

Yoncalla's Eagles, Canyonville Tigers Set For Showdown

BICO B LEAGUE

	W	L
Yoncalla	6	0
Canyonville	5	1
Camas Valley	4	3
Elkton	2	5
Oakland	0	8

Monday results: Camas Valley 6, Canyonville 0; Yoncalla 11, Camas Valley 6; Elkton 23, Oakland 5.

Camas Valley's Hornets dampened Canyonville's hopes for a Bico B League baseball title Monday in a makeup game by handing the Tigers their first defeat in league competition.

The Hornets weren't quite as successful in the second game of a doubleheader they hosted in which the other unbeaten team, Yoncalla, was the foe. The Eagles topped Camas Valley, 11-0.

This gave the Eagles the inside track for the title. If they can stop Canyonville in a makeup game today, they will have clinched the crown. If they do not win, they have another chance Wednesday in still a second makeup game.

Elkton Wins

In the other makeup game today, Oakland failed to break into the win column. It lost ignominiously to fourth place Elkton.

Camas Valley posted the day's upset with its win over Canyonville behind the three-hit pitching of Bob Lawson. While Lawson was scattering his three hits, his teammates were grouping most of theirs in the first inning. They scored five hits and a hit batsman. Their last score came on two walks and a single in the third inning.

Don Lawson and Terry Volkman shared the hitting honors. Lawson had 2-4 and Volkman 2-3.

The pressure of playing the two top teams of the league in a single, tough afternoon, however, was apparently too much for the Hornets. They fell apart with nine errors in the last against Yoncalla.

Errors Tell

It was a tight contest through the first four innings. Both teams scored braces of runs in the first inning. But, with the score tied at 2-2 going into the top of the fifth, Camas Valley errors began to tell. They committed two, and a single loaded the bases. Yoncalla's Scoper Lee met the challenge by rapping a single to bring in two. Another error contributed to a third run of the inning.

The Eagles turned the game into a rout in the sixth inning with six runs. The big hit in that inning was a bases loaded double by Richard Wales, which brought in three runs. A couple more Camas Valley errors helped three more across.

The Hornets weren't ready to give up, however, and got assistance from Yoncalla's share of errors. Camas Valley's Richard Parret slammed a double in the seventh frame to score two runs as a highlight of the inning, but it was Yoncalla's four errors which contributed most to the four-run CV showing.

Elks Cut Loose

At Oakland, it took three innings before it became apparent Elkton was going to run away with the game. The teams were fighting a tight 2-1 battle with Elkton in the lead until the top of the third when the Elks cut loose with five runs. They added three more in the fourth, four in the fifth and buried the Oaks with nine more in the seventh.

The Elk batters practically ate the Oaks pitchers alive. Leading the Elkton hit parade was shortstop Gary Brooks, who hammered out two doubles a triple and a single in six times at bat. He had a staggering 10 runs batted in to his credit. David Abraham had 3-5, including a triple.

Elkton has one more makeup game before the season ends. It is tentatively planned with Camas Valley next Monday.

LINESCORES:

Canyonville 000 000 0-0 3 1
Camas Valley 501 000 x-6 7 2
Batteries: Olsen, B. Parsley (1); J. Parsley (1) and Ringer; Lawson and Oliver.

Yoncalla 200 036 9-11 7 5
Camas Valley 200 000 4-7 5 9
Batteries: Latham, Wales (1); Latham (6) and Luttrell; Priest, Looney (5), Parret (6) and Oliver, D. Lawson (1).

Elkton 205 340 9-23 14 4
Oakland 100 002 2-5 7 6
Batteries: Suloff and Abraham; Little, Manley (3), Sprague (4), Stroup (9) and Wood.

Jim Grelle Says He'll Break Mile Record On Friday Night

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Jim Grelle has predicted he will run the mile in 3 minutes, 54 seconds — 4 seconds better than the world record — Friday night against New Zealand's Peter Snell in the Coliseum Relays.

