

OFFICERS OF ROSEBURG ASSEMBLY No. 223 recently organized in Roseburg are pictured above. Front row: Mrs. A. J. Young, Mrs. Robert Coley, Mrs. Rolland McBride, Mrs. Frank Talbot, supreme first vice president; Mrs. Henry Halvorsen, Mrs. Charles Thomas, Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs.

Social Order Of Beauceant Organized Here Saturday

An interesting event took place at the Roseburg Masonic Temple, Saturday, when Roseburg Assembly No. 223, Social Order of Beauceant was constituted with Mrs. Frank Talbot, supreme worthy first vice president of the Supreme Assembly of the Social Order of Beauceant, presiding.

She was assisted by the following women who had been deputized as supreme officers for the occasion: Mrs. Charles Hunt, Eugene, recorder; Mrs. George Dietrich, Portland, assistant recorder; Mrs. Harry A. Watson, Portland, marshal; Mrs. Wilbur A. Wellborn, Portland, assistant marshal; Mrs. William P. Guske, Eugene, chaplain; Mrs. Merle O. Hanson, Eugene, musician; Mrs. R. M. Paulson, Corvallis, inner guard; and Mrs. George A. Williams, Corvallis, outer guard.

Immediately after the constituting of Roseburg assembly, petitioners for a charter were initiated by officers coming from the Assemblies in Portland, Corvallis and Eugene.

They included: Worthy president, Mrs. Arthur Burgess, Corvallis; orator, Mrs. Merle Hanson, Eugene; first vice president, Mrs. Hubert Lapsley, Portland; second vice president, Mrs. J. P. Mehlig, Corvallis; preceptress, Mrs. George Robinson, Eugene; recorder, Mrs. Charles Hunt, Eugene; assistant recorder, Mrs. George Dietrich, Portland; treasurer, Mrs. George Zweifel, Portland; marshal, Mrs. Harry Pope, Corvallis; assistant marshal, Mrs. Ernest Stacks, Eugene; chaplain, Mrs. LeRoy Boehme, Portland; director of music, Mrs. Ronald Kerns, Portland; standard bearer, Mrs. S. J. Baldwin, Corvallis; color bearer, Mrs. Walter Van Horn, Corvallis (The Dalles); mistress of the wardrobe, Mrs. Garth Karlson, Portland; daughter of the household, Mrs. C. O. Budlong, Corvallis; inner guard, Mrs. Merle Moore, Eugene; and outer guard, Mrs. John C. Joslin, Corvallis.

Petitioners who were present to be initiated were: Mrs. Rolland McBride, Mrs. A. C. Spencer, Mrs. Edwin Booth, Mrs. Otto Lange, Mrs. Victor Micelli, Mrs. John Preston, Mrs. Charles Thomas, Mrs. Robert Coley, Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs. Roy Young, Mrs. Russell Turner, Mrs. Shirley Hogg, Mrs. Lloyd Wilson, Mrs. Frank O. True, Mrs. Cecil Callahan, Mrs. Elmer Robinson, Mrs. A. D. Fox, Mrs. Earl Remick, Mrs. Roy Haven, Mrs. Leon Hughes, Mrs. Roy Critchfield and Mrs. T. B. Virden. Mrs. A. J. Young and Mrs. Henry K. Halvorsen were affiliated.

A 6:30 no-host banquet was served in the temple dining room by women of Douglas Court No. 18, Order of Amaranth, to the members of the Social Order of Beauceant; Knights Templar and guests.

Roseburg Assembly No. 223, Social Order of Beauceant was opened for public installation of officers by Mrs. Alfred M. Janssen, president of Portland Assembly No. 41 at 8 p.m. in the Roseburg Masonic Temple. Mrs. Talbot was escorted by Sir Knight Merle Frisbie, right eminent grand commander.

The following supreme installing officers were escorted to their stations: recorder, Mrs. George Dietrich, Portland; marshal, Mrs. Harry A. Watson, Portland; assistant marshal, Mrs. Wilbur Wellborn, Portland; chaplain, Mrs. William P. Guske, Eugene; director of music, Mrs. Merle Hanson, Eugene; standard bearer, Mrs. Robert F. Wagner, Eugene; color bearer, Mrs. George A. Williams, Corvallis.

