Glide Area Mothers Enjoy Annual Girls League Tea

More than 200 mothers attended the annual Mothers Tea held at the Glide High School Multipurpose room Friday.

The theme, Oriental Gardens, was effectively carried out by the use of decorative greenery placed to emphasize a delicate shell fountain flanked by a small foot bridge. A mural of Mount Fujiyama formed the background of the setting. The foot bridge became the entrance for the style show which featured clothes made or bought by the girls. Climaxing the show was the modeling of a stunning lace wedding gown. Refreshments were served to the mothers by Oriental-clad hostesses.

The tea was concluded with the installation of next year's Girls League officers and gift presentations to Miss Patricia Mayo and Mrs. Helen Neal as expressing appreciation for their work with the league.

Over-all chairman of the tea was Iona McCord.

Pair Complimented At Tea Hosted By Rebekah Lodge

A delightful tea was served by the Roseburg Rebekah Lodge Sunday at the IOOF Hall. The occasion honored Thella Webber, assembly color bearer, and Glenda Beach, Theta Rho Assembly musician.

The hall was beautifully decorated with baskets of spring flowers and a lovely table featuring a candle entwined with roses and a rose-decorated cake inscribed with the honored guests' names.

Noble Grand Helen Woods presided at the coffee urn, and Bertha Lett at the punch bowl. A delightful program was presented by Lena Poole and Minnie Batton. A song was sung by Margaret and Anne Saunders, with Mrs. Poole at the piano. Others participating in the program were Alice Batton, Sandy McCoy and Stephanie Jellison.

Gifts were presented to the guests of honor on behalf of the lodge and the Past Noble Grand Club.

The lovely decorations were done by Veima Herman. Refreshments were served by Fay Jensen, Bea McDonald, Mary Myers, Jessie Thomas, Elsie Mills and Ona Williams.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Taylor noble grand of Riddle Lodge; and Mrs. Annabelle Kirk of Coos Bay, who had been initiated by Mrs. Webber when she was noble grand of the Roseburg Rebekah Lodge.