Grelle said Monday he would "not be surprised if the world record falls Friday. Speaking for myself, I feel I can run 3:54.0." Snell holds the accepted record of 3:54.4.

However, Grelle is the only man to beat both Snell and Jim Beatty of America in their specialties.

Beatty faces Murray Halberg in the 5,000-meter run, the co-feature on the Coliseum program. Southern California track writers favor Beatty over Halberg 19-14.

Snell, however, was rated a substantial favorite over Grelle 16-6. Snell and Grelle will compete on the same track where Snell last year set an American record by beating Dyrrol Burleson.

In another poll, the writers favored Ron Morris of the Southern California Striders in the pole vault despite the presence of world record holder John Pennel of Northeast Louisiana State at 16 feet 6 3/8 inches. C. K. Yang of UCLA and Formosa was ranked third by the scribes.

"I feel I'm ready to go for the top mark," said Morris, injured since he won the national Amateur Athletic Union (NAAU) crown last year as the nation's top vaulter.

At Fresno, Calif., last week, Morris cleared the bar at 16 feet, 1 inch.

In another individual duel, Bob Hayes and Henry Carr meet in the 220-yard dash. Hayes is sitting out a year of ineligibility at Florida A & M. Carr, of Arizona State University, has a pending world mark of 20.3 seconds on a curve.

Wiseman, Donnelly Take Tourney Lead

Lane Wiseman, a youngster with a .96 average, turned to a terror of the alleys over the weekend in the first annual Junior and Senior Tournament at Indian Lanes to share the top trophy with his senior partner, Bill Donnelly.

Despite the low average, young Wiseman scored lines of 166-154-145.

The second place trophy went to junior bowler Gordon Smith, who rolled a whopping 602 series, and his dad, Bob Smith.

This first junior senior tournament drew an entry list of 62 bowlers. Spokesmen for the alley report the Indian Lanes now has a total 1,926 card-carrying juniors.

Vi Aguiro, certified junior instructor, supervised the weekend

run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a 6-3 lead and closed out the victory for the Angels.

Leon Wagner had a homer and two singles, Jim Fregosi hit a triple and a double and Ed Sadowski had a homer and a single to lead the Angels' 10-hit attack against Eddie Fisher and three Chicago relief pitchers. Jim Landis, Pete Ward and Charlie Maxwell had two hits each for the White Sox, who lost their second straight game after their seven-game winning streak was broken.

Conley Shaping Up

Frank Malzone, Dick Stuart and Bob Tillman homered for the Red Sox, who have won 10 of 13 games at Boston's Fenway Park. Gene Conley, rounding into form after a slow start following his season's work in the National Basketball Association, went 6 2-3 innings to pick up his second victory with the powerful relief aid of Smokey the Bear Radatz.

Radatz, 6-6, 245-pound fireballer rapidly becoming recognized as the No. 1 relief pitcher in the majors, allowed the Senators one hit and no runs over the last 2 1/3 innings.

The Colts rolled to their fifth straight victory when Don McMahon bailed out Bob Bruce in the ninth inning by striking out Cliff Cook with the tying runs on base. Bruce ran out of gas in the ninth after striking out 11 Mets and allowing only three hits in 8 2/3 innings. Johnny Temple had two hits and Rusty Staub a triple for the Colts who tied the tide Milwaukee Braves for ninth place in the NL as a result of the victory.

Boston Beats Senators

The Boston Red Sox fired a salvo of seven extra base hits to down the Washington Senators, 8-5, while the Houston Colts got excellent pitching again to beat the New York Mets, 4-2, in the only other major league games played on Monday.

Chance, 14-10 in his rookie season, allowed only one hit and one

run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a 6-3 lead and closed out the victory for the Angels.

Leon Wagner had a homer and two singles, Jim Fregosi hit a triple and a double and Ed Sadowski had a homer and a single to lead the Angels' 10-hit attack against Eddie Fisher and three Chicago relief pitchers. Jim Landis, Pete Ward and Charlie Maxwell had two hits each for the White Sox, who lost their second straight game after their seven-game winning streak was broken.