The installing officers were escorted to their stations by the following Knights Templar Hubert E. Lapsley, past commander of Tancred Commandery 23; Harold W. Given, eminent grand generalissimo; Wilbur A. Wellborn, worthy senior grand deacon of the Grand Lodge of Oregon; John Given, past commander of Washington Commandery No. 15; John Robert Brownell, eminent grand junior warden; Charles Willey, eminent grand senior warden; and Robert Wagner, eminent grand captain of the guard.

Officers presented and installed were: President, Mrs. Henry K. Halvorsen (Her husband is junior past commander of Ascelon Commandery, Knights Templar); orator, Mrs. A. J. Young; first vice president, Mrs. Charles Thomas; preceptress, Mrs. Robert Coley; recorder, Mrs. Victor Micelli; treasurer, Mrs. Lloyd Wilson; marshal, Mrs. Roy Young; assistant marshal, Mrs. Roy Haven; director of music, Mrs. Rolland McBride; standard bearer, Mrs. Harry Young; color bearer, Mrs. Otto Lange; mistress of wardrobe, Mrs. Earl Remick; daughter of household, Mrs. A. C. Spencer; inner guard, Mrs. John Preston; and outer guard, Mrs. Roy Critchfield.

Mrs. Frank Talbot formally introduced the newly installed president, Mrs. Henry Halvorsen, after which a solo was sung by Mrs. Paul Barcus, president of the Roseburg Zullema Nile Club, accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Carsten, Princess Boudora of Zuleima. A beautiful bouquet of red roses was presented to the worthy president by the York Rite bodies of Roseburg and a gift to the Roseburg Assembly was presented by S. K. Otto Lange, eminent commander of Ascelon Commandery No. 14 Roseburg.

Many beautiful and useful gifts for the Roseburg Assembly were received from the Assemblies in other parts of the United States.

Several dignitaries from the Knights Templar commanderies in Oregon were introduced, among them Merle Frisbie, eminent grand commander, Stewart Norton, junior past grand commander.

The closing benediction was given by Wilbur A. Wellborn. A reception followed in the dining room. Pouring were Mrs. Stanley E. Luce, president of Tacoma Assembly No. 168; Mrs. Arthur Burgess, President of Corvallis Assembly 201; and Mrs. Alfred Janssen, president of Portland Assembly No. 41.

Those eligible for membership in the Order of Beauceant are wives and widows of Knights Templar.

Benefit Dinner Held At Glendale

Approximately 155 were served at a Brownie and Girl Scout-sponsored dinner held in the Glendale Elementary School Cafeteria Tuesday evening. Proceeds from the dinner, along with those from the March 23 goodies sale, will be used to pay the expenses for holding a day camp for Brownies and Girl Scouts this summer.

Troop leaders, Mrs. Carl Ford, Mrs. Pat Mize, Mrs. Ray Jean Miller, Mrs. Alvin Howard, Mrs. Dale Johns and Mrs. Dean Swanson, had charge of the dinner. Members of the Girl Scout groups assisted. Mrs. Leonard Baalman had charge of the kitchen, and Mrs. Gene Hartman was ticket chairman.

Mrs. Dean Swanson, neighborhood chairman, expressed appreciation for all those who assisted and for the donations of food. She also expressed the appreciation of the Scout and Brownie organizations to Principal Charles Clark for the use of the kitchen and cafeteria for the event.

Roy Haven and Mrs. John Preston. Back row: Mrs. V. J. Micelli, Mrs. Lloyd Wilson, Mrs. A. C. Spencer, Mrs. Roy Young, Mrs. Earl Remick, Mrs. Otto Lange and Mrs. Roy Critchfield.

THE FOUR GENERATIONS pictured above include from left to right: great-grandmother, Mrs. Ralph Richter, Roseburg; grandmother, Mrs. Wilmer White; mother, Mrs. John Bibow, and her son, Carl, all of Camas Valley.

Visits Family

Rols Bibow, from Copenhagen, Denmark, spent several days recently at the home of his brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. John Bibow in Camas Valley.

He also visited Oregon State University which he attended several years ago.

