New Officers Elected Monday

New officers of Rose PTA were installed at a meeting Monday evening at the schoolhouse. E. S. Hall, who is retiring as principal of the school this spring, acted as installing officer.

New officers include: Mrs. David Block, president; Earl Wiard, first vice president; Kathleen Scott, second vice president; Mrs. Milford McClain, secretary; Mrs. A. H. Gerlitz, treasurer.

Mrs. Block gave a most interesting report on the state convention, which she attended. Miss Vera Fredrickson, on behalf of the teachers, presented a gift of an old-time desk used in the old Rose School building, to Mr. Hall. The new principal, James Gregory, and his wife and children, Ron, Bobby, Ricky, Billy and Cheryl, were introduced.

Lovely refreshments were served by the second grade mothers.

82nd Birthday Is Celebrated

Fred Reeves of Elkhead celebrated his 82nd birthday Sunday at a family dinner at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reeves were hosts for the dinner with the following guests present: Fred Reeves of Yoncalla; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph (Sparky) Reeves of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reeves and two children of Brookings; Jerry Reeves of Corvallis; and Mrs. Phoebe Pew and son, Marvin, of Yoncalla.

Birthday Marked By Celebrations

Mrs. Douglas Croy of Tenmile entertained Thursday to honor her daughter, Connie, on her 10th birthday. Guests played games and enjoyed refreshments which included a lovely birthday cake.

Enjoying the lawn party were Connie Croy, Virginia Weinhold, Kathy Fish, Mary Good, Mark Dwight, Patsy Cornell, Diane and Michael Lockwood, Gregory Dwight, Ricky Newlin and the hostess Mrs. Croy.

In the evening relatives gathered at the Croy home to help Connie celebrate her birthday. Present were her great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Lockwood; her grandmother, Mrs. Eva Lakey; Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Lakey, Dwayne and Becky; Mrs. William Norton, Linda and Darrell; and Mr. and Mrs. Croy and Deena.

Piano Students Present Recital

Mrs. Glenn Butler was hostess at a piano recital given by Al Morris' piano students at her Myrtle Creek home on the Gazley Road Saturday evening. Each student played two selections and after the recital students were given a chance to play one of their choice.

The following students participated: Hope Thompson, Valerie Johnson, Linda Young, Karen Parelus, Cheryl and Candy Sellers, Rochelle and Sharon DeGroodt, Teresa Meyer, Kathy McGinty, Harry Carr and Roy and LaRue Butler. Dolly Sue Shupert was unable to be present.

Refreshments were served to 35 students and parents. A pink color theme was carried out on the cup cakes. Another recital is planned for sometime in the fall.

To Be June Bride

Miss Janie Cox of Medford, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Cox of Glendale and a former Glendale resident, has set June 8 as the date for her wedding to J. W. Lynch of Medford.

Miss Cox is employed as clerk in the office of the Southern Pacific Roadmaster and Trainmaster in Medford. She was transferred from Glendale to Medford when that office was moved there several years ago.

Luncheon Marks 48th Year Of Founding Of GV Group

Memories of 48 years were recalled Thursday as members of the Garden Valley Women's Club met for luncheon. The month of May marks the month of the founding of the club when Mrs. John Sinclair interested the valley women in banding together for community improvement and friendship. Among those in attendance at that first meeting and also at Thursday's anniversary were Mrs. John Sinclair, Mrs. Peter Sinclair and Mrs. W. D. Hess.

In the early days of the club, according to the senior members' recollections, they met in the home of a hostess, meeting twice a month. Business meetings were varied by a program, quite often musical, but also including discussions of books, politics, and community and national issues. Philanthropic interests have included the Children's Farm Home in Corvallis, Red Cross, Mothers March on Polio, the Community Christmas baskets and aid to neighbors in distress. There are many other projects which have received their support through the years.

The tables which had been arranged by Mrs. Harding Knapp and Mrs. Carl Arola were delightful with spring flowers and May basket nut cups. Especially pleasing were the colorful boxes of candy made by Kittie Winniford. Mrs. Bill Tipton was in charge of the program. She presented Kenneth Ewens who showed "100 Valleys of the Umpqua."

Attending besides the three charter members, were: Mrs. Alva Teeter, Etta Warner, Mrs. Carl Lehmann, Mrs. Clifford McKay, Mrs. Peter Pon, Mrs. Kittie Winniford, Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Mrs. E. A. Post, Mrs. K. C. Laver, Mrs. E. S. Booth.

Mrs. F. Graham Ewens, Mrs. Bill Tipton, Mrs. W. C. Bailey, Mrs. Ernest Trussell, Mrs. Carl Arola, Mrs. Walter Norris, Mrs. Clem Schneider, Mrs. Walter Edmonds, Mrs. John Denton, Raelene Young.

Mrs. Ray Young, Mrs. Bert Kruse, Mrs. Dale Guiley, Mrs. B. W. Maddox, Mrs. Eddie Kohlhaugen, Mrs. Harding Knapp, Mrs. Neil Christian, Mrs. Lyle Bostwick, Mrs. C. L. Spray, and Mrs. Harvey Ewens.

Mrs. James Marr installed the following officers: Mrs. Delton Walker, president; Mrs. Dale Wright, first vice president; Roy E. Crain, second vice president; Mrs. Jack O'Brien, secretary; and Mrs. Don Caskey, treasurer. A president's pin was given to Mrs. Walker, who in turn presented a past president's pin to Mrs. Chris Sabala. A gift was also presented to Mrs. Sabala, Mrs. Jack Gordon, school secretary, was also honored as well as Mrs. Logan Pruitt, a teacher who is retiring this year.

Refreshments were served by the second grade mothers in the cafeteria.

Yoncalla BPW Club Gives Annual Dinner For Bosses

The annual "Bosses" dinner sponsored each year by members of the Yoncalla Business and Professional Women's Club was held Saturday evening at the city hall. The Elkhead Trail Riders prepared and served the delicious turkey dinner.

Mrs. Harold Turpin was mistress of ceremonies for the evening. Guest speaker was Norval Ritchey of the University of Oregon, a former Yoncalla boy. The head of the Peace Corps of Eugene was also present and spoke.

Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bennett, Mr.

Residents Of Forest Glen Honored At Charming Tea

Pink camellias and rhododendrons arranged with crystal and silver on white cloths presented a gracious setting when Oregon Chapter No. 57, Order of Eastern Star entertained Forest Glen senior residents at a tea in the Masonic Temple, Canyonville, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ray Wright and Mrs. William Preston poured coffee and tea from the silver service purchased for just such occasions by

50th Anniversary

Mrs. Lois McCormack and son, Mike, of Ridgewood entertained Sunday at their home at a dinner honoring her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Duncan, on their 50th wedding anniversary.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Busenbark and Mr. and Mrs. Leland Ewing.