Conley Shaping Up

Frank Malzone, Dick Stuart and Bob Tillman homered for the Red Sox, who have won 10 of 13 games at Boston's Fenway Park. Gene Conley, rounding into form after a slow start following his season's work in the National Basketball Association, went 6 2-3 innings to pick up his second victory with the powerful relief aid of Smokey the Bear Radatz.

Radatz, 6-6, 245-pound fireballer rapidly becoming recognized as the No. 1 relief pitcher in the majors, allowed the Senators one hit and no runs over the last 2 1/3 innings.

The Colts rolled to their fifth straight victory when Don McMahon bailed out Bob Bruce in the ninth inning by striking out Cliff Cook with the tying runs on base. Bruce ran out of gas in the ninth after striking out 11 Mets and allowing only three hits in 8 2/3 innings. Johnny Temple had two hits and Rusty Staub a triple for the Colts who tied the tide Milwaukee Braves for ninth place in the NL as a result of the victory.

Boston Beats Senators

The Boston Red Sox fired a salvo of seven extra base hits to down the Washington Senators, 8-5, while the Houston Colts got excellent pitching again to beat the New York Mets, 4-2, in the only other major league games played on Monday.

Chance, 14-10 in his rookie season, allowed only one hit and one

run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a 6-3 lead and closed out the victory for the Angels.

Leon Wagner had a homer and two singles, Jim Fregosi hit a triple and a double and Ed Sadowski had a homer and a single to lead the Angels' 10-hit attack against Eddie Fisher and three Chicago relief pitchers. Jim Landis, Pete Ward and Charlie Maxwell had two hits each for the White Sox, who lost their second straight game after their seven-game winning streak was broken.

Conley Shaping Up

Frank Malzone, Dick Stuart and Bob Tillman homered for the Red Sox, who have won 10 of 13 games at Boston's Fenway Park. Gene Conley, rounding into form after a slow start following his season's work in the National Basketball Association, went 6 2-3 innings to pick up his second victory with the powerful relief aid of Smokey the Bear Radatz.

Radatz, 6-6, 245-pound fireballer rapidly becoming recognized as the No. 1 relief pitcher in the majors, allowed the Senators one hit and no runs over the last 2 1/3 innings.

The Colts rolled to their fifth straight victory when Don McMahon bailed out Bob Bruce in the ninth inning by striking out Cliff Cook with the tying runs on base. Bruce ran out of gas in the ninth after striking out 11 Mets and allowing only three hits in 8 2/3 innings. Johnny Temple had two hits and Rusty Staub a triple for the Colts who tied the tide Milwaukee Braves for ninth place in the NL as a result of the victory.

Boston Beats Senators

The Boston Red Sox fired a salvo of seven extra base hits to down the Washington Senators, 8-5, while the Houston Colts got excellent pitching again to beat the New York Mets, 4-2, in the only other major league games played on Monday.

Chance, 14-10 in his rookie season, allowed only one hit and one

run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a 6-3 lead and closed out the victory for the Angels.

Leon Wagner had a homer and two singles, Jim Fregosi hit a triple and a double and Ed Sadowski had a homer and a single to lead the Angels' 10-hit attack against Eddie Fisher and three Chicago relief pitchers. Jim Landis, Pete Ward and Charlie Maxwell had two hits each for the White Sox, who lost their second straight game after their seven-game winning streak was broken.

Conley Shaping Up

Frank Malzone, Dick Stuart and Bob Tillman homered for the Red Sox, who have won 10 of 13 games at Boston's Fenway Park. Gene Conley, rounding into form after a slow start following his season's work in the National Basketball Association, went 6 2-3 innings to pick up his second victory with the powerful relief aid of Smokey the Bear Radatz.

Radatz, 6-6, 245-pound fireballer rapidly becoming recognized as the No. 1 relief pitcher in the majors, allowed the Senators one hit and no runs over the last 2 1/3 innings.