The main reason for his visit was to attend the christening of the John Bibow's son, Carl Grant, who was born last September. Carl was christened at the Faith Lutheran Church in Roseburg April 21 by the Rev. Allen G. Ingebritsen.

The dress worn by Carl is a family christening dress first worn by Carl's great-grandmother and handed down from generation to generation. It is approximately 100 years old. Made of white silk, it is lined with white silk.

Godparents of Carl are his great-uncle, Robert Richter of Camas Valley; his uncle, Rols Bibow of Copenhagen Denmark; his aunt, Mrs. Eddie Nichols of Glendale; and his cousin, Mona Smith-Sorensen of Norway.

Party Is Given

Mrs. Frank Gausnell held a demonstration party at the home of Mrs. Wiley McGraw of Buckhorn Road Tuesday.

Those attending were Mrs. Hazel Brown, Helen Broxon, Donna Long, Ruby Driggers and Georgia May. Demonstrator was Virginia Miller.

After the party, lovely refreshments were served.

Mothers Tea Announced

"International" has been selected for the theme of the annual Mothers' tea at Myrtle Creek High School. Passports have been sent to the students' mothers, inviting them to the tea, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in the gymnasium May 16 and presented by the Future Homemakers of America.

Clothes made in Home Economics Classes — II, and III, as well as clothes from a local store will be modeled by members of FHA including styles from swim suits to formal.

Demonstration Given At Party

Mrs. John Levenhagen of Elkton was hostess at her home recently at a demonstration party with the following guests present: Mrs. Marvin Jeffcoat, Mrs. Loman Baker, Mrs. Hector McInnis, Mrs. Ariel Hubbard, Mrs. Gilbert Binder, Mrs. Clara Riley, Mrs. Blanche Wade, Mrs. Francis Mack, Mrs. Bob Beal, Mrs. Fred Riley, Mrs. Jim Brown, Mrs. Robert Billick and Mrs. Gladys Stewart.

Mrs. Bessie Lakey of Drain was demonstrator. The door prize was won by Mrs. Fred Riley.

Following the demonstration, refreshments were served by the hostess.

Society

8 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. — Tues., May 14, 1963

Wedding Event Of Saturday

The First Methodist Church in Sutherlin was the setting for the wedding of Miss Suzanne Atterbury and Barry Hoobler. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Eugene Groves Saturday at 8 p.m. before 100 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delos J. Atterbury of Sutherlin. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne E. Hoobler, also of Sutherlin.

The church was decorated with large baskets of white stock and daffodils, combined with fern and other greenery. White carnations decorated the altar and church windows. Flanking the prayer bench was the candelabra with the traditional lighted tapers. White satin bows with lily of the valley marked the church pews.

Traditional wedding music from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn was played by the organist, Mrs. Arthur Treman. "The Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love" were sung by Dennis Hagen.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of white satin embellished with lily of the valley. Her shoulder-length veil of French illusion was held by a crown of pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and lily of the valley with white satin streamers. Her jewelry, a gold cross, was a gift from the bridegroom.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Nancy Grauf, who wore a full skirted dress of yellow chiffon over taffeta. Her headpiece was of yellow tulle, held in place by matching flowers. She carried a fan of yellow carnations and wore yellow satin slippers and matching gloves. Miss Claire Hoobler, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Nancy Brown, cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaids and were dressed identically to the matron of honor.

Candlelighters were Judy and Teresa Brown, cousins of the bride. They wore identical dresses of yellow lace over taffeta. Lighting the altar and window candles were Bob and Bill Atterbury, brothers of the bride.

Best man was John Isaacson of Eugene. Ushers were Larry Johnson and Ronald Fugate.

The bride's mother was attired in an orchid wool sheath dress, with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a white knitted boucle dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The guest book was presented by Kathy Anderson.

Miss Mary Ellen Farmer and Miss Sharon Bever had charge of the gift table. Following the ceremony the bride's parents hosted a reception in the church social rooms. The serving table was centered by a lovely white three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. H. A. Doyle, aunt of the bride, served the cake. Punch was served by Miss Nida Emerson and the coffee by Miss Caroline Paynter.

