ruhman said, and urged federation members to make their desires known to their congressional representative.

Vic Thompson, State Farm Bureau membership chairman, stated that there are 8,000 members in the state of Oregon. Membership goal is 10,000. May 27 is set for "dues-day", and all members were asked to work on the membership drive.

Mrs. Thompson also spoke and stressed the importance of both man and wife belonging to the Farm Bureau, stating that one program the Farm Bureau women can assume is to promote farm products through their husbands raise. Bureau women also sponsor a Dairy Princess Contest and a Wool Fashion Contest, the fashion contest being for adults and children of Farm Bureau families.

Blaine Johnson, regional director for the area, gave a talk on the dinner and meeting he and Mrs. Johnson had attended at the state legislature.

Louis Brady, county chairman, gave a short talk, stating that at the present time there is no insurance agent for this area.

E. J. Strickland, gave a short talk on membership in Douglas County, and John Standley gave a talk on the Water Resources Board.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Vic Thompson, of Gresham; Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brady of Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Strickland of Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brumbach, from East Douglas Federation; and William Ruhman and Ray Walker from Coquille. Fifty-three members were present.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Booth June 12, beginning with a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m.