The Colts rolled to their fifth straight victory when Don McMahon bailed out Bob Bruce in the ninth inning by striking out Cliff Cook with the tying runs on base. Bruce ran out of gas in the ninth after striking out 11 Mets and allowing only three hits in 8 2/3 innings. Johnny Temple had two hits and Rusty Staub a triple for the Colts who tied the tide Milwaukee Braves for ninth place in the NL as a result of the victory.

Boston Beats Senators

The Boston Red Sox fired a salvo of seven extra base hits to down the Washington Senators, 8-5, while the Houston Colts got excellent pitching again to beat the New York Mets, 4-2, in the only other major league games played on Monday.

Chance, 14-10 in his rookie season, allowed only one hit and one

run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a 6-3 lead and closed out the victory for the Angels.

Leon Wagner had a homer and two singles, Jim Fregosi hit a triple and a double and Ed Sadowski had a homer and a single to lead the Angels' 10-hit attack against Eddie Fisher and three Chicago relief pitchers. Jim Landis, Pete Ward and Charlie Maxwell had two hits each for the White Sox, who lost their second straight game after their seven-game winning streak was broken.

Conley Shaping Up

Frank Malzone, Dick Stuart and Bob Tillman homered for the Red Sox, who have won 10 of 13 games at Boston's Fenway Park. Gene Conley, rounding into form after a slow start following his season's work in the National Basketball Association, went 6 2-3 innings to pick up his second victory with the powerful relief aid of Smokey the Bear Radatz.

Radatz, 6-6, 245-pound fireballer rapidly becoming recognized as the No. 1 relief pitcher in the majors, allowed the Senators one hit and no runs over the last 2 1/3 innings.

The Colts rolled to their fifth straight victory when Don McMahon bailed out Bob Bruce in the ninth inning by striking out Cliff Cook with the tying runs on base. Bruce ran out of gas in the ninth after striking out 11 Mets and allowing only three hits in 8 2/3 innings. Johnny Temple had two hits and Rusty Staub a triple for the Colts who tied the tide Milwaukee Braves for ninth place in the NL as a result of the victory.

Boston Beats Senators

The Boston Red Sox fired a salvo of seven extra base hits to down the Washington Senators, 8-5, while the Houston Colts got excellent pitching again to beat the New York Mets, 4-2, in the only other major league games played on Monday.

Chance, 14-10 in his rookie season, allowed only one hit and one

run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a 6-3 lead and closed out the victory for the Angels.

Leon Wagner had a homer and two singles, Jim Fregosi hit a triple and a double and Ed Sadowski had a homer and a single to lead the Angels' 10-hit attack against Eddie Fisher and three Chicago relief pitchers. Jim Landis, Pete Ward and Charlie Maxwell had two hits each for the White Sox, who lost their second straight game after their seven-game winning streak was broken.

Conley Shaping Up

Frank Malzone, Dick Stuart and Bob Tillman homered for the Red Sox, who have won 10 of 13 games at Boston's Fenway Park. Gene Conley, rounding into form after a slow start following his season's work in the National Basketball Association, went 6 2-3 innings to pick up his second victory with the powerful relief aid of Smokey the Bear Radatz.

Radatz, 6-6, 245-pound fireballer rapidly becoming recognized as the No. 1 relief pitcher in the majors, allowed the Senators one hit and no runs over the last 2 1/3 innings.

The Colts rolled to their fifth straight victory when Don McMahon bailed out Bob Bruce in the ninth inning by striking out Cliff Cook with the tying runs on base. Bruce ran out of gas in the ninth after striking out 11 Mets and allowing only three hits in 8 2/3 innings. Johnny Temple had two hits and Rusty Staub a triple for the Colts who tied the tide Milwaukee Braves for ninth place in the NL as a result of the victory.

Boston Beats Senators

The Boston Red Sox fired a salvo of seven extra base hits to down the Washington Senators, 8-5, while the Houston Colts got excellent pitching again to beat the New York Mets, 4-2, in the only other major league games played on Monday.