Honored guests were Mrs. Cora Allen, grandmother of the bride; Milo Atterbury of Albany, great uncle of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon D. Atterbury of Medford, brother and sister-in-law of the bride.

Other out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Jack Isaacson, Eugene, Elmo Atterbury and Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Planenborn and Steve from Medford and Mrs. Dennis Chris of Portland.

For going away the bride chose a green wool suit with white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is attending Sutherlin High School and will be graduated this month. The bridegroom attended schools in Chico and Santa Barbara, Calif., and is now associated with his father in the insurance business.

After a short honeymoon trip to Southern California, the young couple will be at home in Sutherlin.

It Pays To Patronize
News - Review Advertisers

A PRETTY WEDDING of Saturday evening took place in the presence of 100 guests at the First Methodist Church in Sutherlin, when Suzanne Atterbury became the bride of Barry Hoobler. Following a honeymoon to California, the newlyweds will reside in Sutherlin. (Picture by Warren Studio).

Mercy Hospital Auxiliary Charming Affair Thursday

Mercy Hospital Auxiliary annual membership coffee was a large and charming affair of Thursday, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon at the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Verberkmoes on SE Terrace Drive.

Decorations for the occasion were arranged by Mrs. Paul Jenkins. Mrs. Jack Gamet and Mrs. Robert Murphy were co-chairmen of the event with Mrs. C. H. Bab-bitt receiving the guests and Mrs. Paul Flood, Mrs. LeRoy Lemons, Mrs. Jack Smith and Mrs. Joe Taucher assisting about the rooms.

Mrs. William Cooke had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Walt Brittel, membership. Assisting were Mrs. Robert Hatterscheid and Mrs. B. L. Martin.

The serving table, covered by a brown organdy cloth, was centered with a gorgeous arrangement of spring flowers in shades of apricot, orange, yellow cream and white. Artistic arrangements of spring flowers formed the room decorations. Pouring were Mrs. J. A. Colbrunn, Mrs. James H. Harris, Mrs. Paul Geddes and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

The very beautiful gardens surrounding the home were especially enjoyed by the many guests. The home commands a panoramic view of Roseburg and its surrounding hills.

Celebration Set

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Stark of Riversdale will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary at an open house May 19 at the Riversdale Grange hall. Friends and relatives are invited to call between 2 and 4:30 p.m.

Hosting the affair will be the Starks' son and daughter, Dick Stark and Mrs. John Trozelle.

The honored couple has requested that there be no gifts.

PENNEY'S

ALWAYS FIRST QUALITY

jamaicas! slacks! dandy pants!

QUITE A COUP! ONLY AT PENNEY'S, TOO!
SMASH-SAVINGS ON DAN RIVER COTTON PANTS!

Only Penney's could be so gay, so bright, so right! It's our way! We teamed up with Dan River way back at the fabric-picking stage... collected wash 'n wear, little-or-no-iron cotton plaids and solids... found a top sports-wear maker... and just look what we've come up with! A great-day collection of pants, knee-knockers and jamaicas! Hurry in and save!

1⁷⁷ JAMAICAS. 2⁷⁷ PANTS AND KNEE-KNOCKERS.

SAVINGS ON BLOUSES TOO! 2 for $3.00

Choice of 50% Arnel Triacetate and 50% cotton or 65% Dacron polyester and 35% cotton. Tuck-in or wear out. Sleeveless, with four collar styles to choose from. White and assorted pastels.

Hucrest Kindergarten
PRE-REGISTRATION
Thursday - May 16th
9:30 A.M.
FIRST COME — FIRST SERVED
HUCREST SCHOOL

FOREST GLEN Senior Residence

Elderly married couples will find retirement happiness right here in Douglas County. At this beautiful residential hotel, with its attractive apartments and comfortable lounges, every effort is made for your comfort and happiness.

NO TAXES — NO CHORES —
NO HOUSEHOLD WORRIES

WHAT DO YOU GET?

Board, room, medical, hospital and nursing care, plus companionship and lots of fun.

Moreover, YOU WILL BE NEAR FAMILY and FRIENDS RIGHT HERE in Douglas County.

WRITE: FOREST GLEN SENIOR RESIDENCE
Canyonville, Oregon
or Phone 839-4961