Grange At Sutherlin Sets Public Card Party Friday

By MRS. JERRY DeMUTH
Plans for a public pinocle party to be held at the Grange Hall Friday at 8 p.m. were announced by Evelyn Frotischer at the recent regular meeting of the Sutherlin Community Grange. Mrs. Frotischer also gave the report from the Home Economics Club.

Reports Are Given
Chairmen of various standing committees also made their reports. Evelyn Frotischer gave a report on the meeting of the Pomona Death Benefit Fund committee held at the Riversdale Grange Hall Sunday. Icel Clark reported for the committee checking the Grange by-laws.
The secretary read a letter from Helen Hodges who is moving to California. A card was received from Agnes Stout in Florida thanking the members for flowers she had received during her recent illness.
A letter was read from the state Grange master concerning the attendance at the State Grange meeting to be held in Portland June 10 to 14.
Borden Beck was reported seriously ill in a Portland hospital. The literary program consisted of a reading "The Legend of the May Basket," by Ellen Liesinger; a reading "Mother's Almanac," by Dorothy Clark; and "O Sweet Bird of Youth" by Henry Frotischer.

Eugene Atwood, county Grange deputy, spoke on Grange membership. Refreshments were served following the meeting by the hostess, Ellen Liesinger and Daisy Godfrey.

Women Meet
The Home Economics Club of the Grange held its regular meeting with Daisy Godfrey and Ellen Liesinger as hostesses for the noon potluck luncheon held at the Grange Hall. Ten members were present.

The work chairman reported on articles that have been made for the display tables.
Ruth Brittain was appointed general chairman of the public pinocle party to be held May 17. Mable Pearce was reported as recovering from recent surgery in a Portland hospital and Hazel Scruggs was reported to be ill at her home.

The next meeting of the club will be June 4 at the home of Gertrude Bringle with Charlotte Parker as co-hostess.

Bus Trip To Capitol Made By Glide, Toketee Students

By MRS. ARTHUR SELBY
Fifty-one members of the 8th grade class of Glide Junior High School and three eighth grade students from Toketee Upper Elementary school left Friday morning for Salem and were met by Sen. Al Flegel of Roseburg who took them on a tour of the State Capitol. The group also visited the campus of Willamette University. On the return home, they stopped at Corvallis to visit the Oregon State University campus.

Serviceman Visits In Lookingglass

By HAZEL S. MARSH

Eddie Meredith, who has been in training at the U.S. Air Force Vandenberg Base in California, is enjoying a leave in Lookingglass with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Meredith, and family.
He is en route to the Air Force base near Anchorage, Alaska, where he will continue service in the mechanical division. He was graduated from Douglas High School prior to entry into the service.

Resident Returns
Mrs. J. C. Williams has returned to her home in the valley following several weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Harmer, and family in the Los Angeles area. She was hospitalized for surgery while in the south but reports she is making a good recovery.
A group of teen-age boys under the supervision of Mickey Jasper went on an overnight camping trip in the upper Steamboat area Friday, returning Saturday evening. In the group were Glen and Jerry Nielsen, Frank Todd, Bill Marsh, Rawleigh and Bill Cox, Kenny Trimble, Jim Sanford, Tom Ellis and Larry Green.

Mrs. Ruby Vance, who recently underwent major surgery at Community Hospital in Roseburg, has been brought to her home to convalesce.
Jim Williams came from Oregon State University to spend the Mother's Day weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams.
Mrs. Arthur Marsh went to Albany Thursday to attend the two-day conference of the Oregon Division of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. She accompanied Mrs. J. M. Boyles and Mrs. William Kissinger of Roseburg, all of whom were delegates from the Roseburg Society of the First Methodist Church.

Adults Accompany
Chaperones for the group were Sherman Mowery and Wilcey Winchell, eighth grade instructors at Glide; Mrs. Bertha Mayfield, instructor at Toketee; and Roy Hansen of Little River Road. The group left the Glide High school grounds by school bus at 6 a.m. returning at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Emil Palm and Mrs. Gus Brock of Little River Road drove to California Friday, the former to spend Mother's Day visiting her daughter, Sandy Isakson, at San Francisco and the latter to visit over Mother's Day with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Hanson of Santa Rosa.

A group of Glide residents drove to Cottage Grove Sunday to attend a family birthday party for Kenneth Shrum and also the observance of Mother's Day. Those attending from Glide were the parents of the birthday celebrant, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Shrum Sr.; his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Shrum Jr.; his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Melvin, Kathy, Jean, John and Marcia and Sarah; and from Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Myers, parents of Mrs. Kenneth Shrum.

Memorial Service Attended
Elbert Cellers drove to Drain Sunday to attend Memorial services for his mother, Mrs. Joe Cellers, held at the Drain Methodist Church. His brother, Montgomery Cellers, from Seattle also attended the ceremonies.

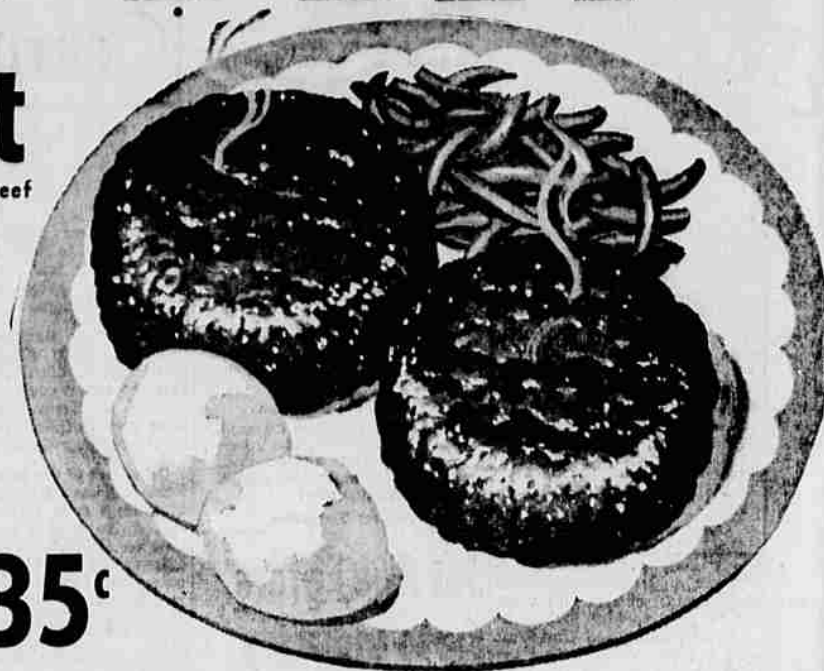

David Cellers, a junior at the University of Oregon, accompanied by Miss Pat Reese of Eugene, arrived in Roseburg Friday evening to visit the former's brother, Neil, confined in Douglas Community Hospital for medical treatment. They spent the Mother's Day weekend at the Glide home of David's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Cellers, and to celebrate his birthday.