Chance, 14-10 in his rookie season, allowed only one hit and one

run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a 6-3 lead and closed out the victory for the Angels.

Leon Wagner had a homer and two singles, Jim Fregosi hit a triple and a double and Ed Sadowski had a homer and a single to lead the Angels' 10-hit attack against Eddie Fisher and three Chicago relief pitchers. Jim Landis, Pete Ward and Charlie Maxwell had two hits each for the White Sox, who lost their second straight game after their seven-game winning streak was broken.

Conley Shaping Up

Frank Malzone, Dick Stuart and Bob Tillman homered for the Red Sox, who have won 10 of 13 games at Boston's Fenway Park. Gene Conley, rounding into form after a slow start following his season's work in the National Basketball Association, went 6 2-3 innings to pick up his second victory with the powerful relief aid of Smokey the Bear Radatz.

Radatz, 6-6, 245-pound fireballer rapidly becoming recognized as the No. 1 relief pitcher in the majors, allowed the Senators one hit and no runs over the last 2 1/3 innings.

The Colts rolled to their fifth straight victory when Don McMahon bailed out Bob Bruce in the ninth inning by striking out Cliff Cook with the tying runs on base. Bruce ran out of gas in the ninth after striking out 11 Mets and allowing only three hits in 8 2/3 innings. Johnny Temple had two hits and Rusty Staub a triple for the Colts who tied the tide Milwaukee Braves for ninth place in the NL as a result of the victory.

Boston Beats Senators

The Boston Red Sox fired a salvo of seven extra base hits to down the Washington Senators, 8-5, while the Houston Colts got excellent pitching again to beat the New York Mets, 4-2, in the only other major league games played on Monday.

Chance, 14-10 in his rookie season, allowed only one hit and one

run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a 6-3 lead and closed out the victory for the Angels.

Leon Wagner had a homer and two singles, Jim Fregosi hit a triple and a double and Ed Sadowski had a homer and a single to lead the Angels' 10-hit attack against Eddie Fisher and three Chicago relief pitchers. Jim Landis, Pete Ward and Charlie Maxwell had two hits each for the White Sox, who lost their second straight game after their seven-game winning streak was broken.

Conley Shaping Up

Frank Malzone, Dick Stuart and Bob Tillman homered for the Red Sox, who have won 10 of 13 games at Boston's Fenway Park. Gene Conley, rounding into form after a slow start following his season's work in the National Basketball Association, went 6 2-3 innings to pick up his second victory with the powerful relief aid of Smokey the Bear Radatz.

Radatz, 6-6, 245-pound fireballer rapidly becoming recognized as the No. 1 relief pitcher in the majors, allowed the Senators one hit and no runs over the last 2 1/3 innings.

The Colts rolled to their fifth straight victory when Don McMahon bailed out Bob Bruce in the ninth inning by striking out Cliff Cook with the tying runs on base. Bruce ran out of gas in the ninth after striking out 11 Mets and allowing only three hits in 8 2/3 innings. Johnny Temple had two hits and Rusty Staub a triple for the Colts who tied the tide Milwaukee Braves for ninth place in the NL as a result of the victory.

Boston Beats Senators

The Boston Red Sox fired a salvo of seven extra base hits to down the Washington Senators, 8-5, while the Houston Colts got excellent pitching again to beat the New York Mets, 4-2, in the only other major league games played on Monday.

Chance, 14-10 in his rookie season, allowed only one hit and one

run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a 6-3 lead and closed out the victory for the Angels.

Leon Wagner had a homer and two singles, Jim Fregosi hit a triple and a double and Ed Sadowski had a homer and a single to lead the Angels' 10-hit attack against Eddie Fisher and three Chicago relief pitchers. Jim Landis, Pete Ward and Charlie Maxwell had two hits each for the White Sox, who lost their second straight game after their seven-game winning streak was broken.

Conley Shaping Up

Frank Malzone, Dick Stuart and Bob Tillman homered for the Red Sox, who have won 10 of 13 games at Boston's Fenway Park. Gene Conley, rounding into form after a slow start following his season's work in the National Basketball Association, went 6 2-3 innings to pick up his second victory with the powerful relief aid of Smokey the Bear Radatz.

Radatz, 6-6, 245-pound fireballer rapidly becoming recognized as the No. 1 relief pitcher in the majors, allowed the Senators one hit and no runs over the last 2 1/3 innings.

The Colts rolled to their fifth straight victory when Don McMahon bailed out Bob Bruce in the ninth inning by striking out Cliff Cook with the tying runs on base. Bruce ran out of gas in the ninth after striking out 11 Mets and allowing only three hits in 8 2/3 innings. Johnny Temple had two hits and Rusty Staub a triple for the Colts who tied the tide Milwaukee Braves for ninth place in the NL as a result of the victory.

Boston Beats Senators

The Boston Red Sox fired a salvo of seven extra base hits to down the Washington Senators, 8-5, while the Houston Colts got excellent pitching again to beat the New York Mets, 4-2, in the only other major league games played on Monday.

Chance, 14-10 in his rookie season, allowed only one hit and one

run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a 6-3 lead and closed out the victory for the Angels.

Leon Wagner had a homer and two singles, Jim Fregosi hit a triple and a double and Ed Sadowski had a homer and a single to lead the Angels' 10-hit attack against Eddie Fisher and three Chicago relief pitchers. Jim Landis, Pete Ward and Charlie Maxwell had two hits each for the White Sox, who lost their second straight game after their seven-game winning streak was broken.

Conley Shaping Up

Frank Malzone, Dick Stuart and Bob Tillman homered for the Red Sox, who have won 10 of 13 games at Boston's Fenway Park. Gene Conley, rounding into form after a slow start following his season's work in the National Basketball Association, went 6 2-3 innings to pick up his second victory with the powerful relief aid of Smokey the Bear Radatz.

Radatz, 6-6, 245-pound fireballer rapidly becoming recognized as the No. 1 relief pitcher in the majors, allowed the Senators one hit and no runs over the last 2 1/3 innings.

The Colts rolled to their fifth straight victory when Don McMahon bailed out Bob Bruce in the ninth inning by striking out Cliff Cook with the tying runs on base. Bruce ran out of gas in the ninth after striking out 11 Mets and allowing only three hits in 8 2/3 innings. Johnny Temple had two hits and Rusty Staub a triple for the Colts who tied the tide Milwaukee Braves for ninth place in the NL as a result of the victory.

Boston Beats Senators

The Boston Red Sox fired a salvo of seven extra base hits to down the Washington Senators, 8-5, while the Houston Colts got excellent pitching again to beat the New York Mets, 4-2, in the only other major league games played on Monday.

Chance, 14-10 in his rookie season, allowed only one hit and one

run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a 6-3 lead and closed out the victory for the Angels.

Leon Wagner had a homer and two singles, Jim Fregosi hit a triple and a double and Ed Sadowski had a homer and a single to lead the Angels' 10-hit attack against Eddie Fisher and three Chicago relief pitchers. Jim Landis, Pete Ward and Charlie Maxwell had two hits each for the White Sox, who lost their second straight game after their seven-game winning streak was broken.

Conley Shaping Up

Frank Malzone, Dick Stuart and Bob Tillman homered for the Red Sox, who have won 10 of 13 games at Boston's Fenway Park. Gene Conley, rounding into form after a slow start following his season's work in the National Basketball Association, went 6 2-3 innings to pick up his second victory with the powerful relief aid of Smokey the Bear Radatz.

Radatz, 6-6, 245-pound fireballer rapidly becoming recognized as the No. 1 relief pitcher in the majors, allowed the Senators one hit and no runs over the last 2 1/3 innings.

The Colts rolled to their fifth straight victory when Don McMahon bailed out Bob Bruce in the ninth inning by striking out Cliff Cook with the tying runs on base. Bruce ran out of gas in the ninth after striking out 11 Mets and allowing only three hits in 8 2/3 innings. Johnny Temple had two hits and Rusty Staub a triple for the Colts who tied the tide Milwaukee Braves for ninth place in the NL as a result of the victory.

Boston Beats Senators

The Boston Red Sox fired a salvo of seven extra base hits to down the Washington Senators, 8-5, while the Houston Colts got excellent pitching again to beat the New York Mets, 4-2, in the only other major league games played on Monday.

Chance, 14-10 in his rookie season, allowed only one hit and one

run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a 6-3 lead and closed out the victory for the Angels.

Leon Wagner had a homer and two singles, Jim Fregosi hit a triple and a double and Ed Sadowski had a homer and a single to lead the Angels' 10-hit attack against Eddie Fisher and three Chicago relief pitchers. Jim Landis, Pete Ward and Charlie Maxwell had two hits each for the White Sox, who lost their second straight game after their seven-game winning streak was broken.

Conley Shaping Up

Frank Malzone, Dick Stuart and Bob Tillman homered for the Red Sox, who have won 10 of 13 games at Boston's Fenway Park. Gene Conley, rounding into form after a slow start following his season's work in the National Basketball Association, went 6 2-3 innings to pick up his second victory with the powerful relief aid of Smokey the Bear Radatz.

Radatz, 6-6, 245-pound fireballer rapidly becoming recognized as the No. 1 relief pitcher in the majors, allowed the Senators one hit and no runs over the last 2 1/3 innings.

The Colts rolled to their fifth straight victory when Don McMahon bailed out Bob Bruce in the ninth inning by striking out Cliff Cook with the tying runs on base. Bruce ran out of gas in the ninth after striking out 11 Mets and allowing only three hits in 8 2/3 innings. Johnny Temple had two hits and Rusty Staub a triple for the Colts who tied the tide Milwaukee Braves for ninth place in the NL as a result of the victory.

Boston Beats Senators

The Boston Red Sox fired a salvo of seven extra base hits to down the Washington Senators, 8-5, while the Houston Colts got excellent pitching again to beat the New York Mets, 4-2, in the only other major league games played on Monday.

Chance, 14-10 in his rookie season, allowed only one hit and one

run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a 6-3 lead and closed out the victory for the Angels.

Leon Wagner had a homer and two singles, Jim Fregosi hit a triple and a double and Ed Sadowski had a homer and a single to lead the Angels' 10-hit attack against Eddie Fisher and three Chicago relief pitchers. Jim Landis, Pete Ward and Charlie Maxwell had two hits each for the White Sox, who lost their second straight game after their seven-game winning streak was broken.

Conley Shaping Up

Frank Malzone, Dick Stuart and Bob Tillman homered for the Red Sox, who have won 10 of 13 games at Boston's Fenway Park. Gene Conley, rounding into form after a slow start following his season's work in the National Basketball Association, went 6 2-3 innings to pick up his second victory with the powerful relief aid of Smokey the Bear Radatz.

Radatz, 6-6, 245-pound fireballer rapidly becoming recognized as the No. 1 relief pitcher in the majors, allowed the Senators one hit and no runs over the last 2 1/3 innings.

The Colts rolled to their fifth straight victory when Don McMahon bailed out Bob Bruce in the ninth inning by striking out Cliff Cook with the tying runs on base. Bruce ran out of gas in the ninth after striking out 11 Mets and allowing only three hits in 8 2/3 innings. Johnny Temple had two hits and Rusty Staub a triple for the Colts who tied the tide Milwaukee Braves for ninth place in the NL as a result of the victory.

Boston Beats Senators

The Boston Red Sox fired a salvo of seven extra base hits to down the Washington Senators, 8-5, while the Houston Colts got excellent pitching again to beat the New York Mets, 4-2, in the only other major league games played on Monday.

Chance, 14-10 in his rookie season, allowed only one hit and one run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a